

MMHA House League ends

Smith's Mobile nipped Wye Heritage 4-3 to gain the Midland Houseleague Hockey bantam championship Saturday at Centennial Arena.

On the final day of play the other championships were taken by Midland Times in the Peeewe; Royal Lepage in Atoms; Bike Shop in Novice; and Bertram Fuels in Major Tykes. In the mini-tykes final game it was Meatland - Stonleigh coming out on top.

Gary Puddicombe led Smith's Mobile scoring with two while Jeff Mayer and Joel Heins added singles. Wye Heritage got a pair from Richard Bianco and a single from Neil Snowden.

In the bantam consolation final, Wye Heritage blanked Free Press 2-0 with goals from Richard Bianco and Dennis Quesnelle.

Midland Times got two goals from each of Mike Besley and Sean Lavin as well as solos from Spencer Warren and Terry Waltenbury to defeat Midland

Police 6-1 after Police marksman martin Kraftscik had opened the scoring.

In peewee consolation, John's Catering outscored Cowan's Construction 4-1. Cowan's Mike Boyd opened the scoring in the second period but Jeff Duval and Scott Cooper replied with two tallies each, Cooper's coming within 18 seconds of each other.

Shane Belfry got the shutout for Royal Lepage while Jason Smith, Shawn Asselin and Darren Cruise netted one apiece.

In atom consolation, Realty World clipped Midland IGA 3-2 with a hat-trick effort from Sean Brooks. Kevin Lunnie and Jeremy Bruhn answered for IGA.

Bike Shop got five first period goals from Chad Taylor, who scored twice, Ryan Smith, Cory Bath and Richard Quesnelle who notched one marker each. The Dynasty Inn goal came from Adam Desroches.

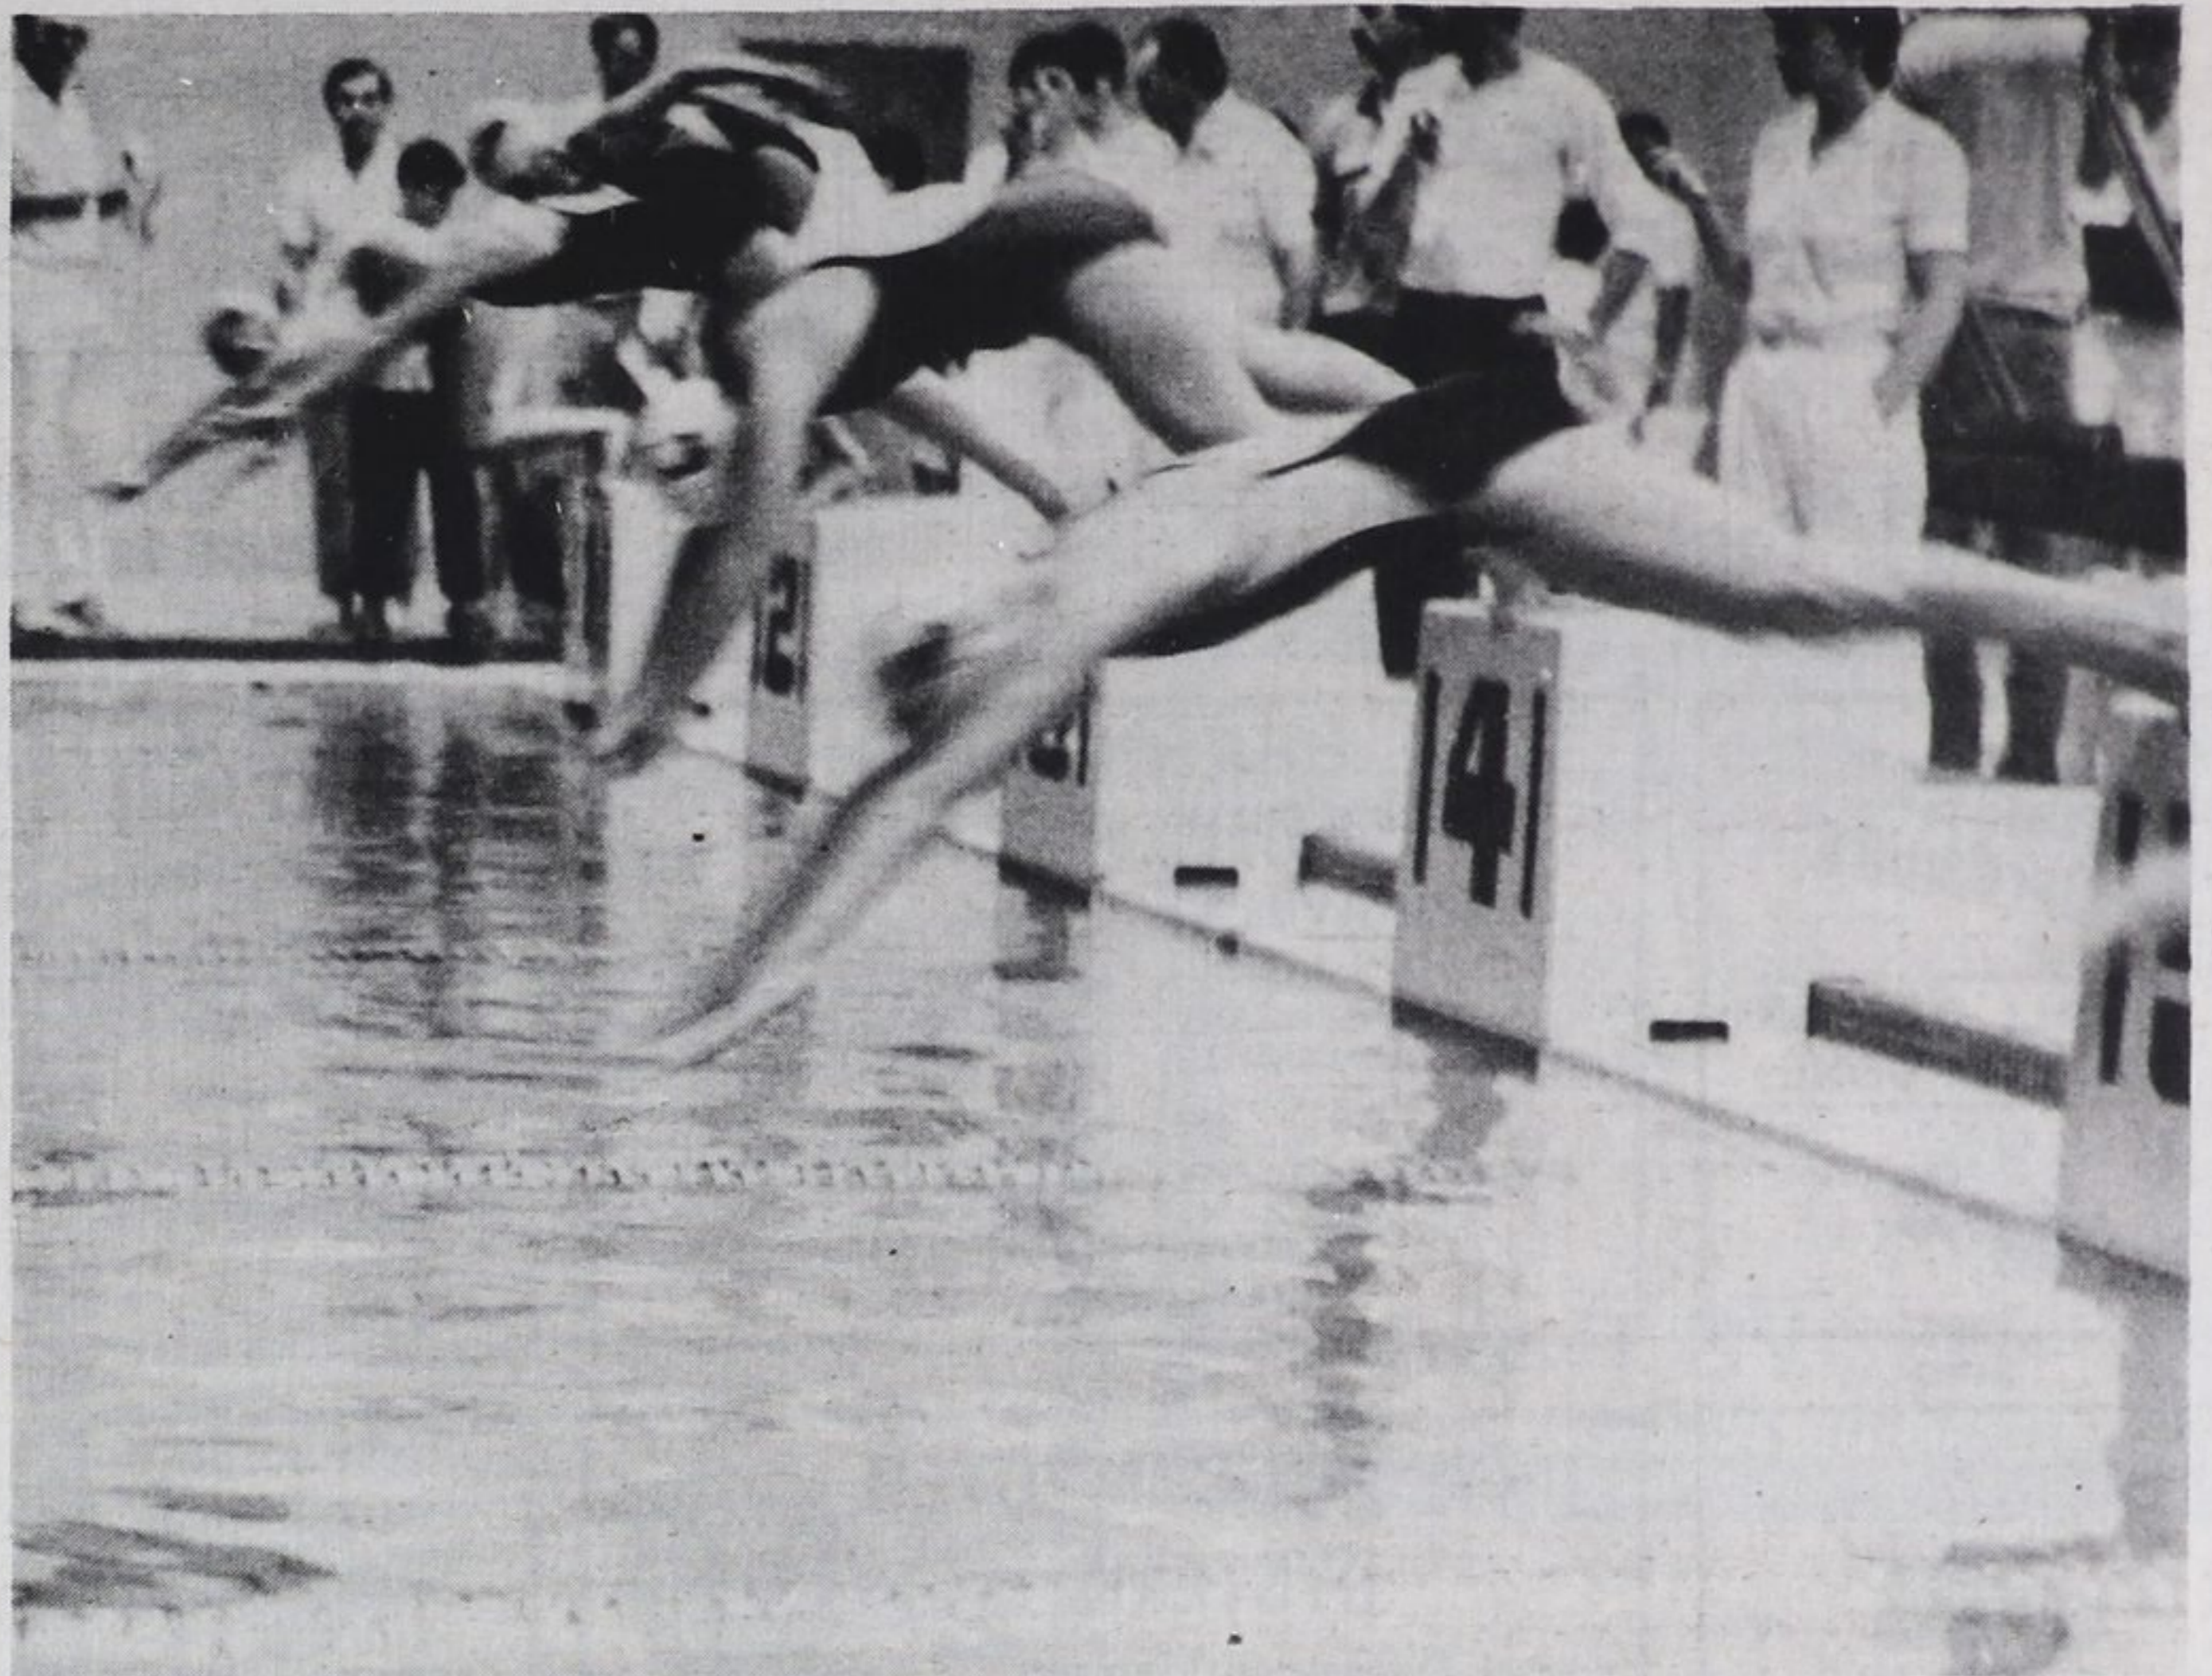

Bourgeois Motors rebounded from a 2-0 deficit in the novice consolation to defeat Mr. Submarine 4-3. Aaron Dorion scored three times for Bourgeois while Brendon MacKell got the single. Corby Lesperance, Bob Richardson and Chris White scored one each.

Bertram's got two from Jeff Linka and one from Joshua Marion to defeat Meatland 3-2. Rory Levechia netted a pair for Meatland.

In Major tyke consolation, Daryl McGibbon came through with four goals to lead Jory's IDA over Stonleigh Motors 6-2. Adam Rumney and Doug Reid got the other Jory's tallies. Ryan Cameron and Anthony Lalonde scored for Stoneleigh.

In the mini-tyke final Meatland-Stonleigh overpowered Bertram-Jory 10-0. Kris Franz and Cheryne Cruise each put in triple efforts to which Justin Neilson added a double, Eric Tindale and Joshua Jeffry with singles. Jamie Hamelin got the shutout.

And they're off

These swimmers took to the water like fish at the annual Bell Canada Invitational Swim Meet at the Midland YMCA pool Sunday. Several parents and fans jammed the pool for the day's activities. Results were not available at press time.
