100 join soccer league

by Ed Pearson

Two charming and energetic young matrons, Carol Coutts and Judy Thomas, saw the need, three years ago, for a minor soccer league in Midland, so they promptly organized one. The first year 60 players registered, the second year 90, this year more than one hundred eager youngsters flocked to join. The league is growing in leaps and bounds.

The league's coaches found themselves performing a few leaps and bounds last Saturday morning at the Civic Centre. Under the auspices of Midland's Recreation Co-ordinator Bryan Peter, the ladies convened a coaches clinic. The said coaches performed a few callisthenics to put a little spring into their stagger and to prepare themselves for the rigours of the coming season. They also formulated some basic coaching drills. All twelve coaches attended, and the well known Toronto referee, Ken Maslin, addressed them on the subject of game management and how to learn to love the referee.

Mr. Maslin has been appointed Director of Security for the Under Sixteen World Cup Tournament which takes place in Toronto during July of this year. Sixteen countries will be taking part in the International contest. Mr. Maslin conferred with Mr. Christopher Armstrong, Referee in Chief of the Midland Minor Soccer League.

The players, who range from ankle-biters to shinkickers (5 to 11 years), play on Monday evenings at Midland S.S., kick-off 6:30 p.m. There will be at least six teams.

Minor Soccer enjoys a wide appeal throughout Ontario with more than 60,000 players registered. Soccer is an excellent con-
