Cumming-Nicholson Fine Shoes Ltd.

The store was first opened in 1938 by Earl Cumming and Ernie Nicholson. Their concept was simple but true - fine shoes fit properly.

When they decided to retire in June of 1970 the business was bought by Elwood Marcellus and John Patchell. This partnership went on until January 1977 when John took it over himself.

John's staff consists of Karen Dickerson, who joined the business in 1983, and in 1984 Kathy Johnson, who have brought experienced shoe-fitting skills to the job.

Both have attended seminars and shoe manufacturing tours for product knowledge.

John's goals are to improve the quality and selection of shoes in stock and to bring the best looking and fitting shoes to Midland.

John has two lovely daughters - Genevievé 9 and Shawna Lee who is 8. He enjoys tennis, hockey, baseball and has a great appreciation of nature.

In October of 1983, because of the growing business, they opened a second store in the Mountainview Mall.

The Lamer's have three children, whom they hope will eventually take over the business, and two grandchildren.
