

Say Ahh

The referee appears to be checking the midget wrestler's throat, but in actuality he is being chastised for an incorrect hold. The midget is obviously not happy with the refs opinion. Action was taken at Midland Centennial Arena Saturday night as several professional wrestling bouts entertained over 400 fans. Photo by Larry Bowen.

In Pain

Pressure is applied to this lady wrestler's arms as the referee checks to see if she has had enough. Then again, maybe he is trying to convince her that she should have dinner with him. Photograph was taken

Wrestling a hit in Midland

by Larry Bowen

Professional wrestling returned to Midland arena last Saturday evening to a house of about 400 cheering and jeering wrestling fanatics.

Crazy Chris Colt lost the eight foot tall steel cage match to Jet Starr. This match was very bloody as Chris Colt used knuckle dusters to open a large gash on the forehead of Jet Starr.

The end came when Colt took the door off the steel cage and attempted to bring it down on Jet Starr's head, but Starr moved out of the way in time and the steel door hit the top rope with such a force, that it rebounded back and crashed right into Crazy Chris Colt's face, sending him to the mat. At this time, Jet Starr scurried out of the cage and won the match.

In other action, Ricky Johnson defeated the Wolfman on a disqualification when the Wolfman was using a leather belt to choke Johnson over the ropes.

Terry S. R. was pinned by Sweet Daddy Siki, by using both feet for leverage on the middle turnbuckle. Shortly after raising Sweet Daddy's arm as victor, the referee learned of what had happened and reversed his decision giving the win to Terry.

In the midget bout, Little T defeated Cubby Baxter.

Elmira the Metal Queen was pinned by fan favourite Carrie Long in the lady's match.

Also Gentle Ben the wrestling bear is still undefeated.

Rustlers move up in standings

Rx Rustlers moved out of the middle of the pack last week in Huronia Slow Pitch action to a tie for fourth place, two points out of third and three out of second. Rustlers won a pair, 10-4 over Chez Henri and 11-10 over Commodore Hotel.

In Wednesday night's action, Realty World McQuirter defeated Waubaushene IGA by a 17-14 count with Realty's Ken Corriveau stroking the lone home run of the contest.

Wilkins Auto picked up their third win of the season by dropping cellar dwelling Catalina Central 17-8.

Pat Duval's two home runs led Ogilvies to a 19-7 win over Bay Mills.

Marlin Travel remained in the thick of the battle for first place by trouncing Dynasty Inn 27-9. Marlin's offence was generated by five home runs, two off the bat of Rob Fortin, while the others came from Andy Messenger, Ken Mitchell and Steve Paul.

On Friday at McGuire Park in Penetanguishene, Bob Legault and Glen Hancock each recorded a round tripper to lead Techform to a 14-3 win over Waubaushene IGA.

Jeff Dunn's home run helped Chez Henri to a 4-4 tie with TRW.

In the final contest, Realty World McQuirter and Ray Matt Insurance battled to a 7-7 draw.

I Give Up!

This referee wants nothing to do with the suggest submission. The bout was just one of several performed at the Midland

Centennial Arena Saturday night before hundreds of excited fans. Naturally the match was just unbeaten skein. Photo by Larry Bowen.
