Eleithia Shoppe

In 1950 the Eleithia Shoppe first opened in Midland. Its first location was where Peoples Store now stands. In 1951 the business moved across the street to its present location at 257 King Street.

Eleithia says, "I was always interested in ladies' wear, with every year bringing new styles and colors".

The business carries many well known names such as Jantzen, Cole of California, Regency Knitwear, Paris Starr, Thunder Bay coats and many others. Dresses, skirts, blouses, sweaters and much more can be found at the Eleithia Shoppe in all of the up-to-date colors and styles.

The friendly staff includes: Eleithia Deakos-owner, Shirley Dennis and Mary Urquhart. Eleithia says, "I have made so many good friends from Midland and the surrounding area over the years and it has always been a pleasure serving them".

Be sure to drop in to see Eleithia and her staff for all of your fashion needs.

Garner's Sports

Tom and Ruth Garner opened the business in 1964. Tom says, "After working seven years for a large company, I decided I wanted independence and what better way than your own business".

Garner's carries a large variety of sporting goods and clothing with most major companies such as: Adidas, Bauer, C.C.M., Cooper, Nike, Ocean Pacific and many more.

The Garner's long term goal is to continue operating a small business for a few more years and then see Canada.

Tom and Ruth have been married for 28 years and have two children. In his spare time, Tom enjoys hunting, fishing, golfing and is still playing hockey with the Midland 45s Old Timers team.

For all of your sporting needs drop in to Garner's at 294 King Street, you'll be sure to find exactly what you are looking for.
