Great sisters

The Big Sisters of Huronia held their annual meeting last Wednesday night at Freida's restaurant on King Street, Midland. Shown here are: board member Nadine Humenick, president Mary Ellen Moore, past-president and public relations chairperson Sue Blake and Big Sister June Butler.

Big Sisters need help

Big Sisters of Huronia are in urgent need of help.

Their office on Midland Avenue was forced to close because they could not raise the cash needed to keep it open. The annual cost is about $2,000 plus salary for a secretary.

And they are also in desperate need of people: people to be Big Sisters, people to join as board members and people to help as fundraisers.

As of now, there are 16 matched Little Sisters. But five others are on the waiting list with no Big Sister to look up to.

The Huronia chapter covers a wide area, consisting of Midland, Penetanguishene, Elmvale, Lafontaine, Waubaushene, Port McNicoll, Victoria Harbour and the Townships of Tay and Tiny.

Future fundraising efforts are planned, including a letter campaign to local businesses and professionals.

A big sister is someone willing to spend time with a girl, give her adult female companionship and be her friend.
