

Open Corner

This Innisfil Bruin puts the breaks on at the side of the net awaiting a rebound during Friday night's junior C contest at Centennial Arena. Midland lost to Innisfil 7-4 after running out of gas in the third frame. After outshooting the Bruins 34-19 over the first two periods, the Cents barely managed to nip them 9-8 in the shot department in the third period.

He Scores

Number 20 of the Midland Stoneleigh Centennials appears disgusted after an Innisfil Bruin found the mark Friday night at Centennial Arena in Georgian Bay Junior C hockey action. Midland outshot their guests on the evening but were unable to fill the net. The Cents are struggling a bit at the moment but should make their presence felt before the season is over.

by Gayle Hamelin
The Penetang-Midland Ladies Hockey League rep team, The Petras, are pleased to announce they will now be known as the P.M.L.H.L. How Construction Petras.

The How Construction Petras are currently swinging full gear for their fourth season. The Petras are the defending North-Eastern Ontario Women's Hockey Association Senior D Champions, a title we've held since joining the league two years ago.

On Oct. 17, the Petras travelled to Parry Sound to take part in their Centennial tournament. In the first game of the season, the Petras lost 6-2 to the eventual champions from Tiverton. The next two games were a 9-0 win over Parry Sound and 4-2 win over the Hunstville Hurricanes, giving the Petras a second place finish.

Saturday, October 24, the Petras were in Gravenhurst for an exhibition game against our North-Eastern Ontario Women's Hockey Association rivals. With only eight players suited for the game, the Petra strategy was to build an early lead and then play defense to save the tired legs. The strategy worked to perfection as the Petras built a 5-0 first period lead and coasted to a 6-2 final. Angel Rumney and Anne Majors volunteered to help out the shorthanded team.

The How Construction Petras will be holding their second annual Senior D tournament on Saturday, Nov. 14 at the Penetang Arena. The Ontario Women's Hockey Association sanctioned tournament gets under way at 8 a.m. with the host Petras taking on the Parry Sound Trillities and finishes with the championship game due to start at 7 p.m.

Other teams in the tourney are from Gravenhurst, Huntsville, Oshawa, Milverton, Stouffville and Keswick. Come on out to watch the ladies and enjoy the refreshments in the booster club. Admission is only $1.

Around The Net

A Midland Stoneleigh Centennial rounds the net picking up steam while the defenceman keeps his eyes on the attacking opposition. Midland hosted Innisfil Bruins at Centennial Arena Friday night and dropped a 7-4 decision. After being down only 1-0 after the first frame the locals found themselves trailing 5-1 in the second before the Cents rebounded for three in a row late in the period to close the gap.
