Loss heartbreaker

The Sixth Annual Marauders McDonald's Junior Invitational Basketball Tournament was held Friday and Saturday with eight teams participating.

Midland, Penetang, Barrie North Collegiate Institute and Lo-Ellen Park of Sudbury comprised Pool 1, while St. Theresa's, Bradford District High School, ODCVI and O'Neill Collegiate and Vocational Institute of Oshawa were in Pool 2.

Midland captured the championship in each of the last four years and won the Consolation title in the first year of their tourney.

This year, however, they lost a heartbreaker in the Consolation final Saturday afternoon to Orillia District, Collegiate and Vocational Institute 42-37.

Barrie North captured the Championship by turning on the jets in the final quarter to win 68-63 over O'Neill of Oshawa.

Midland opened the tourney with a 55-52 defeat of Lo-Ellen Park. MSS led 27-17 at the half. The Midland scoring was well spread as 10 different players hit the score sheet led by Jason Bennett's 11 points and Tim Boettger's 10.

Their late Friday night fixture pitted them against Penetang Secondary. After rolling to a 31-16 first half lead, Midland strolled home with a 57-42 win. Sean Lavin hooped 19 points for MSS to lead the 16 man scoring parade.

On Saturday morning, Jason Bennett hooped 19 points, but it didn't help as Barrie North outscored Midland 51-40.

The Senior Marauder Basketball tournament will be hosted January 8-9.

Queen's nips Jazz

Barrie Queen's Hotel edged Midland Jory I.D.A. Jazz 74-72 Thursday night in Simcoe County Intermediate Men's Basketball action. The score was tied at the half 40-40. Brett Marshall was the big man on the court for Queen's as he netted 26 points while
