Gerry Marshall, coach and general manager of the Kings, was pleased with his team's performance. While citing Restrup and goaltender Chris Lethbridge as two standouts in the game, he stated that the team played as a group for the first time this year. "We talked about team work between the first and second periods", stated Marshall. "We needed this win, we're seven points behind Midland with two games in hand. We want fourth place," reported the jubilant coach.

Stuart Restrup, who scored twice and added two assists on the night, had the best line of the evening. When asked if he considered that one of his best games, Restrup was quick to offer, "Yeah, because we won."
