Bus firm wins prize

Penetang-Midland Coach Lines Ltd. was recently presented with an award at the fourth annual meeting of the Transportation Safety Association of Ontario, held at the Skyline Constellation Hotel.

The award was presented in recognition of their reduction of injury frequency and accident costs. This award is presented to only one firm in Ontario in the public transportation industry.

Company spokesman Brian Dubeau commented that PMCL was honored to have received the award. PMCL has been in the public transportation for over a century.

Fastball league off and running

Dial-A-Movie avenged an 11-3 shellacking earlier last week in convincing fashion by downing Christian Island 7-2 in Olympia Fastball League action.

Dial-a-Movie jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the opening frame and added single counters in the third and fourth before the Islanders got back in the game with a pair in the bottom of the inning.

Dial-a-Movie broke the game open with a four-run fifth and closed down the Islanders the rest of the way.

Earl Cousineau picked up the win on the hill for Dial-a-Movie allowing just five base hits. Tim Sylvester and Foxy Jamieson shared the pitching duties for Christian Island combining for 13 hits.

Earlier in the week, Huronia Satellite plated six runs in the fifth inning to drop Dial-a-Movie 11-3. Al Farrell registered the win for Huronia.

Seldon wins ladies golf

On June 7, at the Midland Golf and Country Club the Qualifying round for the Haig Rose Bowl for the ladies' section was held and the winner of the day was Mae Seldon.

First flight, Linda Haig; second flight, Kumiko Utahara; third flight, Aldene MacInnis; and fourth flight, Hitomi Tajima.

These women were all net winners in their flight. Congratulations are due to Joan Brechin for winning the State Farm Insurance trophy donated by agent Todd Lalonde for the low net for the ladies for the month of May.

This is the month of the Finlayson trophy (four Thursdays in June this cup is played for). As of this writing the Midland women are eight points ahead of their nearest rival, Barrie.
