Liberty Days draws 900 to Penetang

Almost 900 visitors thronged Liberty Day at Penetanguishene's Historic Naval and Military Establishments on Saturday and Sunday. Perfect touring weather and a varied program of events proved a happy formula for the summer family enjoyment. Visitors took photographs and videos of the eight-man bayonet drill, tapped their toes to the tune of Muddy York's Ian Bell, and marvelled at the nautical skills of the Bee Brigade and the Newmakret Sea Cadets. The examined the bivouac of the Fifth Lincoln Militia and admired the sutler's wares. Picnic tables on the site saw heavy action and the Establishments Heritage Shoppe ran out of Mrs. Keating's scones - a popular snack.

Airs were light for Saturday's Tecumseth Trophy Race which culminated in a barbecue at the Midland Bay Sailing Club. Winners are (Class A) Andy Zuidema in Pacman; (Class B) Chris Armstrong in Scottish Mist; and (Class C) John Bishop in a Laser.

The final summer special event at the Establishments is Descendant's Day, August 20.

Getting to be a habit

For the fourth time, super-sailor Andy Zuidema and his Pacman have come in first place in the class A division of the annual Tecumseth Trophy Sailing Race.

Race committee chairman, Steve Killing (right), made the presentation at the post race reception held at the Midland Bay Sailing Club.

Four leave tournament minus gear

Four fishermen in Midland for a bass tournament on the weekend left without $4,300 worth of rods, reels, and tackle.

The fishing equipment was taken from their boats which were parked outside their King Street motel.

The fishermen came from Orangeville, Toronto, Belleville and Ottawa for the OV Pro Bass Fishing Tournament. More than 125 teams of two tried their luck in Georgian Bay on Saturday and Sunday.
