

Some "Colts"

Midland rink on to finals

by Ed Pearson

As the lawn bowling season draws to a close, the Midland club is putting together rinks to enter Provincial competition. The Midland greens were the venue for the Senior District 13 Mens Triples Championship last Thursday. For this very prestigious occasion the selection committee put together a very august rink, three senior bowlers, all Presidents of the club, one present and two past. Ray Goodenough skip, Jack Davis vice and Ken Ellis lead.

Pitted against such intimidating competition, it was not surprising that the Joe Bessie rink of Stayner should succumb to our local heroes. This put our heroes into the final against the Allandale (Barrie) rink which was skipped by no lesser person than Bill Wuerch, the 13 district chairman. The Midland rink was in top form again and emerged as champions.

The win carries the Midland rink into the Provincial Finals which will be played down in Brampton on September 8 and 9. If the President's rink maintain its fine form in the Finals, they are home free. The Skip, Ray (Radar) Goodenough, who was honing on to the jack all day, gave credit to his front end, "They set me up and left me nothing to do", he said.

Felt a little skittish myself on Sunday. Got nominated to skip the "Colts" in the Provincial playdowns at Stayner. After enduring some nasty remarks about it being the "Clydesdale" class of the Colts. As it turned out, my vice and lead were also Englishmen, Les Cowdrey and John Caygill. At last we were able to discuss tactics without the opposition being able to understand us.

Volleyball camp

Midland Volleyball Club will be holding their Fifth Annual Summer Volleyball Camp at the Little Lake Park beach courts Monday, August 29-Friday, September 2.

The cost of the five day camp will be $50 which includes a T-shirt and daily instruction on skills, fitness work, game play with emphasis on lots of fun.

The camp is open to

"Colts" as defined for Provincial competition, are lawn bowlers under the age of 21 or who have less than five years playing experience. Both ends of the age scale were evident at Stayner. A Richmond Hill youth team had, as lead, Carmilla Zaszara, aged 12, son of well-known lawn bowler Frank Zaszara. He displayed a style that speaks volume about good coaching. Carmilla has been playing for two years and entered into many tournaments.

In their first game against Orillia the lead was 78 year old Walter Cooke. Walter took up the game when he was 75 and has two more years before he can graduate from Colt to senior. Experience told in the game and the older rink won the game but it was heartening to see such a fine young team in action. No sign of a generation gap there, the two teams were very compatible. It is unique to lawn bowling that two players 66 years apart in age can meet together in competition and sport...

Six teams met in competition for the opportunity to play, three from Orillia, and teams from Barrie, Richmond Hill, and Midland. Midland was drawn against Orillia in the last game after one loss. We were leading 10-6 at the last end when we fall from grace and lost the last end by four bowls. That put us out because our opponents had a win under their belts. It was the Orillia rink of John Raeburn, skip, Bill Baldwin, second, and Bill Daniel who scuppered us, they went on to win the finals against the Bob Beckett rink, also of Orillia. It was good fun and the experience will be useful. We appreciated the support from the Goodenough's and the Pypher's who motored down to encourage and advise us.

elementary and high school players.

The head coach will be St. Theresa High School graduate, John Bald, who plays for Wilfrid Laurier University's volleyball team.

Registration forms are available at the Midland Recreation office in the Civic Center on Yonge Street or telephone 549-8418.
