

Chester Graham captures golf hat trick

Chester Graham scored a "hat trick" at the Midland Golf and Country Club by winning the Men's Section Field Day last Sunday. Graham captured the Eager Beaver Tournament at the club last spring and recently was victorious in the Men's Club Championship, which he won for the third time.

Graham fired a 72 gross to win the Jim Bearsdall Memorial Trophy in a field of 96.

Fred Lavin was the low net winner with 62. Other low net flight winners were Murray Yorke, Jim Bales, Frank Halliday and Ken Lewis. The best gross scores in the other flights were Mark Simms, Ron Jeffery, Fred Lavin and Roy Tajima. Fewer than 10 golfers broke 80 at the one-day event. The incoming men's captain is Ed Bath, who takes over from Bill Playter.

The long run HAMR supports Special Olympics

Touch football offers all the action of the tackle variety without the bruises

The Huronia Association for the Mentally Retarded is establishing a committee for the Special Olympics. A meeting will be held Sept. 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the Midland Civic Center.

The purpose of this committee is to develop a broader base of volunteers for the overall benefit of the mentally handicapped athlete. The local Special Olympics program currently consists of swimming, bowling and floor hockey. Organizers are hoping to add new sports to the program this year.

Anyone interested in making the Ontario Special Olympics strong and successful is welcome to attend. For more information, contact Dave Hamilton at 526-3796.
