

Labor helps McMurter

The New Democratic Party candidate for Simcoe North left Midland Sept. 28 with a $1,000 contribution from the Midland District Labour Council.

Mike McMurter asked the council for money and for campaign workers.

He spoke and answered questions on free trade, senior citizens' pensions, the environment, acid rain, PCBs, daycare and affordable housing.

Free trade, he said, has "a ring of gutting labor." Of the Canada-U.S. acid rain agreement, he said,

"It's a treaty of let's not do anything."

Speaking of recent announcements by the federal government,
