

Bulls have big second half

The Bulls trampled the Knicks and the Mavericks shot down the Hawks as Midland YMCA Teen Basketball League play began last Tuesday night.

In the evening's first game, the Bulls came from a 24-21 half-time deficit to defeat the Knicks 67-60. Craig Pattenden scored 18 of his 25 points in the second half to lead the Bulls; other scorers were Tobin Jerry with 16, Chuck Lehr with 14 and Scott Bales with 10.

Steve Kirdeikis scored 30 points in a losing cause for the Knicks while Ky Pruesse added 14 and Kyle Jerry helped out with 10.

Meanwhile, the Mavericks took advantage of a tired Hawks team and ran away with a 78-63 victory in the night's second game.

Sean McIlravey and Dan Sibley each scored 21 points for the Mavericks while Jason Egan added 12 and Jeff Hawkins checked in with 11.

Steve Cleland counted 26 for the Hawks while Steve Roth clicked for 17.

This Tuesday the Hawks

take on the Bulls at 7:30 p.m. while the Mavericks and Knicks square off at 8:30 p.m.

There are still some openings in the league. Anyone interested in playing can contact Frank Godfrey at the YMCA at 526-7828.

The four-team league now has 32 players.

MSS takes top spot

Midland Secondary School grabbed top spot in its division at a junior volleyball tournament last weekend.

The Midland Volleyball Club hosted the tournament at MSS. Nine schools competed.

The MSS A-team finished in top spot in Pool C, defeating Penetanguishene Secondary School, splitting with Ecole Secondaire Le Caron and defeating schools from Bradford and Collingwood.

In Pool D the Orillia District Collegiate and Vocational Institute team emerged first.

The MSS B-team - consisting of Jason Leclair,

Dave Duval, Rick Bianco, Mark Bottineau, Tony Brinovec and Ryo Utahara - split its matches with St. Theresa's High School and Innisdale but was eliminated from the consolation round on the basis of points.

The MSS A-team - consisting of Sean McIlravey, David Cooper, Grant Patterson, Tim Boettger, Chris Larmand, Cory Macey and Craig Dempsey - met Barrie North in the semi-finals.

Midland displayed superiority and advanced to the final against Orillia.

This time around, it was Orillia's turn - they defeated Midland two matches to one.

Penetang Secondary won the consolation semi-final by defeating St.

Theresa's. PSS faced Innisdale in the final and fell to defeat.
