

Great start but a disappointment

It was a great start. But the St. Theresa's High School Midget Girls basketball team faced a disappointing loss to a Barrie team in a tournament last Saturday.

The Midget Girls team launched its season last week against Twin Lakes of Orillia with a resounding 99-16 victory. And then, Patrick Fogarty was the next school to feel the wrath of St. T's mighty Midgets, falling 62-25.

Extra-strong teamwork and devastating offence provided by Jennifer McGregor, Leanne Hrizo and Cindy Quesnelle contributed to the Crusaders' successes.

Last Saturday the girls played in the Barrie Central Tournament where they started the day off with an impressive 42-16 win over the host school.

Again, teamwork was the key to the Crusader's success with strong efforts from Sherry Langley and Tammy Robitaille.

But in the next contest,

St. T's and Barrie North

were deadlocked after three quarters.

Barrie prevailed in the final quarter and sent St.

T's packing.
