

New season for band

The Chaverim Christian rock band held its first concert of the season at the Vasey United Church Sunday morning.

It's the band's fourth season under the guidance of Cathy and Rick Brown.

"Some kids wanted to start a band, so we started off doing folk music and ended up doing this," Rick explained the band's origin.

The group started with eight or nine and now have up to 17.

To choose selections, the Browns purchase tapes of Christian contemporary music and respond to what they hear.

"This is garbage; this is good. This is too easy; this is too hard. The kids will like this; the kids will hate this."

Then with the help of musical advisor Don Gordon, they do the arrangements.

Rick Brown said the group goes where it is invited and have performed at churches in Midland, Victoria Harbour, Waubushene, Elmvale, Stayner and also at Midland Secondary School.

Seniors get a grant

Coldwater Seniors' Apartment Inc., has been awarded a $1,000 development grant from the province, according to Chaviva Hosek, minister of housing.

Hosek said the grant will be used to help offset the cost of incorporating a non-profit housing organization and preparing an initial submission to the government under a federal-provincial non-profit housing program.

Grants are available to groups developing government-assisted non-profit housing for the first time.
