Program for seniors

The Askenonnia Seniors Center has some special programs planned for December. The center is in the Baptist Church on King Street and anyone over 55 years of age is welcome to participate in the activities.

There will be a lunch Dec. 2 at 11:30 a.m. with demonstrations of Tai Chi along with folk dancing as well as surprise entertainment. There is no charge, but if you would like to contribute food for the occasion, call Marie McCreedy at 526-7609.

The next foot clinic and health counselling day is Dec. 8 from 1-4 p.m. at a cost of $12.50 for the foot clinic. The health counselling is free. You can have your blood pressure checked as well as your feet pampered all in one afternoon.

On Dec. 9, "A Little Bit O' Christmas" starts at 10:30 a.m. It's a day to show off your hobbies and crafts (display tables will be set up) and maybe a little friendly trading could take place. Bring your lunch and enjoy the Christmas activities planned for the afternoon. More details on Dec. 2.

Do you know someone who has contributed time and energy toward the development of sports in Midland?

If you do, why not nominate that person for the Winterfest Sports Award program? Nominations are being accepted for coach, executive, female athlete, male athlete and an award of merit. Nomination forms are available at the Midland Times, CKMP, the Midland Free Press, the recreation office and Centennial Arena. Nomination deadline is Dec. 8 at 5 p.m. Call 526-4770 for further information.

The Midland Grand Squares invite all experienced square dancers to join them every Friday night at 7:30 in the Midland Civic Center for modern square dancing. For more information call Bob Harris at 526-0816 or the recreation office.

Join your fellow senior citizens in a friendly game of shuffleboard Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Midland Civic Center.

Keep the dates for Midland's fourth annual Winterfest open, Jan. 18-22, 1989.

Team won both ends

The Penetanguishene Charlebois Bantams won both ends of a home-and-home series with Collingwood on the weekend winning 3-2 and 7-5. The wins were the first for Penetang this season.

On Saturday the host Penetang bantams opened with three counters in the second period by Peter Couling, Chris Leonard and David Brooks. Charlebois led 3-1 after two periods. Penetang outplayed its

Bourgeois sport:

Curling, one of Huronia's more popular winter pastimes, has been faithfully supported again this year by Midland's Bourgeois Motors. The Bourgeois Motors Early Bird Bonspiel was held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. John Bourgeois, centre, received a trophy for the car dealer's sponsorship of the long-established tourney.
