

Skaters hold test day

The Midland Figure Skating club hosted the Low Test Day last Thursday. Skaters from Elmvale, Penetang and Midland. Fourteen skaters attempted their preliminary figure five and six tried their second figure.

In Preliminary Dance, 11 competed in the Dutch Waltz while 17 attempted Canata. Thirteen others tried the Swing.

In Junior Bronze Dance there were seven competitors in Tan Fox, 10 in Fiesta and five in Willow. One skater attempted the Preliminary Free skate.

A panel of three judges watched the day's proceedings. The skaters required passing marks from a minimum of two judges in order to pass the test.

Sweep

Jim Clark of Midland sweeps the rock in the house as teammate Joe Walker looks on. Clark was skip of the Midland entry in the Ontario Curling Association Zone playdowns at the Midland Curling Club Saturday and Sunday. Teams from Stroud, Barrie and district were vying for two spots to move on in the Ontario playdowns. Clark was defeated in his two games.
