Between The Sheets with Ed Pearson

Eager curlers after watches at Bryants mixed bonspiel

The Bryants Jewellers Mixed Bonspiel got underway Saturday at the Penetanguishene Curling Club with two draws. The eager curlers contested for the customary fine quartz watches.

Bob Laurin kept things ticking as drawmaster and supervised the draw from the hat. Paul Laliberte was fortunate in the draw and took to the ice with Judy Stephens at vice, Nik Finney second stone and Sue St. Amand taking the lead.

Drawing good teammates doesn't guarantee wins, but in this case Laliberte and his rink swept through for the win.

Laliberte crushed his unnamed opponents in the second match taking seven of the eight ends.

Ray Cadoury, in the second draw with Rosemary Marchand at vice skip, Karen Lotton at second and Lorna Wright at lead gave it their best shot but finished second.

Cadoury found that drawing three members of the fair sex was not only nice but also was not a handicap to good curling. The quartet dismissed its opponents in short order but was unable to overhaul the massive point total of the Laliberte rink.

Sponsors Joan and Glen Bryant were on hand presenting the prizes as well as getting in a little curling themselves.

Petras perfect

The How Construction Petras completed an unblemished 12-0 record Sunday night in Parry Sound, winning 4-1.

The hometown Trilites came out flying and swarmed the Petra net but Carol Cruise denied them at each attempt in the first half and Ruby Degenaar did likewise in the second half.

Once the Petra scoring machine got into gear, Liz Duval netted a pair with Georgina Gage and Carmen McNamara adding singletons. Janice Evans collected three assists in the game for Penetang.

The Petras await the winner of the Parry Sound-Gravenhurst series for the league championship.
