

Here I come

Dale Gadsby, winner of the best performance award in the smashup derby, lines up another victim. The derby, sponsored by the Penetang Lions Club, attracted 48 cars and 1,500 spectators to Waterfront Park on Sunday.

Penetang royalty

Winterama Queen Corry Charlebois stands between first runner-up Claudette Gignac (left) and second runner-up Denise Ellis. The contest was held in the Pen Theatre and featured aerobic dancing and a martial arts demonstration.

Winterama was wonderful!

Slimer

Dawn Wiggins, 16 of Midland, left, Kelly Naylor, 16, Perkinsfield, Jenny Raynor, 13, Perkinsfield, Nat Chenier, 16, Midland, Dusk Granger, 14, Midland and on top Kyle Naylor, 18, Perkinsfield, pose in front of "Slimer" from the Ghost Busters snow sculpture. It took 11.5 hours to complete the sculpture for Winterama.

Arrrgh

Two arm wrestling competitors test their strength against each other at the French Centre Thursday night.

Funny faces

Penetang's Angela Summers, 9, and her sister, Sarah, 7, enjoyed their painted faces last Saturday during Winterama festivities in Penetang.