

It's mine

John Richardson (9) chases the puck in front of the Innisfil goal during Friday night's action at Centennial Arena. Midland scored two third period goals within 17 seconds to win 6-5. Midland plays Stayner while Huntsville faces the Parry Sound Brewers in semi-final games.

Penetang has back to the wall

Penetanguishene Charlebois Haulage bantams have fallen behind Lindsay in their best-of-five Ontario Minor Hockey Association playdowns 2-0.

On Friday night at the Penetang Arena, after a scoreless first period, Lindsay jumped into a 3-0 lead within 90 seconds at the end of the second stanza.

Penetang hit the score sheet early in the third when Shawn McConkey counted, assisted by Tim Mason. Lindsay replied minutes later but Tim Maheu cut the deficit to a pair when he scored at the 4:18 mark assisted by Chris Leonard.

The visitors answered with a short-handed marker before Leonard tallied with less than seven minutes remaining.

A late third period goal ended the scoring and gave Lindsay first blood.

In the return match in Lindsay Sunday, Penetang was edged 4-3. Mike Marchildon played a strong game in net for Penetang. Chris Marchildon scored from Francois Charlebois and Leonard while Charlebois counted with help from Marchildon and Chris Vallee. David Brooks registered the third Penetang counter from Donald Pauze and Shawn McConkey.

Penetang lost the services of defenceman Adrian Maurice who suffered a shoulder injury when taken into the boards in the second period.

The third game will be played Thursday night in Lindsay.

Saturday at the mall

Minor baseball registration

Midland minor baseball will hold registration for the 1989 season this Saturday at Mountainview Mall from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. The registration is for boys and girls in all divisions.

A call is being put out for players 14 and 15 years old. If enough players do not register, the existence of the league will be in doubt.

There will be house league tournaments this year in T-Ball, Tyke, Pee wee and Bantam divisions.

Coaches, umpires, trainers and sponsors are needed.

Inquiries should be directed to Shirlie Brown, secretary at 526-8482.
