

French Dry Cleaners win

Midland French Dry Cleaners major atoms won the consolation title in the Penetanguishene Winterama hockey tournament during the weekend.

In its opening game, Midland fell 3-0 to Collingwood, but rebounded with a 4-1 victory over Glanbrook.

Joe Rooney gave Midland a 1-0 lead at 7:02 of the first when he tipped in Ryan Markham's pass. Glanbrook knotted the count at 9:12 of the middle frame but Rooney replied for Midland five minutes later unassisted. Rooney scored two more in the third assisted by Markham on the first and Brad Dorion on the final counter.

French Cleaners doubled Whitby 6-3 with Rooney scoring five times and assisting on the other. Midland led 2-1 after one period and 4-3 after two. Morrison King also tallied for Midland with Donny Delbrocco and Markham collecting two assists each.

Sunday afternoon, Joe McGill quietly celebrated his birthday by shutting out Merriton 7-0 for the consolation title.

Shawn McGuire hammered home the puck in the dying seconds of the opening frame to give Midland a 1-0 lead. Brad Dorion and Rooney were in on the play.

Chris Cadeau doubled the count at 7:05 of the second with Rooney assisting. Lee Marion also scored for Midland in the second stanza with Rooney popping two more and adding another brace in the third, all unassisted.

Rooney collected 16 points in the tourney on 13 goals and three assists while Midland outshot their opponents 17-7 after four games.

In Ontario Minor

Hockey Association playdowns Friday, Barrie tripped Midland 4-2.

Kris Annand scored for Barrie at 4:31 of the second frame after a scoreless first. Rooney and Cadeau teamed up just over a half minute later to tie the score. Barrie put the game on the ropes with three straight third period counters before Kevin Wood found the range at 1:08 assisted by Rooney and Delbrocco.

Barrie leads the best of five series two games to one with game four scheduled for Midland Thursday at 8 p.m.
