TO DR. DUNCUMB, ROBERT GRUNDY AND FIFTY OTHERS :-

GENTLEMEN, -This day I have been favored with a Requisition from you and several other respectable Electors of the above-named Ward, expressive of my ability to represent you in Council, and soliciting that I should allow myself to be put in nomination as a Candidate at the next Municipal Election. I feel that it Mr. Editor, of which Reformers are made, would be an act of ingratitude on my part, were I not to respond in the affirmative to so influential a call, and, I therefore cordially accept your invitation to stand as Councilman for your Ward. In presenting myself to your notice, I beg most respectfully to mention as one of the grounds on which I Brade, consisting of ask for your support that Ward No. 2 is the place of my nativity and that your interests and my own have been for many years identified, and I rejoice that circumstances have now brought me into more immediate intimacy with the Electors of this Ward, among whom I hope to reside for many years. Gentlemen-you know me well enough-you know any merits to which I pretend, merits rather of good intention than of ability; and, if you elect me, as I cannot doubt you will, I shall endeavor to carry my own Brown and Grey Petershams, Fancy Vestings, &c, &c, views into practice, without being influenced by the insidious smiles of any member of the Council. I shall not be tempted to depart from the plain path of Duty, in order to flatter you or advance myself.
