ARRIVAL OF THE "ARABIA."

New York, March 20. The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool on the 6th instant, arrived this morning.

GREAT BRITAIN. The political and general news is very Active Force--- 2nd Troop Y V C meagre and unimportant. The members of the Derby Cabinet are being re-elected to Parliament generally without opposition.

The propriety of holding a Great Exhibition in 1861 in London is being can-

Heavy gales and considerable falls of snow had been experienced in England causing much delay in the mail packet service and on the various lines of rail-

Dr. Livingstone and his companions in the African exploring expedition, were on board the steamer Pearl in the river Mersey, whence they were expected to sail for Africa on the day the Arabia left.

The Hamburgh correspondent of the London Post writing in regard to the attitude of the United States in the matter of the Stadt duties of the Elbe, says, that the United States Consul at Hamburg was making preliminary arrangements with No insurance. the view to the abolition of the payment of the duties on the expiration of the comanercial treaty with Hanover, in June next.

1st of March, was detained till the 15th, continue for several days. The on account of the ice.

Government has accepted an indemnity tiary will give evidence against for the occupation of Perim by the Brit him. About fifty witnesses have

ITALY.

The Constitutional party was holding a conference in London to agitate the formation of a national confederation in she possesses laws to protect the dignity there issues a stream of red hot and safety of her inhabitants.

FRANCE.

that the Freuch naval squadron stationed off the Banks of Newfoundland, is to composed of three steamships of war in the place of two, as formerly.

an account of the capture of Canton, in which it gives all the glory to France, fore all but a saint in purity) as and says, that the English had nothing to do but to occupy the positions won by the French troops.

The French Bourse was depressed. PRUSSIA.

King were declining daily. The renewal of the powers confided to the Prince of Prussia, was expected to extend to six, instead of three months.

The Danish ministerial crisis has been settled. Ministers have withdrawn their resignation.

30 lives lost.

A fire in Constantinople buart 300

Melborne dates to the 16th January. are received. Markets continue dull MARKETS. quiet and easy, but the Bank of England had made no alterations in its rate. Noadvances would be made on Government securities during the shutting of the transfer books till the 14th April, at 3 per

In the Stock Exchange bans were obtainable at 2 per cent.

The commercial payments falling due in the bullion of £986.

reports a decided increase in the applica- the motives of the writer of the artitions for money, at the Bank of England cle in question, as he finds it far on the 5th, although the supply was ap- easier to gratify his spleen against parently abundant. The Daily News the editor of this journal, in order reports a dull and heavy feeling on the to injure him in the eyes of the pub-Stock Exchange, and a decline during lic, than he does to discuss the edi-Friday of about a quarter per cent, on torial.

The Manchester market was steady-yarns rather higher. rather better. Flour nominal: medium edged tool;" and yet, seriously ad- ple learn the important truth that the prayers of the congregation for her unsaleable; Western 20s 6d to 22s; vising the free and intelligent elec- "riches take to themselves wings and son, who had cursed her on the previous Crieans, 28s for choice. Wheat-red tors to send that "bunt edged tool" fly away?" Let us also remember, night. Mr. Beecher, as he read these to rather firmer, at 6s to 6s 3d; white, ne- to Parliament, on the silly plea, that "gold is but the guinea's stamp, quests, kept up a running comment upon glected, at 7s to 7s 6d. Corn in better that a "blunt edged tool," if a Clear a man's a man for a' that." An- them, presenting the salient points of each, Provisions general y duil. Beef, pork. and bacon, all dull.

Money easy; rates unchanged. Congols, 96; to 96; to 96; for account. Coffee advanced 1s; inferior dull

Sugar firm, at fully former rates. unchanged and little doing. No altera pen in gall, to read Shakespear on inconvenience, and is frequently tion in provisions.

LAND SLIDE .- The Utica Herald says a serious land slide occurred on Tuesday, from the large hill mear the Whose edge is sharper than the sword paadside between Whitesboro and Orisk Whose tongue outvenoms all the worms of Nile ; pay. The melting of the snow above And doth belie all corners of the world; caused quite a torrent, which flowing Kings, Queens, and states, down, worked its way through the earth Maids, matrons, nay, the secrets of the grave. into the quicksand bequath, and then it Thus viperous slander enters." swept along over the road and into the

New Advertisemets this Week. Phonography or Writing by Sound Great Horse Taming Secret Easter Beef at Aurora Crown Lands Department---County

Frontenac Crown Lands Department .-- County Bureau of Agriculture and Statistics

. Mr. W. R. ROBERTSON, of mist. Toronto, is authorised to collect and receive monies on behalf of this office.

RICHMOND HILL, MARCH 26, '58

Phillips' tavern on the plank road, between St. Andrews and Burwick was burned to the ground last Monday morning. Several of the inmates were severely burned.

We understand that the trial of McHenry, alias Townsend, for prisoner is suffering from fever. been subpænaed for the prisoner and nearly one hundred against.

THE "ECONOMIST" AND 17 SLANDERS. "Evil be to those who evil think," The condemned French conspirators is England's motto. Its applicaare not yet executed. Numerous arrests bility to the Clear Grit faction is continue to be made throughout France. unique. From the important It is said in consequence of the conspir- thunders of the redoubtable Globe, acy, with extensive ramifications, Chan- to its most slavish mimic and folgarnier refuses to return to France until lower, the Markham Economist, lava, which threatens to inundate The Minister of Marine has decided the country with its noxious vapours. Does any M. P. leave their followed by the fiercest denunciation of the "renagade," charging The "Journal des Debats" publishes him with all the crimes of the calendar, making him (who was besoon as he leaves them, an angel, it is true! but it is a shocking black one. And if you will only believe them, the Government, "the renegade" supports is the vilest un-It is stated that the faculties of the der the sun, they only having attained the acme of purity, devotion, and patriotism. We, however, think it passing strange, that from so pure a fountain should flow so foul a stream. It forcibly reminds us of the saying of an eminent wit, namely, "that he who calls ' stop An earthquake has laid Corinth in ruins, thief ' the loudest, is generally the If any one presumes to think the conscientious the individual may the brilliancy of summer skies, is London Money market continue very nothing but treachery and " smirk- in other words, we have lived up stone throwers do not themselves in the palmy season we have entiees had been issued by the Bank, that live in "glass houses!" Neither joyed, and so of course, are not prewould they be so unjust as "to pared to meet the stormy season measure our corn by their bushel." pearances are at least against them, and never did they look uglier than in a recent editorial of the Econoon the 4th were generally well met. The mist, under the head of Clergy Re-Bank of England returns for the week end- serve Fund, in which he ening 3rd March shows a slight falling off deavoured to throw dust in the eyes of the public, by shirking the ques-The city article of the Lordon Times tion at issue, in order to calumniate telligent, Conservative.

We content ourselves by repell- attempt to deny, but that in cering with disdain the motives imputed to us by our cotemporary. We recommend our cotemporary LIVERPOOL, March 6 .- Breadstuffs and his party, ere they next dip their

" No 'tis slander

Whose breath glides on the posting winds:

of wrote it, not to court any one's favour but that the ricketty old buildings the error of their ways. and we also beg to assure all whom have stood so long! When will it may concern, that we fear no one's these reiterated catastrophes teach frown, not even when it comes from us to lay a better foundation on the Globe's most obedient servant, which to build our superstructure the editor of the Markham Econo-

most prominent causes of these so-HARD TIMES. sider a few of the remedies. The We have been blessed in Canada for these past few years, with al nation's wealth. Our forests want but boundless and uninterrupted clearing; our system of agriculture p:osperity. Our trade and commerce have progressed at an unparalleled speed; our railways and steamboats have increased the facilscience in all our fields of labour, ities of our communication, both by hence we want more education, as sea and land. New towns and vilthe more intelligent and wise a peolages have in consequence thereof ple are, the less frequent will be been continually rising. Where these hard times. We want, also, heretofore was nothing but the wildprudence and economy, and a severe est solitude, out of chaos has evolved order; and the forest has given check must be put on the reckless speculation of the age. If we wish place to the highly cultivated and to avoid still more frightful disasfruitful field. Too many thought ters in the future, we must also that these times were going to last avoid many of the enervating luxfor ever, and that at last we had the murder was expected to commence | philosopher's stone or the Egyptians uries now so prevalent, and be dehave left Hamburg for New York on the yesterday; and it is supposed will wand, which had only to be wafted termined to live within our income, aright, in order to bring forth an or as a people, we shall never prosunlimited and unexhaustable sup- per. Let us not sink to the level of It is officially denied that the Ottoman Three convicts from the Peniten- ply of gold; when the truth of the mere mammon worship. The next cries of "Keep it up all day." Mr. sentence of the Lower Court will be typographical errors to throw him into a matter is, that the elixer had been thing is, cash payments must be the Beccher reminded the people that the time founded. I may add that there is little or in our possession but we knew it order of the day. We believe when designated was expiring, that business men no chance that the sentence will be disnot. We have been, and we fear at the root of this social evil. Now are now, to a great extent, ignorant the evil is felt, let us not lie down of what constitutes the wealth of a and die, but be up and doing, to nation. We have too often mistaken the effect for the cause, and only ease the present financial difficulfound out our error after it laid us ties; let us turn every thing we can prostrate in the dust, as is the case into gold, so as to give business an at the present time. Everywhere impetus forward. Let not the we hear, both in Europe and Amer- wealth of the nation be lying idle in ica, the most doleful murmurs and our barns, or warehouses, but let us complaints. Firms of the highest keep the wheels of trade agoing, respectability; banks of the longest and if they are lagging slowly bestanding, which were supposed to hind, let us each do our utmost to give. contain fabulous wealth, have gone push them forward, so that we may to ruin. Nor is this all; whilst many speedily regain our wonted wealth who possessed much have lost and vigour. much, very many more who had ranks? Immediately the event is but little have lost their all. The scarcity of employment, also, has fearfully aggravated the suffering and destitution of the working Theatre, on Saturday, was conducted by classes. That the times are hard is the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. A admitted by all, but the causes immense audience assembled; many more which have mainly contributed to pressing at the door for admission than the so deplorable an event are topies of house could possibly accommodate. All much discussion. As, however, the the pit, the galleries, the proscenium boxes remedy can never be discovered till the causes are distinctly understood, we will endeavour to give our readers some of the principal causes which have mainly contributed to the present crisis. One great cause is extravagance. We thought our wealth was illimitable, and we gave the reins to our tastes and pleasures accordingly. Economy and prudence have been lost sight off, and mered and shouted for admission, and when man who has picked your pocket. like giddy butterflies, we have revel- no prospect remained for the speedy open led on sweets of every flower, heed- ing of a fest-locked door, some of the the ditch. We want to get rich too quickly, and alas, we are too often unscrupulous as to the means we employ to satiate our slavish thirst for gold. It has become a mania. Men are no longer content to get a

THE GREAT AWAKENING.

The noon prayer-meeting at Burton's even the sky-light in the peak of the thea tre, showed a densely packed mass of heads, all turned intently towards the stage, where for some time M.i. Beecher sat alone. Within fitteen minutes from the strake of 12, however, those who had given up in despair the task of offeeting an entrance at the front of the building. essayed a demonstration in the rear. At the stage door, on Reade street, a party of some fifty ladies and gentlemen ham-Clear Grits " purest, discretest, less of the coming morrow, instead young gentlemen hunted up a locksmith, wisest, best" of mankind, however of profiting by the bee, who amid who came with a big bundle of keys, and after several attempts turned the bolt and rushed in a body up the dark staircase, tumbled over the dusty "properties" befilled the stage, from wing to wing, formng a decorous line of attentive observers Yet, we are bound to say, that ap- Another fruitful source of our pre- view of the house from this stand-point sent embarrassed position, is the was very extraordinary. Hardly a square keen and thoroughly unjustifiable iach of the theatre was unoccupied. In speculative spirit of the age. We the palmiest days of Mr. Burton, there was want to go ahead too fast, -no won- never a crowd to compare to this. The der, then, that we sometimes fall into deepest interest was manifested. Among was not the least confusion or disorder. Moreover, a cery decided disposition to stay all day became manifest as the hour Mr. Beecher was invited to continue, but competence by frugality and care, meeting should be punctual. but they rush heedlessly into any On opening the exercises of the day plan, no matter how absurd, if it Mr. Beecher real a long list of petitions does but promise an abundant supfrom fathers, m thers, husbands, wives and ply of gold. We protest against brothers, requesting that prayers might be We find that in the recent con- this mammon worship of the age, offered for unreclaimed relatives and test, the editor of the Economist, com- as unworthy the intellect and the friends. Among these petitions was one Breadstuffs generally dull. Indian corn paring the present M. P. to a " blunt heart of man. When will the peo- from a mother, requesting an interest in demand, at 6d to 1s dearer; mixed and Grit, was better than a manly, in- other prolific cause of much misery, and pointing a moral with great effect. is our credit system. We will not In the course of his remarks, delivered in the intervals of the exercises, he dwelt tain cases credit may be advantage- upon the value of instantaneous convictions ous, and even absolutely necessary; of sin. Hesitancy in religious matters he looked upon as a sin-not to say a meanbut we fearlessly assert that if generally adopted, it is productive of much cause everybody is in debt. The question, as we believe that impor- fast falling over our heads, and ability to raise his voice before a public endeavoured to put it fairly and im- could have thought it?" when the experience had given him. He made an sentence. partially before the public. We wonder is not that they have fallen, errnest appeal to young men to forsake > neighborhood of the theatre a volume of likely to be spared. To what degree are largely attended, and daily accessions Having thus glanced at some of the cial disorders, we will briefly con- "Brethren," said he, " do you hear that? of the proceedings, has produced an ur- years. Even the New York Herald has first remedy is labor and skill, these, worship out of the old bar-room of this of some of the German States, and it cerand not gold, are the sinews of a theatre! Let us spend two minutes in tainly will not promote good will between silent prayer and thanksgiving ?" He re- the court of Vienna and that of the Tuisumed his seat, and for two succeeding leries. It is still the topic of severe reneeds improvement; much as it minutes the falling of a pin could have mark in diplomatic circles. Though drainage is required. We want more Mr. Burton, the owner of the threatre. since his condemnation, yet, to prevent One old gentleman in the first gallery pray- any attempt by his own hand, it was ed that the request of Mr. Burton to be thought prudent to use the comisole-deremembered in the petitions offered up in force, or strait waistcoat. The others, this meeting might be blessed to his bere- with the exception of Gomez, who is not fit; a young man in the highest gallery condemned to death, are similarly treated. prayed that " he whom we had often seen The chaplain of the prison has been with before these foot lights, portraying human them, but it is not known whether his exnature, might be brought to the feet of hortations have had much effect. They Jesus." Other incidents added to the attended divine service yesterday in the peculiar interest of the occasion. Beecher again came forward and closed Parquet of the Court of Cessation by the

the exercises with a few remarks. He Attorney General. They will be distriwas about to give out the final hymn, when buted, and the court will appoint one of a general shout of "Go on," go on," came the counsellors to draw up the report, on from all parts of the house, followed by which the confirming or invalidation of the we do that, that the axe will be laid | should be punctual in all things, and that the turbed, and it is probable that the whole meeting should be closed at the hour, while affair will be decided in the course of the those who choose might remain. The week." hymn was accordingly sung, and Mr. Beecher prefixed to the benediction a no- NANA SAHIB'S TREASURES -- A young tice that the Theatre would be opened on officer who assisted at the recovery of the following day (Sunday) at the same some of the Nana's treasures near Bithoor, hour; that the services on Monday (to writing to his father, under date the 30th day) would be conducted by the Rev. of December, says: "I wrote in the be-Joseph P. Thompson, and tables were ginning of the month from Cawapore, and placed at the entrance to receive such since then another engineer officer and contributions in payment for the use of the myself, with a few sappers, have been fishbuilding as the audience might see fit to ing treasures out of one of Nana Sahib's

The prayer meeting at John street Methodist Episcopal Church, on Saturday, was attended by a throng of people, who filled the body of the house, and also the vestry, in both of which religious exercises were conducted for over an hour. One gentleman announced that he knew o a commercial house in this city, consisting of twelve persons, all of whom, excepting two, had been converted; and another house of sixteen, including principals and employees, all of whom, excepting three, had professed faith in Christ since the late gen-

MEXICO.

The latest accounts from Mexico do not present the state of affairs in that country as much changed. Zuloaga still held the capital and the surrounding districts, while by far the larger number of the States recognized the Constitional Government under Juarez, which, for greater security, had transferred itself from Guanajuato Guadalajara. Constitutional leaders, among whom are many of the most experienced and distinguished generals, appear to have adopted 23rd u'timo a passenger came to Portland the pain becomes more permanent, the the policy of acting on the defensive. by the steamer Anglo Saxon, and took be, these "pure souls" will see ever mindful of a bitter winter; or, gave entrance to a throng of people, who They had an army of 6,000 men intrench- lodgings at one of the city hotels. Next el at Celaya, forty miles north-west of morning he took the cars for this city in no pulsation .- This, Dr. Guinier says, is Guanajuata, against which Zuloaga company with a gentleman who had re- the proper time. ism." Of course these renowned to and even beyond our incomes hind the scenes, and finally made their ap- had detached a force of about equal mained at the same house with him over pearance before the curtain, where they strength; but the expected battle had not night, with whose countenance he, someyet taken place. Other encounters, how- now or other, imagined himself familiar. ever, had occurred in different parts of the They got into conversation in coming regards these terrible and brutal through which we are now passing. in the rear of Mr. Beecher's chair. The Republic, in which the Constitution list down the Eastern railroad, and nothing murders, with the exception that it seem generally to have had the advantage. transpired to elicit the fact whether or now appears that Whalen was in-Zuloaga is chiefly dependent for money on not they had been old acquaintances. debted to Thompson, and that John are secretly sold, illegally, in New York the clergy, who are obliged to make him When they arrived at the depot, and had large advances. In fact, the struggle attended to their baggage, one of the gennow going on in Mexico differs but very tlemen inquired in the hearing of the other little from that which every country has for a cap to take him to a certain street the three thousand persons collected, there gone through, where a large part of the in Charleston. The other said he pur- still remain in jail awaiting their the wife. and has passed into the possession of the posed going to the same street, and the clergy. Should they be defeated in the two engaged the same conveyance. On present contest, of which there seems to arriving at the street in question it apfor closing the ceremonies approached, be a fair prospect, it is probable that peared that they both designed to call on he being unable to find bail for his declined, on the plea that a business man's quiet without the aid of that external as- of coincidences greatly puzzled both; but case. A rumour has been spread sistance which some seem so anxious to their mutual surprise and delight can be abroad that these parties are all in profer her. At all events, it seems pretty imagined but in a degree, when they found one cell. This is not the case. certain that the Mexican Church, in one that they were brothers, and that they way or another, must soon see the end of had thus singularly met in the house of a her accumulated wealth. It would ap- third brother. One of them had been in the pear to be very questionable whether the service of the Pasha of Egypt for twentyif that repeal should stand-to compensate has been in this country during nineteen ville Monitor. for the large expenses which must be in- years past. The brothers are natives of curred for the support of Zuloaga and his Scotland, and have not seen each other army. As a mere question of policy, it for 24 years .- Boston Ledger. would seem to be better to take the credit trade, trusts the retail dealer; he the soon in tears, bending over his Bible. groomsmen to their future father, and the Orsini, Rudio and Pierri, have appealed chapel of the prison. The minutes of the The hour of one approaching, Mr. trial were to be submitted this day to the wells at his palace of Bithoor, about ten miles from Cawapore. The well contained about 25 feet of water, but by getting | Capain Alison wounded by a ball, which 200 of the line to work with half-a-dozen buckets we succeeded in getting it down Mosque was taken the band of the 93rd to three feet. Two or three Sappers then went down, and afte, emptying the well of three feet of rubtish which the fellows had thrown in on the top, we managed to get out about 2000l worth of silver plate and about 6000l worth of gold vessels. Some of the gold, plate was magnificent. Two large plates were two feet nine inches each in diameter and of solid gold, and weighed together 70lbs. The other gold articles consisted of chalices, cups, &c. spurts for throwing rose water, massive spoons for the Ganges water when worshipding, &c. It was difficult work, for we had no implements for working the well, and the water came in at the rate of 60 gallons a minute. This mine is not quite worked out yet, and a few Sappers which they say ate still at the bottom. The Nana's palace is in complete ruins, and everything belonging to him in village we have burnt." ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE .-- On the attempts, and most likely after all fruit- Mr. Frederick Lomax and Miss Jane less attempts, to resist any change .- N. Hamilton, the parties to the late seduction suit which has made so much noise in slander, which we subjoin for their attended by the most disastrous re- "a happy father," told the story of the Sarah K. Seymour. The parties have worthy Alderman completed in the proper conversation of his son, a young gentle- both been married before, and each has a form, and sent away the alleged vile semerchant, in order to increase his room at a late hour in the afternoon, found ter. The sons acted on the occasion as Tribune.

so that they might understand the and lo and behold, our houses are about 23 years of age, who attributed his themselves on either side of their parents, in the County of Brant.

The great revival in the States instead tant results are involved, and we we cry out. "Well I declare, who assembly to the joy and boldness which his to the Court of Cessation against their of decreasing seems to be rapidly on the increase. The awakening extends over The Times Paris correspondent says: both the East and West, and prevailed Rumours have circulated for the last two a nongst most Christian denominations. At this moment, there came in from the days that, after all, the life of Orsini is Churches are crowded, prayer meetings musical sound-the singing of a hymn in they are entitled to credit I cannot say. I are made to the Episcopalians, Baptists, another meeting. Mr. Beecher rose, and am equally ignorant on what grounds his Methodists, and other Evangelical churchstepped to the foot-lights. Raising his title to elemency is based more than his es. The present revival is said to be hand, he stood quietly a moment, fixing the companions. His letter to the Emperor, more widely spread and general among all attention of the audience before he spoke. as published in the Monitcur with the rest classes than has been known for many Stop a moment! That's the sound of pleasant impression on the representatives | thought fit to devote a large space to accounts of religious proceedings.

AN EDITOR IN HEAVEN .- Under the foregoing caption, an exchange gives the purchased the Brampton Times. following obituary of a brother of the quill, has progressed a better system of been heard. Then followed prayers for Orsini is said to display much calmness from which we extract the closing paragraph:-Are we not glad that such an editor is in Heaven? There the cry of lineh last week over 20 lbs in weight. more copy" shall never again fail upon his distracted ears. There he will no more be abused by his political antagonists with lies and detraction that should shame a demon to promulgate. There he shall no more be used as a ladder for the aspiring to kick down as soon as they have reached the desired height and need him no more. There be shall be able to see the immense masses of mind he has moved, all unknowingly and unknown as he has been during his weary pilgrimage on earth. There he will find all his mti- 39 mutes, cles credited, not a peal of thunder stolen, and there shall be no more horrid with great vigor in many parts of the

SIR COLIN CAMPBELL AT LUCKNOW. -The Ayr Advertiser gives the follow- England from Australia in 1857, was 2,ing interesting particulars, derived from a private source :- - " Sir Colin Campbell was wounded within 14 yards of the wall of the Mosque of the Shah Muzgiff, the strongest fortified position in Lucknow, on the evening of the 16th November, when, along with Major Alison and Captain Alison, he was helping to drag on one of Peel's heavy guns, heading the 93rd Highlanders. Sir Colin was waving the Highlanders on, cap in hand, when he kings, princes, grand dukes, and dukes, was struck. Major Alison was shot now reigning in Europe. through the arm at the same moment, and struck and grazed his breast. When the played " The Campbells are Coming," amidst the enthusiastic cheering of the Highlanders. Both Sir Colin and his brave aide-de camp are doing well; but come a drug in the market. we regret to say Major Alison required to have his left arm amputated below the elbow, which was successfully done, and he is out of danger."

It is reported that Baron de Rottenburg is to be appointed to the Lieutenant-Coloneley of the 100th Regiment, and to bridge, N. J., which was built 104 years be sucreeded in his present appointment

Genessee wheat were sold in Rochester, a CURE FOR WHITLOWS .- Dr. Cuinici Professor of the French Faculty of Medioine has just published a letter in the Abuille Medicale in which he describes a peculiar method of stopping the progress of a whitlow in its first stoppage. whitlow generally begins with a dull sensation of heat in the effected finger, near ; a rose-coloured spot marks the seat of disease. This point, when pressed, is painful: the colour dissapears, and immediately returns after the pressure has ceased .- After the lanse of a few hours sp ce, while the skin is swollen. The constituted a Province, with a Military pain increases rapidly, but as yet there is Governor. So says the London paper. THE MURDERS IN ELIZABETH have been no new developments as Whalen, Trodden, and Cummings of "intolerable severity," on the part of trials at the next assizes. A man was also comitted by the coroner, of law. Mexico may be able to establish internal the same individual. The strange series appearance as evidence in the apartments, although the jail is now There are, we learn, some forty prisoners confined there, and the clergy will gain enough from the repeal of two years; the other has spent sixteen jail accommodation is entirely inthe laws of which they complain -- even years in the East Indies, while the third adequate for the number .- Brock-of the old, and son of the late, Sulof generously and patriotically giving up ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL. livan the whisperer,"-writing to times the convicts in many of the States to the nation a certain portion of their pro- Ald. Wilmot of the Thirteenth District the Cork Daily Reporter, in reference to Mr. Rarey the American wind that blows nobody good?" horse-tamer, who has lately surprised the Court at Windsor by his wonderful feats in taming the horse, says, he is ready at any moment, the papers. The loving couple, fully sat- and at any appointed place, to meet An interesting wedding took place a ished with their courting experiences in that gentleman, and let a jury de-Several affecting narratives were given. few days since in New York City, be- New York, mutually expressed a desire cide whether he or Sullivan can One elderly gentleman, declaring he was tween Mr. Henry B. Melville and Mrs. to be united in wedlock, which union the perform the most wonderful feats in editorial column with "A Solemn Quessubduing wild, vicious, and un- tion"-Have you paid for what you are manageable horses. He says he is now reading? and leaves the rest of the man of nineteen years. Three days ago, family of seven children -that of the gen- ducer and the heart broken, ruined victim ing the same feats as Mr. Rarey did The Quebec Gazette says that the exporter trusts the importer; the importer; the importer; the importer trusts the months are this son was converted. On the follow- the man comprising six daughters and a son, as happy specimens of husband and wife at Windsor. He is well known in ada here law authorizing the corporation importer trusts the merchant; the ing day, the father going to his counting- and that of the lady six sons and a daugh- as any one could desire to see.— N. Y. Mallow and its neighborhood, and to take stock in the North shore Railmany of the residents there have to take stock in the North Shore Railseen him perform what he has way to the amount of £300,000. again gives unlimited credit to the He had just returned from the John street daughters as bridesingids to their future John Nichols, who last autumn, stated. He hopes that Mr. Rarey At a meeting held in London the Our motive for writing the article farmer, and thus eash payments are in question, was simply to bring virtually ignored. This goes on till ligious experience.

John Nichols, who last autumn, while in a state of intoxication, stabbed ligious experience.

John Nichols, who last autumn, while in a state of intoxication, stabbed ligious experience.

Will give him an opportunity of priving that there is still left in Ire-ligious experience.

Parliament to repeal the law for imprison-proving that there is still left in Ire-ligious experience. Erie Cand adjacent. Not less than 1000 in question, was simply to bring to 1500 yards of quicksand were carried to 1500 yards the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before the public, at last a tremendous crash is heard, the subject fairly before any American or other horse-tamer. feet in length.

News Items

The fishermen in Nova Scotia are starving to death.

The ice in the Hudson river, at Albany is broken up. The number of effective vessels in the U.S. navy is 62. The New York University has just created 127 M. D's.

The N. Y. banks now hold over $34,000,000 in specie. Florence Nightingale is in Vienna exploring hospitals. "Kiss-me-quick" is the name of the last new perfume. Mr. George Tye, of Toronto, has

In Sonora, Mexico, strawberries ripen in the open air at Christmas. A wild cat was killed in Pus-

The average weekly expense of a pauper in New York State is 951 cents The first newspaper in England

Chas. Myers poisoned himself last week in New York -- destitution the was published in London, in the year

The population of Milwaukee has more than doubled in the last seven

In the Poor Houses of New York. there are 1,816 lunatics, 434 idiots and Sugar making has commenced

There are over twelve miles of shelving in the Library of the British Museum. The amount of gold brougt to 582,793 ounces. The children in the Poor Houses of N. Y., under 16, number 5,403 -box 2,979; girls 2,424. Look out for "fours," altered from "ones," on the bank of British Recent advices from India says that the rebels in Lucknow are fighting among themselves. There are forty-six emperors,

The annual value of pauper labor in all the Poor Houses of New York, is estimated at $27,000. Several valuable horses have been lost in Ohio, by eating unsound corn. within a few weeks. Col. Benton says that money will be so abundant that by May, it will be-

Prince Frederick William, of Prussia, is a compositor. Who will sneer at the "Poor Printer" after this ? The salary of Queen Victoria is £100,000. Out of this she has to pay the salaries of the State Officers.

The Episcopal Church at Woodago, was burnt Sunday week. Four hundred bushels of choice few days since for $4 25 a bushel. John Wentworth, mayor of Chicago, received a severe caning at the hands of Mr. T. S. Flint, last week.

Tract Societies, independent of the American Tract Society, are being formed all over the Northern States. The United States District Court have indicted Brigham Young, Heber Kimball and others for high treason. Major General Mansfield, of the India Army, is a son of the late Gen. Samuel Smith Mansfield, of Baltimore. The Red River Colony is to be

The grand total of the population of all the States in India is 180,884,297, within an area of 1,466,576 square miles. Five persons of the name of Jer.nings, at Cohoes, United States, died last week from the effects of eating stale cod-

It is estimated that lottery tickets city to the amount of nearly $750,000 a ly grant d at Rutland, Vt, were because The Massachusetts House of Representatives, by a large majority, passed as a witness for Whalen, a bill allowing atheists to testify in courts The Legislature of Texas has very graciously passed a law to enable > free pegroes to choose masters and be-The President, U. S. has authorized the public sale of land at Kickapoo and Lecoupton, Kansas, on July 5th, and

> The annual consumption of tobacco, in the U.S., according to late statistics, is nearly three pounds to every

Madam Goldschmidt is ex-A CHALLENGE TO THE AMERICAN pected to arrive to England early in June? HORSE TAMER .- Daniel Sullivan of with the intention of taking a permanent Rathnee, near Mallow-"grandson residence there. Owing to the hardness of the Prisons have nothing to do. "Its an ill

> A great revival had taken place N. Y. Six hundred and eighty-eight persons have recently been converted to