ARRIVAL OF THE "NORTH AMERICAN."

QUEBEC, May 17th, 1858.

this morning. The India Daily News says, that the city, and that the final battle ground will be Robilcund, and that nothing farther dismasted. will be attempted yet, owing to the hot weather.

GREAT BRITAIN House of Lords .- Lord Ellenbor-Jay any documents on the table, giving an account of the Campore massacre, as to would only be calculated to revive animo fairs in India.

bate took place on the financial affairs of Daily News correspondent :the country.

a vote of 251 to 100.

Mr. Disraeli announced, incidentally. that the Bank of England had accomodated the Government with two millions, at three and a quarter per cent, for redemption of Exchequer Bills, but that the Government had only availed itself, as yet, of one million.

attention to the Suez Canal.

tia regiments were to be disbanded. Mr. Gladstone moved an address to the ple of Wallachia and Moldavia, in other The usual result was produced as far as words: that the House of Commons the engagement is considered. The should endorse the Union of the Principal- rebels were beaten at Amora with great whole question of the Principalities. others opposed the motion, as a dictation der, by a movement to the westward, to the Conference, which meets at Paris, down the course of the Gogra, threw on the 10th of May, and fettering the themselves across at Tanda, and peneaction of the British Plenipotentiary.

but it was rejected by 178 majority. of England in the Cagliari affair, and march towards Benares, by way that harmony was consequently established | Azimghur, and on the 23 d his vanguard between Sardinia and England.

The Daily News asserts, if Lord Derby meets with a factions opposition, Her Majesty's 37th, under Colonel Milhe will dissolve Parliament.

troops were already in camp.

will soon proclaim a national day of parations made for a stout resistance. Budmashes and Gwalior Contingent, and lowance—a d why? Is it because the law thanksgiving for the successes in India. | Colonel Milman, after his victory, retired are now preparing to put the finishing has been changed? No. 1s it because Mr.

FRANCE. Prefects, Sub-Prefects, Secretaries, Gen- ry into Azimghur, and made hasty pre- none there unless our own regiment, the the County Council, and, of course, they must erals, and Councillors of Prefecture, who parations for defence. Koor Sing hast 93rd, and a regiment of Sikhs, engaged 'praise the bridge that carries them safely over." impair administrative powers.

fairs in China, vice M. De Bourboulon. were immediately sent out in bullock the space of six hours. The Circundra lowance, and that we considered it to be the disturbances in that place.

on Tuesday at 64 to 65.

ITALY.

politan Government demanding indemnity for imprisonment of the two English ened inclined to negotiate.

Armamen's continued in the Neapolinity demanded is 400,000 francs. Envoys at Frankfort, requested the Diet tween Allahabad and Gobeegunge. As cable termination.

its report to the Diet.

RUSSIA.

Ice was floating down the Neva. pean export and import, export sugar, Letters report serious risings among ignorant of the fact. This occurred the the seris in some localities, and the inter- day before yesterday. position of the military was called to restore order.

In the news taken out by the Persia. it was said Co'. Wiliman's force was cut up at Azimgbur. An explanation visible in the erection of barracks and the on the words " SHUT UP."

Bombay letters add little of interest to the telegraphic accounts.

Sir Colm Campbell remained at Luck-

Khan, proposed to attack the English. to Robilcund in the following strength :-- when he saw one of our wounded carried tions of Messrs. Bowman and Button, he has ... That Mr. Trudgeon should have voted in nounced by the Persia, had two hundred | eer Brigades. The North American, which left Liv- and live thousand pounds in gold freight.

Gude campaign has failed. Sir Colin eral ve sels put back into Liverpool whose energy did so much for us during glory to Scotland, or return not again. Campbeil's conquest was only an empty leaky; amongst them the Mirnesota, for the crisis at Labore and the siege of Del- All the Bungalows of our countrymen unabashed is his forehead, that he Montreal. The Minnesota was totally in.

Stocks .- Exchange Consols for money. 971 ditto for accounts, 971 2; Three per Cent., 961 1.

ough said he considered it expedient to THE "NORTH AMERICAN'S MAILS.

The mails by the North American ar-

sities. He also advocated perfect neu- rived last night The only news of in- verely in their attempts to capture a gun and a few men, with a large number of tality by the Government in religious ai- terest is from India, the Bombay mails in a narrow street, Major Wilde the com- helpless women and children, kept out having arrived two days before the sailing | mandant, and Capt Hood the second in 15,000 for fifteen days. In the House of Commons a long de- of the steamer. We copy from the command, being severely wounded. The EOMBAY, April 9. The bill imposing a stamp on the ues The month of March has passed; we captured 3 guns. The same evening two Toronto, is authorised to collect and and then beg your readers to them. They only show that we of revealed religion. Avowed are on the eve of the great heats, and we young officers, Cape and Thackwell, stray-Mr. Disraeli's second resolution on In- have still a vast amount of territory to ing into the town beyond our pickets, dia, declaring it expedient that the Gov- recover from the insurgents. The cap- were murdered. On the 23rd a force fice. ernment be confined to a Secretary of ture of Lucknow, by depriving the enemy State, with power to perform all duties of a rallying point, has scattered the heretofore carried out by the India Com- rebels-not only over Oude and Rob-Ipany, was debated, and finally carried by cund, whither it was expected they would fly-but southwards into the districts of Ghorruckpore, Azimghur, and Janb Cavalry, was killed in this affair. Juanpore, so that we have now on our On the 24th the Grand Army began to hands on the eastern shore of the Ganges break up, the Guoorkhas marching tovalley a con-ilerable number of rebels to deal with, and in the last named district now may be considered to have terminavery tew troops to meet them. We had ted. Our total loss was about 70 officers hoped that by the judicious distribution of the fo ces under Franks, Jung Bahadoor, On the 4th nothing important in the and Rowcroit at various points, the bands led by Modumdee Hossein, amounting to killed. In comparing this siege with that In the House of Commons Mr. Roe- several thousands in number, would be of Delhi, two great difficult es present RICHMOND HILL, MAY 21, 1858. We will give a quotation from our since one of the ablest men in the Ridbuck gave notice that he would soon call thrown back to the Goomtee and forced themselv's. One the contrast between to join the Lucknow rebels in their flight Gen. Peel announced that no more mili- northwards. Franks' victory at Sultanpore seemed to have attained that object. But the rebels, instead of falling back on Lucknow, retired eastward on Belwa and zution of the Danubian Principalities just Fyzabad, crossed the Gogra rear Row- the difference blow falls upon its back, as the weight be given to the wishes of the peo- crolt's position, and engaged that officer.

ities. He urged his views at length, when loss, Colonel Rowcroft with only one a general debate ensued, involving the thou and discussed an army of 15,-000. But, after the action the insurgent masses seperated; a part remained at Lord Palmerston, Mr. Disraeli and Belwa entrenchments, whilst the remaintrated in the Ghorruckpore and Azingbur Lord John Russel supported the motion, districts, where they were railied by Koor Sing, the old arch traitor of Shada Mr. Fitzgerald announced that Sardin- bad. Elated with the possession of so ia cordially acquiesced in the suggestions fine a force, Koor Sing resolved on a was within twenty miles of that place. The garrison of Azinghur-a wing of min, and a wing of the 4th Madras caval-The camp at the Curragh in Kildare ry-hearing of the approach of a body of was to be increased. Upwards of 7,000 insurgents went out to meet them, and came to action near Atrowba. The victo y was complete, but was dearly paid anders, belonging to Montrose, says the give some of them; A collision occurred in St. George's for. Col. Milman hid committed the Standard, writes to his friends here :-Channel between a coasting steamer, the same mistake a general Windham, a Buzzard, and the back Wm. Campbell. Campore. Had he been content to Both vessels were sunk, and 20 or 30 wait for the enemy in the entrenchment lives lost. The schooner George, bound good of Azimghur he would have been for the third time, safe and sound, thank forced in and refuses either to give it up or by thick walls and a deep ditch; provis- trywomen in Lucknow. When we re- lowance, because it was at the side of his (But- charge : It was rumored that the Government ions could have been brought in, and pre- turned we fought a battle, and put out the ton's) farm But he and Trudgeon are willslowly hearing doubtless of the advance touch on Lucknow. We have plenty of Bowman is a better man than Capt. Armstrong? of a superior force. But the enemy came troops with us, and I hope God will lead They will not pretend to say so; and if he General Epinasse recommended the down upon him in overwhelming num- us on to victory. Last time our doings son is plain Mr. Bowman formed the bridge Emperor to sanction the romoval of all bers. He lost his camp, and had to hur- there were a perfect miracle. I saw by which Trudgeon and Button stepped into completely surrounded our force and was doing when I tell you that our regi May 7th, we replied thus :-The circulation of the Independence opened batteries on the entrenchments. ment was fighting in three different places Belge has been interdicted in Erance for No time had been lost in the meanwhile -I was at two in an hour, Circundrabad in sending news of the disaster to Benares, and the Shah-Rujeff. The Circundra, sor on a a former occasion, that we were anxicarts, drawn by coolies, towards the scene is a large bungalow; it was crowned, but The Budget for 1859 has been adopt- of action. Telegraphic messages were after the sailors made two or three holes road allowance, he should be compelled to give to the Commander-in-Chief at Lucknow place by storm, and woe to the mutineers, Bowman formed the bridge by which we step-Trade in Paris exhibited a slight im- A wing of the 13th and the depot of the three regiments of them all perished; one Bowman d d second the resolution, but that re- Schools He confines himself to Flour rather higher. 2nd Bays left Allahabad by forced march- of the three was a regiment of Sikhs solution was supported by Messrs. Pingle and favourable, and vines are promising well. ter, by way of Benares. The Comman- dress as our Sikhs. We spared not a dependant of Mr. Bowman's vote we would Wine and brandies are dull and slightly der-in-Chief, on his part, took decisive man of them. We had them hand to Council we now are." and rapid measures. On the 38th Sir hand, and side to side, and our cry was at Dijon, have decided on sending before 20th regiments, the Military Train, some brave comrades fell beside them. For says :t'e Correctional Police Court of Chalons native cavalry and artillery, marched the space of half an hour it was awful .--thirty five persons implicated in recent rapidly towards Azimghur. There can The yelling "Salem," "the British rom a communication we published from the be no doubt of the final result. Koor cheer," the clashing of the swords and Treasurer last week, still holds in his hands ever way he found that beating, he Bourse firmer and 3 per cents, closed Sing will be beaten, but great anxiety is our bayonets together, with the flashes of more than $1000, of the taxes of last year. would be found acting accordingly. the beleaguered ent enchment, as well as busy at work beside me. The captain of months have passed since the Collector of the 27th ult., says:-"I have another reverse to chronicle. Two companies of her Majesty's 54th Another despatch says that the indem- with Madras cavalry and 100 Sikhs, and two guns, I believe, went out with the Danish, French, English, and Russian magistrate, at a place near Suraon, besuddenly to a spot surrounded by a jungle The Commission on Duchies had made A large body of rebels were comfortably settled therein, and opened on us with six guns. After sustaing the fire for an hour, we were obliged to retreat with the loss of the officer in command of the Ma lras An imperial ukase imposed a duty of 5 cavalry, and very many others, killed and nose of the magistrate, and he altogether

Simultaneously with the departure of Sir E. Lugard's force towards Azim chur. Sir Colin Campbell had completed his arrangements for leaving a garrison in Lucknow and marching against Robit und. The greatest activity has been formation of magazines for provisious and ammunition. The corps darmee which ground to lie on, the sky to cover him, remains at Lucknow will therefore be well his feather bonnet for his pillow, and the derous assertions. May 13 he says: declining, however, to give one off. It will consist of the 23rd, 38th, wind to wrap up his bare legs and make him We stated some time ago that Mr. Bowman. single reason why that eminent 53 d, 90th, 97th, 1st Madras Fusilliers, comfortable. I count it a noble calling a member of the Township Council, had a of Sir Hope Grant. The rest of the for the short space we have been here, to allow said road to remain in his possession. terly regardless is Mr. Reesor of buted with a view to future operations in army forming a flying olumn under B i- and wherever Sir Colin is we are too; he having their fences in the highway. Mr. gadier General Walpole, and commanded is a man who seeks his pleasure in the by Sir Colin Campbell in the battle-field. He exclaimed at Lucknow at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, on the 6th At Melbourne, on the 17th March, trade and is succeeded as Chief Commissioner lander's face and he will make you feel The weather having been stormy, ser- the same active and admirable officer light of Sir Colin. The 93rd will win they require no comment. But so and happy should we be to use our influence > position was subsequently forced by the 93rd, who killed 140 of the enemy and under Gen. Grant, proceeded on a three days' expedition to dispere some rebe's n the neighborh of towards Scelopore, 15 guns were va luved and 200 men slain. Auction Sale of Crockery, Glass, &c-William One officer, Wacdonnell, of the 2nd Punwards Fyzabad, and the siege of Luckand 1 100 men killed and wounded; that of the enemy it is impossible to compute. but it could not have been less than 4,000 the small besieging force of Della barely REESOR'S DEAR CHARMER. 9,000 strong, was none with three months of incessant and ha assim combats, and the splendid force of 30,000 men before arfillery and ordnance stores, drawn by

of the 30th March, says that the rebels at gust and contempt. very hard-one gun especially causing when editors of public journals im serious annoyance. A sortie was made unsuccessfully to take the gun, and descend so low as to merit the sent on from Benares. The 13th Foot we indicate no one, but we will from Allahabad have proceeded via recommend the Denizens of Mark-Ghazeepore.

LETTER FROM INDIA.

CAMP CAWNPORE, Feb. 8, 1858.

felt in the meanwhile for the garrison of musketry, told me that death was very

A note has been presented to the Nea- strange conveyances I have have describ- his company revenged his death. Our clous trio of Conneillors must be served, and Serjeant-Major was the first one that Nor is this the only unfavourable in- went in, and he had nearly one hundred to Councillors gained his election, must be algineers The indemnity is said amounts telligence that reaches us from this part contend with. At length the Sepoy lowed to use the people's hard earned taxes 22nd :to 100,000 francs, and the King appear- of the country. A letter from Benares " Salem " was drowned by the " hurrahs " of our men, and then I knew that the work was nearly over. It was an awful To which we gave this unansight to see the black wretches in the swerable reply :aws of death. The Shah-Rujeff and slaughter-I shall never forget the picempire in which Britain's future glory and wealth is concerned. The duty re- The candid reader will at once

A Highlander's bed is composed of the to sneak out of his false and slan- treated the opinion with contempt, Nana Sahib, reinforced by Barielly by Sir Colin Campbell in person, will go battle-field. He exclaimed at Lucknow. this question; contrary to the evident calcula-two regiments of Native Cavalry, four weight in gold to me this day," and wiped true, for the simple reason that he has not had The steamer Emeu, the arrival of troops of Horse Artillery, two field bat- the tears from his iron face. He has a a chance. The collectors for this year have which at Suez from Australia was an- teries and siege train, Naval and Engin- great notion of us, and said to the 90th at not yet been appointed. Lucknow, when they would not advance Sir James Outram goes to Calcutta into the Shab-Nujeff, " Look at a Highinstant passed "Brandy-Pots," at five was decressed, a'though it had been slight- of Oude by Mr. Montgomery, lately ju- ashamed;" at the same time we advanced, hood-such disingenious and paldicial commissioner in the Punjaub, and stormed and took the Nujeff to the de- try replies speak for themselves;

> Our news by post from Oude goes to ble doom. One place I s.w was covered publishing such gross slanders .- such a reproach upon us in order to advance the 30th of March. By the 19th all or- with blood, children's clothes, and little ganized resistance had ceased, but such a shoes; at the bottom of the garden was the He says :vast area of houses could not be held by well into which numbers jumped to save | Since our exposure of the Tribune's abominour troops without great inconvenience, themselves from a worse death; but this able doctrine of "praising the bridge that car- unless lost to shame, could have ism, unitariasm, and universalism, hope that one and all of our readand the inhabitants were invited to return of the scene is now no more a nice part and ransom the rest of the town; nests monument has been built by a draft of the sition, and promises to throw out some of the of rebels, however, still existed. One of 32nd Regiment, whose women and chil- bad timber. This is good so far as it goes, if these was attacked on the 21st by the dren were killed here. The barracks he will stick to his promise. 4th Punjaub Infantry, who suffered se- are still standing, where Col. Wheeler

New Advertisemets this Week.

"Let the galled jade wince," Lucknow, flushed by a long series of vic- and well it may, as blow after other, the difference between the powerful just reward of its stupid obstinthe rebels from the Delhi magazine, and acy. Some animals (which here the miserable collection of guns and mor- shall be nameless) are proverbial tars and bad ammunition they mustered at for their crooked pranks and vici- thus: From Robilcond we learn that Nana ous propensities, so much so that had an interview with Fuzul Hug, near class of the genus homo to these

Captain Bedford, of the 37th, was killed. application to themselves of such On the 29th 100 men of the 97th and ignoble comparisons. Of course ham to read the gross calumnies A young corporal in the 93rd High- formation of our readers we will

The Economist of April 29th says: "Now the same Mr. Button is in the Council, DEAR, --- ,-Here I am in this place and Mr. Bowman is in the Council also; and have attained certain ages calculated to ened to attack, and on the 24th had against thousands. You may guess what To which, in the following week, the model Collector, being an important plank

the Mess-House were similar scenes of Now the editor of the Economist is well ture. I wish that I may come off as no collectors appointed for the year 1858; and to take the Danish proposals into re con- usual, our information was most wretched, easily as I did when last there. I got the collectors of which he speaks were aptime you get this, if it be Gol's will, if either of the collectors hold in their hand Lucknow will be in our possession, and at the present time over $1000, (which money ground. I wish myself that India may the case, why, we ask, did he not inform the with Mr. Reesor to Separate once more enjoy the blessings of peace, public of such neglect of duty before now? - Schools, we did not chose to perand that it may be founded on a surer The collector to whom he refers, we underfoundation, that shall not be shaken for stand, is a resident of the village in which petrate an act of injustice. We copees per rouble on all articles of Euro wounded. Just fancy six guns under the generations to come. Our nation knows ask again, does he suffer such acts of injustice begged of Mr. Reesor to explain the consequence if India should not be to be perpetrated immediately before his eyes ? ours. It is now that our rulers should Why did he not inform the Council of it at its consider how well to lay the basis of an last meeting, and have the conduct of the col- however, uncourteously refused.

ector investigated at once. quired to be done by your brethren-in- perceive that we totally denied the titled to have their petition granted, name and credit as of yore. When Economist's assertions. We will we would vote for his resolution. Scotland unsheathes her sword she does now present our intelligent readers We gave Dr. Ryerson's opinion on with the base manner he endeavors | the subject, but this would-be lawyer

Every one will at once perceive that he is self-convicted of false-

think you had more sense given of our speech in Council, specious theories in support of each in your head than to insult (which was a bona fide one,) nor of these isms. the public with such bare-faced that of our articles will bear the The third danger was Infidelity,  Mr. W. R. Robertson, of effrontery. You write slanders, construction he strives to put upon in which he included all disbelief receive monies on behalf of this of- applaud you; and not only that, were anxious to do justice, which atheism was not common now, nor you have the impudence to state was the purpose for which we were brutalising socialism. Infidelity, that we will never meet you in de- elected. He again quotes the in these days was disguised, more bate upon public grounds. Which Mirror's praise, which we subjoin specious, and hence more dangeris certainly true, if you mean by it with our reply thereto, given a few ous. It was found floating through that we will never use your wea- weeks since :pons to fight by. We promise you The Toronto Mirror quoted largely from light literature of the day. It came in is very meagre and unimportant .that when we are lost to shame Mr. Trudgeon's paper, and then patted him the disguise of charity, and freedom The spirits of our M.P.P's, seem to we'll use them, but not till

We next notice his remarks on his heart.' the position we have assumed on marks we have quoted above, and continues the Separate School question .- his compliments, well spiced with a little blar- of natural religion, made sweeping nary display of oratorical power or the Thornhill Petition was presented. These were our only remarks on this occasion :-

Mr. Trudgeon stated that the petition went to show that they were entitled to it.

The following week we stated

Sahib was at Barrilly on the 24th, having we oftimes compare a particular quest? If the demand of the petitioners is in of Equity and Justice."

we again replied :-

judge for themselves. For the in- sults are involved, and we endeavored to put any school-boy of common sense wrote it, not to court any one's favor, and we that we fear no one's frown, not even when it he editor of the Markham Economist."

of opinions on Separate Schools were very the question; and even now he has not made tain which ride will be the strongest." Our reply reads thus to this vile insinuation:

sides of the question before our readers.-We M. DeChasseron, son-in-law of Prince and the news arrived late on the Shah-Rujeff, the Barracks, and the Mess ons for the disp te to be settled .- that no indi vote upon this important question, we shall Murat, is appointed French Charge d'Af evening of the 25th. Fifty dragoons House, were all taken in one day, and in vidual had a legal right to occupy the road alenced by the assiduous smiles of him or

It will be seen that up to that pe- Mr. Davidson. Yea, do anything ed in the Legislative body by 255 votes forwarded to Allahaoad, and from thence with their large guns, we carried the it up or pay for it. We deny also that Mr. riod the Economist does not charge that will raise your intellect and heart from its present degraded and Schools. He confines himself to Wheat firm. Grain cro; s are looking es on the 27th for the scene of the disas- which had mutinied; they wore the same Button, as well as by Mr. Bowman, so that in- imputing to us dishonest and unstones at your neighbor's windows, worthy motives. He never enlighttake care and not live in a glass. ened the public with one syllable The Chamber Desmises en Accusation Edward Lugard, with the 34th, 84th, and "Kill every black-face." Many of our Again, in the same issue he as to his own intentions. He at- house yourself. tacked us so that he might thereby One of their Collectors, it would appear feel the public pulse, and which

> What a paragon of virtue Mr. for the fifty dragoons sent out in the our Light Company was shot on the spot; should have paid in the money; but this pre Reesor is. But now for a change. Having completed his soundings, in the bridge by which at least one of the how bold he is .- He says, April

"He will hand over the Clergy Reserve a large and attentive audience. Fund to Separate Schools, if, by that means, ho can secure at his ward election more Capointment of the collectors, for there were and he found that we carried out as previously announced, as he our honest convictions regardless found it would be impossible to do to take the Danish proposals into re consideration, so as bring the difference be- and which always will be the case under a scar on the leg with an arrow. By the latter portion of the book contribution pounds a scar on the leg with an arrow. By the without any objections from Mr. Reesor; and we were elected to administer fair ture. He would, however, give a and impartial justice to all, and lecture on the duties of young men lessons, commencing with single the last of their strongholds driven to the should have been paid to the treasurer some although we are equally opposed at his earliest convenience. why he took the course he did; he, We stated then that if he would show us why they were not ennow, but would probably move shortly on 2nd Dragoous, Lahore Light Horse, and to be here at present. Our regiment has a powerful Artillery under the command had as much work as any in the country bending the command of the Richmond Hill, on Tuesday next.

| And the into Robilcund and Batton, on account of recipocal services in the Council, were willing to be here at present. Our regiment has a powerful Artillery under the command had as much work as any in the council, were willing to be here at present. Our regiment has a powerful Artillery under the command had as much work as any in the council, were willing to be here at present. Our regiment has a powerful Artillery under the command had as much work as any in the council, were willing to be here at present. Our regiment has a powerful Artillery under the command of the Richmond Hill, on Tuesday next.

The 42nd, 75th, 93rd, 2nd and 3rd Pun- out of the Circundia, "Foor tenow i man in holding the road. He says he did not the support of Separate Schools, in the very posed by the lecturer.

lowing terms:are pulled down here—they met a horri- thinks he is entitled to honor for lessly asserted them; and it is only the mean ed by young men. The ignorhis own fast obbing popularity."

which he was trusting, he begins to see his po- again, without a shadow of proof, were great errors to which young ers will make it their business to reiterated the same untruthful men were often exposed, as many charges.

Really, Mr. Reesor, we did Neither the quotations he has had advanced many plausible and on the back, in the following style :issue. They speak well both for his head and first article on this question, and ing (meaning the Gazette editor) has thus men-gave no arguments in sup- that seems to be talked about by learlessly expressed his opinion, we cannot also the remarks we made when think any further opposition will be offered to port of its assertions; was a mere Mr. Brown, is the return of Mr. the Markham Separate School Trustees."

We replied again :-

"We did not court the praises of the Mir- Society. of the "Economist." We think it will be praise the Economist for justice or fairness."

long ere the Mirror, or any ene else, will many of the rich blessings the bible Ministry, according to them, is Our readers will discover, from the quotations we have given from decided is are the the Economist, the mean and Petitioners legally entitled to what they re- contemptible spirit which has accordance with the provisions of the School actuated Mr. Reesor in all P.S.—The latest news from Beneres, quadrupeds as expressive of dis- uoners is clearly defined; but if it is not legal, his discussions with us. the question must be settled on other grounds. This week he has given quo-Azungbur were pressing Colonel Milman We are sorry for public morality, overy other question, on the broad principles tations, which by no law of honesty or fairness, will support the To which Recsor replied, by as- remarks he has made upon them .-serting that we were only smirk- We supported our position by an lecturer. The thanks of the meet- which are made annually by cerpraise from the Mirror. To which he cannot gainsay. Our vote, he says, is an insult, and proves that man, and also to the Rev. J. Boyd the world will most assuredly come "Our motive for writing the article in ques- we uphold Separate Schools .and untruths of the Economist, and fore the public, so that they might understand the question, as we believe that important to it fairly and impartially before the public. We knows-that a vote which enforces also beg to assure all whom it may concern, law does not commit a person to comes from the Globe's most obedient servant, the approval of the law itself. A law may be unjust, and yet it may The Economist rejoins, not by be the duty of a Council endeavoring to prove us dishonest, to give effect to that law Mr. Dick's lecture, on the motion solved. We really think that the from Liverpool for the Niger expedition, safe. There were ample means of de- God for his goodness. The first time we pay for it. Mr. Button would not allow Capt. but simply reiterates his old while it is law. Mr. Reesor, where of Mr. Sanderson, seconded by Mr. Clear Grit's must have taken lesis your logic, or your common Falconbridge, the following gentle-"He says his motives in giving his variety sense? We suppose it is gone a men were appointed as officers and pure. He only wanted to give both sides of hunting in "Dred Scott's" dismal Committee of the above associaup his mind which side he will take-his swamp, or gone crazy at the tion for the ensuing year:friends say because he does not yet feel cer- thought of possibly being an President-Amos Wright, Esq., M.P.P., instead of him whom M.P.P.; Vice-President, G. P. not possibly hold out much longer." you style "a blunt edged tool." If Dixon, Esq.; Secretary, Rev. Mr. It is by these means they strive to "We stated in our journal a few week's it is, we beg of you not to let the Dick; Treasurer, J. Arnold, Esq.; get the credit of being very wise since, that it was our intention to lav both chimeras of future greatness take Librarian, Rev. J. Boyd. have done so, and feel satisfied that in doing away what little sense you've got. | Committee - Col. Crookshank, hope is that the people will forget so we have only discharged our duty as journalists, and we can assure the Economist that But perhaps we wrong you. It is Mr. G. McPhillips, Mr. A. Law, their being so often wrong, when it when the proper time arrives for casting our simply the fumes of tobacco and Mr. W. Harrison, Mr. R. Marsh, is found that for once they are right,

PUBLIC LECTURE.

On Tuesday the 18th inst., a Lecture was given in the Grammar School, Richmond Hill, by the Rev. Mr. Dick. Subject-The dangers of young men. G. P. Dixon, Esq., presided. There was

The Rev. gentleman commenced holic than he is likely to lose of Protestant by stating that he should confine himself to the dangers of young writing Phonography that its sim-Then came the Council meeting, men, and not take up their duties

The first danger to which young men were exposed were from loose vantages of Short-Hand," and a seand immoral companions. Young lect list of the publications of the men are unsuspecting, eager for American Phonetic Association. pleasure, giddy, and gay. Hence the great danger of evil associates. One of the bitterest curses of the Greeks was-" May you live in arrangements are being made to bad company." It often led to the celebrate the Queen's Birth-day, in use of profane language, which this village, in a suitable manner, was both senseless and vulgar, and debasing in its tendency. No not yet been made. young man, possessed of any feelwere exposed, the evils of which

A greater untruth than this it is The second danger to which scarcely possible to conceive .- young men were exposed was, their Which statement of the Economist proneness to form rash, crude, and we denied the next day in the fol- imperfect notions concerning religion and morality, which was to "We believe the Separate School system be in some measure attributed to to be unjust in theory, and unfair in practice, the imperfect and limited knowtowards repealing the law that sustains them. ledge and experience possess- village. We expect there will be act of a cowardly enemy's slander to fasten ance and conceit of our youth were exhibited. The Committee have We fearlessly assert that no one, ter of God and Jesus Christ. Athe- a first rate fair. Therefore, we highly gifted and intellectual men

"The talented editor of the Richmond Hill of thought. It was given to young be something like the weather, Gazette has the following remarks in his last men in homeopathic doses. It dull and heavy. The measures The Mirror then proceeds to give the re- for his belief, the superexcellence nature to call forth any extraordi-from extending it. A vote of father to the thought." thanks was unanimously passed, Their prophecies are worth about and instructing lectures.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION OF RICHMOND HILL.

headed. If so, send at once for Dr. Langstaff.

We have received from Mr. Wm. H. Orr, of Oshawa, a copy of low condition. Learn to speak "Pitman's Manual of Phonogthe truth, and before you throw raphy," a work designed to afford pages of phonographic characters, effect. illustrative of the printed instructions on the opposite pages. From given, and the ample engraved il- of the Hudson's Bay Territory. lustrations, we should judge there would be little difficulty experienced in mastering the system .-Unintelligible as the characters at first appear, we are assured by those who have learned the art of plicity and naturalness is such as to render its acquisition much easier tains a progressive series of writing consonants, and ending with verbatim reporting. The Manual also contains an essay on "The Ad-

THE QUEEN'S BIRTH-DAY

We are given to understand that amounting to $2,445,501 and 91cts. A superior Brass Band has been en- Government would furnish the ingaged. The full arrangements have formation asked for.

ings of self-respect, would demean It will be seen by reference himself by swearing. It was ex-Saviour. Licentiousness was an- This is his first trip to these partsother danger to which young men and we have no doubt that the in- bonds. China at auction prices.

RICHMOND HILL SPRING FAIR.

We beg respectfully to remind our numerous readers that the Annual Spring Show and fair will be held on Wednesday next in this some first-class horses and cattle then exposed concerning the charac- spared no pains or labor to insure be at the fair. We think that an incalculable amount of good is done by these annual exhibitions. They serve to keep alive and encourage lively competition amongst us. which is proved by the fact that each year we see decided indications of improvement in every branch of agriculture and stockbreeding. Therefore, our advice is to one and all attend.

PARLIAMENTARY SUMMARY.

the clubs debating societies, and The political news of this week taught that man was irresponsible discussed are not of the exciting assertions in order to beguile young debating ability. The only event system of objections. It sought to McDougall for North Oxford, which undermine the very foundations of is paraded with great bombast and exultation by the Clear Grit chief The lecturer then traced out and his followers. The fate of the had given to society. It abolished sealed, and very soon they will infanticide. Wife murder, gave have to go by the wall, and North noble institutions to support the lu- Oxford has done it all-but we natic, the blind, the deaf, the pros- would advise our readers not to be titute, the destitute, and the poor. too credulous in this respect .-The above is but a very short and We rather think that the wish of imperiect outline of the lecture, Mr. Brown and his party is, in this our limited space preventing us instance, (as in many others) "the ing were also voted to the chair- tain people, namely, that next year for his kindness in arranging and to an end. But, nevertheless, the likely to do so at least for a few MECHANICS INSTITUTE AND years longer. Still, these prophets have one consolation, that is that if every year they prophecy the world's dissolution, they will evi-At the conclusion of the Rev. dently be right when it is dissons from these prophets, so that when happily the Government is dissolved, they may be able to turn round and say: "There, did we not tell you that the Ministry could and far-seeing politicians-their they cannot fail to be.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

MONDAY, May 17th. Hon. Mr. Patton presented a pecomplete instruction in Phonetic tition from the Toronto Board of Short-Hand Writing. It contains Trade praying for aid to the amount about 100 pages, and a portion of of £50,000. Also, a petition from it is interleaved with engraved Messrs. Moffatt & Co. to the same

Hon. Col. Prince gave notice that on Friday next he should inquire the full, yet simple and plain man- whether the Ministry intended to inner in which the instructions are troduce any measure on the subject.

Hon. Col. PRINCE introduced a. bill to amend the law for the admission of English Solicitor's and Attorneys to practice in the Canadian Courts of Law and Equity. The bill was read a first time.

from the Committee, a report on the bill for the amendment of the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act, and the act to prevent Accidents on Railways.

Hon. Mr. FERGUSSON brought up,

The report was adopted.

TUESDAY, May 18th. Three petitions were presented praying that a bill might be passed to prevent Sabbath desecration. Hon. Mr. Morris moved for a are invested. Hon. Mr. Ross stated that the statement of all Bonds and Debentures, in which special funds

Hon. Mr. Morris enquired of the Receiver General if any clerk in the was the express command of the Richmond Hill, on Tuesday next. bentures, or Municipal or other habitants of the neighborhood will Hon. Mr. Ross replied that no lay hold of the opportunity of buy- wrong had been done to the public, The British experienced a reverse in the Phe 42nd, 75th, 93rd, 2nd and 3rd Pun- out of the Circundia, "Poor fellow! promised that he will not sustain Mr. Bow- favor of giving the Clergy Reserve Fund to were strongly and eloquently ex- ing Staffordshire Crockery and nor any gains made by the officers in his department.