O'er mountain and valley The song is afloat. A joy as of Eden. A gladness, a bloom, As if earth contain'd not. A tear, nora tomb.

On hills and in valleys The lambs are at play ; The cuckoo is calling In woods far away : The stroams are rejoicing To wander with spring : With the songs of their gladness The valleys do ring.

The Spirit of Beauty Is ranging abroad, And show'ring her daisies To deck the green sod, She's over the mountain And through the deep dell, And haugs by the fountain Her pretty blue bell.

She cleeds with her ivy The old rum'd wall, And leans o'er the cliff and The steep waterfall; And where she has tarried Beside the lone spring, The primrose bank hangs like

A beautiful dream. Her footsteps we trace, where The volet blows. And the joy of her face, in The laughing wild rose. A mighty emotion, Old ocean, thou art;

But the song of the syren

Has hush'd thy great heart. The wild bee is humming; The lark is on the wing ; The cushet is cooing Beside the lone spring ; The Poet is coming

Ten Thousand Copies are now ready for distribution. This work contains nearly 2000 pages of reading matter, in which will be found reported a large number of most important and successful operations on the Eye, and more than One Hundred interesting Cases of every description, illustrated with numerous Cuts and Plates. Also, will be seen, Letters and References from highly respectable parties from all parts of Canada and the United States, -all of which will be found well worthy the careful perusal of the

The Author feels fully assured that every new prejudiced reader of this work will be convinced that Diseases of the Eve or Ear in any stage short of complete disorganization, can and may be cured : and it must appear evident to every considerate person that the principal cause of failure to obtain relief in these cases throughout the country, is the result of improper treatment, and a want of EXPERIENCE, SKILL, and COMPK-TENCY on the part of those professing or attempting to cure such diseases.

This Work will also be forwarded to individuals free of charge) sending their add ess, POST-PAID, to the Author at Toronto. TORONTO, June 8th, 1857.
