Business Directory. DR. JAMES LANGSTAFF, Richmond Hill.

June: 1857. JOHN GRIEVE, CLERK THIRD DIVISION COURT. Office, Richmond Hill,

JOSEPH KELLER, DAILIFF Second and Thi d DIVISION D Court. Office, Rienmond Hill. June, 1857.

J. B. DEEGIER, A PPOINTED CONSTABLE at the Assizes for the Counties of York, Ontario and Simcoe. Residence-Corner of Wright and Yonge Streets, near A Wright,

Richmond Hill, Sept. 10, 1858. P. CROSBY, NRY GOODS, GROCERIES, Wines, Liquors, Hardware, &c. Richmend Hill, June, 1857. g.1-wy

I HOMAS SEDMAN, Carriage, Waggon & Sleigh June 2, 1858 MAKER, Opposite the White Swan Inn.

R chmond Hill, June 10, 1857. g.1-wy JAMES McCLURE, INNKEEPER. Licensed Auctioneer for the Counties of York, Ontario and Simcoe. Corner of Yonge and Bradford streets, Holland Landing.

November, 16, 1857. JOHN HARRINGTON, JR., 11 WO Miles North of Richmond Hill. dealer in Dry Goods, Groveries old a prices to meet the times. Wine, Liquors, Hardware, Glass, Eathen water Richmood Hill, June 17, 1858. &c. IF Also, Licensed Auctioneer g16-1v September, 23, 185 ... WELLINGTON HOTEL, EAR the Railroad Station, Aurora, Careful Hostiers always in attendance.

Proprietor. January 14, 1558. MANSION HOUSE, CHARON. Attentive Hosders always in L) attendance.

Proprietor. January 14, 185%. MESSRS. J. & W. BOYD, Barristers, &c., NO. 7. WELLINGTON BUILDINGS, KING ST., TORONTO,

J. RAVANAGII.

June 20, 18.7. g. 3-wy. CLYDE HOTEL, KING STRE T EAST, TO UNTO. (100D Stabling and Attenuve Hostlers JOHN MILLS.

June, 1857. Bottled Ale Depot. 65, YORK STREET. TORONTO, C. W. M. MORRISON, Agent, Toronto, June 12th, 1857. ROBERT J. GRIFFITH, I LAG, Banner and Ornamental Painter, Elizabeth Street, Toronto, -- Over W. Gritfit.. 's Grocery Store. IT Coats of Arms, and every description of reasonacle charges.

EDWARD CROWN, TIAS always on hand a large and well

assorted stock of DRALERY, GRO CERILS, BOOTS and SHOES, &c. &c. which will be sold at prices that will defy com-Thornbill, July 30, 1858 60-1v

J. VERNEY, Boot and Shoe Maker. PPOSITE A. LAW'S, Yonge street, R chmend Hill. "Ladies' and Gentlemens' Boots and Shoes. | Children's Teeth. made after the latest styles. August 6, 1857.

80] CHAS. POLLOCK, 80] I MPORTER of British, French Germa and American, Fancy and Stade Dry Goods, No. 80, City Buildings, King Stie (East opposite St. James' Cathenra, Loronto, C. W.

JOHN COULTER, Anilor and Clothier, Youge St., Richmond Uill.

GEORGE DOLD, Veterinary Surgeon Lot 26, 4th | on., Vnughan. · HORSE & FARRIER" INN.

YONGE STREET HOTEL. AURORA.

Good supply of WINES and Liquons A always on hand Excellent Accommodanou for Travellers, Farmers, and others D. MCI.EOD. Proprietor. Aurora, July 6, 1858.

J. N. REID, DHYSICIAN & SURGEON Corner of Yonge and Centre Streets, Thornheilt.

August 14, 1857. REACH'S HOTEL,

CORNER of Front and George's rects one block east of the Market JOHN ROACH. Proprietor.

ROBERT SIVER, Boot and Shoe Maker, A DJOINING the Weslevan Methodis: Chepel, Yonge Street, Richmond Hill. A choice selection of Gentlemens', Ladies' and Childrens' Loois and Shoes constantly on hand, and made to order on the Shortest No-All kinds Shoemakers Finding for sale.

Richmond Irill, June 12th, 1857. g.1w.), GLOUCESTER HOTEL,

THREE MILES NORTH OF TORONIO, ON YONGE-ST.

THE above Hotel is fitted up in neat and com ortable style. Transcent visitors and other will find the accommodations to be that or the first class, while the charges will be extremely low. LF Good Stabling and an attentive Hostler. cies to suit every sight. Yonge Street, Aug. 7, 1858. 62- Clocks from 20s upwards. THOMAS COATES, Proprietor.

Uribune,

WITH OR WITHOUT OFFENCE TO FRIENDS OR FOES,

I SKETCH YOUR WORLD EXACTLY AS IT GOES .- Byron.

Vol. II. No. 21

RICHMOND HILL, FRIDAY, OUTOBER 29, 1858.

Whole No. 73.

[From the Golden Prize.]

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

BY FINLEY JOHNSON.

shore, we wondered not-but in the language of inspiration, we bid fathoin the cause. Could be, how-in a serious conflit. Kate St. Clair was the daughter of a rich merchant

The storm increased to a fearful them 'God speed.'

DR. J. W. GRIFFITH, MARKHAM VILLAGE, C.W.

ESPLANADE HOTEL. BY G. TURNER, PALACE ST. (OPPOSITE THE OLD GAS WORKS)

Toronto, June 11, 1858. JAMES HALL, AS always on hand a large assortment of W. HODGE & Co. HOLESALE and Retail Copper, Im and con late Wo kees, and Furnishing oum ugers. Partie giving this house a call "If find their mides ponetually attended to, and the lowest pinces charge i.

Richmond Hill June 17, 1858. EDMUND GRAINGER, UTCHER, THORNHILL, Fresh) and Pickled Meats, Confire, Ac., always on hand. Families supplied on the shorest Jan. 7, 1858.

Thornbill, March 19, 1858. WILLIAM HARRISON, andle and Harness Maker, Next door to G A, Barnard's, June, 1557. JAMES JENKINS', George & Provision fore RICHMOND HILL VO CREDIT GIVEN. Pro. uc. taken in

The above is the oldest e-tablished Grocery and Provi ion Store on the Hil. July 2, 1858. W. H. MYERS,

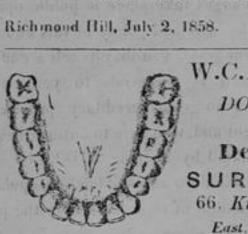

TWO DOORS SOUTH OF THE TRIBUNE OFFICE. ALL WORK WARRANTED.

Richmond Hill, June 1-58.

RICHMOND HILL HOTEL. STAGE runs from the above Hotel to 1 Toronto every morning, starting from Herald l'aiming, executed with despatch, and at the Elgin Mils at 7, a m and returning at 7, .m. Fare 2s. 6d. each war.

GOOD ACCOMMODATION FOR TRAVELLERS. RICHARD NICHOLLS,

Proprietor

W.C.ADAMS DOCTOR Dental SURGERY, their support. East. Toronto

Particular attention given to the regulation of Consultations Free, and all Work Warranted l'oronto, June, 1867.

T. MAC ETH. Jur., CARRIAGE, SIGN,

Ornamental Painter Richmond Hill, Feb. 17, 1858. 137-1v

BLACK HORSE HOTEL PEDRMERLY KEPT BY WM. HOLPH. er day. Good Stabling and attentive Hostlers lways in attendance. An omnibus to and rom the Railroad Station. THOMAS PALMER

To onto, Feb 26, 1858. DAVID ATKINSON, AGENT FOR

Proprietor.

Darling & Aitchison's COMBINED

MACHINES, Richmond Hill, June, 1857.

WARD & McCAUSLAND, House, Sign and Ornamental

PAINTERS.

Graines, Gilders, Glaziers, and i aper Hangers. THORNHILL.

All kinds of Mixed Points Oils, Glass, and Putty.

GOOD WORKMEN SENT TO ANY PART OF THE COUNTRY. July 23, 1857.

GO TO MORPHY BROTHERS

COOD Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Melodeous Watch Clubs in Operation, Warranted

F. W. HOLLISS, MIERCHANT TAILOR, has always on Thoushil, July 30, 1858.

J HACKETT, M.D. Meals 20 cents each, and good ecommoda Licentrate of the Board of Upper Canada I hear the bell! alas! can it be ..ATE RESIDENT MEDICAL OFFICER. KINGS ON GENERAL MOSPITAL.

July 23, 1858 BO I'S and S IDES, which will be ANGLO-AMERICAN HOUSE ! What sound is that which greets mine ears, MARKHAM VILLAGE. 100D Accommodations. Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the choice i brands. R. MARR, Propentor. Markham, July 1858 NEW STORE,

Rich.aond IIII, MORNER of Wright & Yonge streets J. Chean Groceries and Provisions, Crockery and Glassware cheap for Ca-h. No D HOPKINS

LUKES' HOTEL,

LANDING THE Subscriber begs to inform the la habit ints of the above-named Village g.1-wy, and surrounding Country, and the Public gen erally, that ie has leased the above Hotel, formerly kept by Thomas Max, which he has I awake-'its my wife has brought the ch ild. fixed p and furnished for the accommodation of his Customers, and he trusts by constant attention to their wants to secure a liberal patronage. Liquors of the best brands at the Bar, and every attention paid to Guests. THOS. LUKES, Holland Landing. Proprietor. g14-3m Sept. 10, 1857

THORNHILL HOTEL. SADDLE AND HARNESS MAKER, ITHE Subscriber begs to inform the > Public that he has leased the above premises, and fitted them up in a neat and accomodations in every way agreeable. The best of Liquors and Cigars carefully selected. Good stabling and attenuive hostlers he said, HENRY LEMON, Thornholl, Prop. ietor. Jan 20, 1858.

LEWIS MACDONALD, STOUFFVILLE,

EGS to raturn his thanks to the inhabitants

CHRISTIAN WURSTER,

VILLAGE and surrounding country, that endeavor to ment a same of their support. Repairing neaty and expedienously attended to. L. All Work Warranted.

WILLIAM U. SKENE, MILLWRIGHT, ALTONA.

Mayle Village, Ang 20, 1858.

give general sau-f ction Aliona, Ackust 2 , 18.8.

SWAN HOTEL, , tendering his tranks for past favors, me so long a prev to despair.' Establishment, Thornbill, and known as the learned upon the edge of the table himself intends to devote his time to the com-JOH SHIELS, Thornhill, Proprietor. January 20, 1858.

TORONTO CITY MARBLE WORKS 185 YONGE STREET. MONUMENTS, TOMBT BLES, TOMB-STONES, &c.

THAN ANY OTHER ESTABLISHMET.

into Court for collection. C. YALE. Toronto, 29, April 1858

Selections.

THE POET AT HOME. 6 Ly I hear the bell; ves, I hear the bell-Oh! can it be tidings of sorrow bringing? Does it sound of departed worth the knell, Or is it a bridal welcome ringing ?

RESIDENCE, MAPLE VILLAGE. Does it summon to arms the soldiery?

The toesin, that soon will be echoed by

Through the placed air serency swelling, As if in the music of the spheres Some seraph his tale to the stars were telling? How wild the sound ! 'tis a strain too hold For the serenade of gay deceivers , I look from my lattice-and 'neath it behold These rascally marrowbones and cleavers!

I hear in the distance the pleasant gush Of water, as if from a far-off fountain. Wan at intervals a sidden rush, Like the cataract sweeping down the mou-

Oh! what can it be? I feel a glow When I think of the torrent bordly dashing Down the deep abyss-I look below. And see them filling the copper for washing.

I sink on my couch, and the poet's eye Is speedily closed by stumber's power; I dream that my Aramiota is nigh, And beckons me to some fairy bower. I hear her voice-it grows loud and wild, As if in distress upon me cailing ; Winch she wants are to noid, to keep it from squal ing. - Beatley's Miscellany.

THE IDENTIFICATION.

A NARRATIVE OF PACTS, BY A CON-STABULARY OFFICER. (Conclued from our last.)

Tom Courtney was sitting on the side of his bed, but started up to stam of murder falsely stamped rived, there was a merry and a Boarders and transient visitors will find the meet me the moment I entered, and, upon my name and race; oh, Sir, it happy party at the jail-gate. The a unserably wretched night and hand fervently. CLOCK AND WATCH Maker, day-death itself would be prefer- He turned a piercing glance upon harness; such rubbing of stirrups, gifts upon him most bountifully. church wardens left their own pews able to the might I spent. I wished me. to have told you this morning, but 'Take care, Sir, oh, take care ing of cushions, and greasing of to be prosperous, but suddenly a though uncontrollably pleased with D of stoutivitie and the mends who have you hurried away, I knew not why. What you say. I told you I was wheels, was never seen as had been change was perceptible in the conhitherto favored him with their cu tom, and Oh, Sir. I have been nearly mad- content; strike not the spark of going on from daylight. Upward duct of her he loved. Loving looks would announce that he has commenced at times I think I am mad. Can hope again, or I shall die mad, and of sixty men. mounted on their now no more she gave him, her new air. What was to be done? horet, and hopes, by stead, attendance and you wonder ! On, how could it be perhaps be lost.' moderate charges, to ment a communice of otherwise ! I wish it was all over. Recollect, Tom, that the knife front; then came from filteen to ness and guarded words were all hope that the musical stranger might On, Sir, if I could subdue my heart was actually raised in Abraham's twenty cars and other vehicles of that he obtained. Jewelliv neatly repaired. All work warranted. to the will of God—if I could feel hand to slay his son before the one sort or other, filled with the Off he wondered at the change, played out. Vain expectation! It LEWIS MACDONALD, that I had submitted to His myste- Lord saw fit to interfere to save beauty and fashion of the parish, - but vain were all his attempts to could benold the light of that fatal Tom, if it be ilis will to do so. SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER, I have had a fearful struggle, and, while the burning tears ran down ding in the breeze, with now and have not lost the battle. At one 'H-an, Sir, you could not be so head, and a pawing of the ground he has opened a Shop in the above line, time I feared I had been conquered, cruel as to speak thus if there be by the animal; for he was old Ned where he will, by strict attention to all orders, and that all was lost. On, Sir, he to hope." 63-6m spent a miserable night. Oh, how 'do you remember evel to have and rems in hand, ready for the consciousness was frightful; and swore to in her evidence! of the bes. Foundrys in Canada. All commen been but laney-but I did think I that was rising on my tongue.

63 6m Courtney. 'I'm almost sure I heard the words, or some of them; but, surely, if you saw it now ! if there were any grounds for hope, /1 HORNHILL. The subscriber in you, at least, Sir, would not have left omilesely renovated, and respectable visitors thinking it best to do so; indeed, I you. may rely on having their calls immediately at- knew not how I could have stopped His Bar will always be found well stored rapidity with which he spoke, with forter all those who may honour him with a my communication. I now sal

Tom, my good friend, I could wish to see you calmer and more composed; more totally thrown upon the Lord for help and com-

He interrupted me with---. Oh, Sir, the bitterest pangs with-Twenty Per Cent Cheaper in my heart is that I have not been able to seek help and comfort as I ought; that I have not been able HE Undersigned Assignees of the to submit myself blindly, entirely to lestate of D. C. & W. YALE, will con His will, without questioning it. sore affliction; unmerited, indeed pardon; but fully, freely saved? 48-11 I ask what I have done; I argue Tom Courtney's happier days. The one of their ministers, and hastened ion way, and a voice eried out.

with Him, and at times I fear I water-gates of his heart were to fulfill the aspiration of his heart openly rebel; yet with all this there broken up, and gushed forth in tor- -I think it was to the coast of At has been a constant prayer that it reats of soft, cool tears. He threw frica. I saw a letter from him to a might be otherwise with me; and himself on his knees by the bed- religious friend; he was well; and my state of mind for the last hour side, and I lett the room. I freely alluded to the incidents ashy pale, and only a slight tremor ---oh, how precious, how invalu- A few words, by way of conclu- which I have en leavored to detail. which shook her frame, gave evivored to serve Him in a foreign of a narrative from the heads given vored.' That is now upward of Lind, for which choice there were in my private journal; but I do not thirty years ago, since which period many reasons. Having seen a hesitate to say that it is a faithful I have altogether lost sight or intel-No! it's only the boy with the muttins and bright lig it, I felt fired with zeal to detail of facts which took place ligence of him. wander among distant and unknown under my own knowledge. All the regions to impart it to others -- conversation in court, as well as hence, perhaps, the connection of Tom Courtney's address upon connaked savages with my sleeping viction, are stated precisely as they thoughts; but there was too much occurred, and were taken down by of I will in my plans, and the Lord myself at the time. has redeed shown me that ' Man Tom Courtney saw Hopkins be-do with me as Thou witt.' And he them. ing round me, and the fragrance of she strenuously denied that there the coarse language so common the Night of Terror. life and health, full of young and body but a common fool could misardent hopes --- all this might, per- take them. This opinion she main-chance, be borne, had sickness, or tained to the last, and I doubt not even accident brought down an un- that she really believed it. sullied name to an untimely grave; The day fortnight that I told but oh! thus to be cut off by a cruel Tom Courtney he was saved, an and disgraceful death, with the order for his discharge having ar

Oh, sir. I am glad you are come; God is powerful as well as good, ful escort to his home once more, another on board, who was seeking after a short pause the organ chose I thought you would have been to said I; 'His arm is not shortened Cars of all descriptions, low-back to win bright eyes to beam upon see me to-day before this hour. My that He can not save; trust in Him and high-back, gigs and tax-carts, him. time is short. Oh, Sir, I have spent even still, Tom :' and I pressed his arriving every moment; such Charles Burns was mate of the rious will---with what pleasure I hun. He can save you even still, Next the jail-gate stood an empty morning now so near at han; but the cham- nothing remained but to carry the I nope-on, ves, I do hope-that I his wrists into his coat-skeves .-- then a proud, impatient toss of the continued, and a curious change 'Tom.' I continued, as he still a good one. Billy was now mountcame over him; 'oh, Sir. I have kept his face hid in his hamis - ed in the driving-seat, with whip eyes, she would contrast them with edification of the less attentive part wish I had not slept at al -- given a purse to Catherine Mur- start; while about two hundred wedded the humble mate. Love only half-smothered melodies. the waking to a new certainty of pay; the one, I suppose, which she mes, women, and children, on foot, struggled, and painful indeed was filed along the jail-wall, to the right the conflict, but for the time, pride had a tormenting dream. He raised his head and looked at and left of the gate, ready to fol- triumphed : and when we reached SPEAKING OUT IN DREAMS. I thought-ah! it must have been me. There was a wildness in his low, two abreast, in the rear. but thought-but about two hours eye, and a twitching about the cor- Presently a monster key was the young man, that he no longer ORNER of Faluce and George steels, east [] EGS to infinite that he is now pre- ago, that hat almost fright- heard struggling in the lock, and emered the cabin, but paced to and of the Market Square, Toronto. Board $1 1) pared to erect MILLS of every head was open as it was now; and I even still feared with a loud short shoot of the bolt. Iro upon the deck, in gloomy silence. description, by contract or otherwise, on I fancied-I'm sure it must have the effects of the communication the gate was thrown open, and forth At length we passed the Islands, ter from one of the Springs.

> I expected; some years ago. - leaned his mether, similing and joy- lect gale. Charles Burns teared less 'It that be true, it saves from Why do you ask!

'twas a leather purse, fined with air as they appeared : I have heard bitterness, and cursed his fate. silk, and letters marked upon the loud simultaneous shouts from aswould beg to call Public attention to his NEW He had his face in his hands, and lining. But why do you talk of sembled thousands-ay, tens of such things now ! I should think thousands -- but so hearty, so enthu- were the traces of anxiety. in consequence of the accomedation in his old which was near the bed where he of other matters I expect the stastic, so devoted a cheer I never Rev. Mr. A .-- every moment, heard, and never can again hear.

or interrupted him, such was the ing it upon the table before him. swelling up in my eves. If they the wide waste of waters, exposed with the choicest Liq ors; while the subscriber out being too sudden and abrupt in that is the very purse. Where, but many there were that wept ments. where, did you get it! Catherine outright. down beside him on the bed, and Marphy swore it was taken away Tom Courtney and his mother Clair would often gaze across the devil has got me at last." Her mistook his hand; 'twas red hot; and by the murderers. Oh. Sir, tell mounted on one side, while his fa- deek, and her heart felt anxiety for tress, sitting on the seat in front of > the pocket of the real murderer.' Courtney cracked his whip; old ing me by the collar of the coat up a lively quickstep in advance of world of waters clung too closely Tom, springing to his feet, and seiz- a spick and span new suit, struck with both his hands, and shaking the whole procession, which moved around our spirits not to evile he ed; I always thought if eber I got me furiously. 'I am saved! oh, forward with smiling happy, chat-tinue the business under the superintendence of our duly authorized agents. Assis Abby But I sometimes -- ah, too often, I the gale was steadily increasing. and D. Carros Y LE, whose receipt will be want to know His reasons for this doned, for they have nothing to in his old home. P.S. All notes and accounts remaining un- Sir unmerited, so far as regards He stood for a moment like one sequent to the termination of the still, save the hoarse murmur of the paid on the 1st day of June, 1858, will be put the crime which has been put upon bewildered, like a statute; the above trans ction Tom Courtney waves, and the roar of the windme. I know it is as a child I should burning flush fled from his chees joined the Wesleyan Methodist So- then every one was startled as a able is an nour now to me !-- has sion, are necessary to this story. - He thanked God for what had oe- dence of life. been reconciled, and, I trust, sub It has already extended far beyond curred, saying, that 'he considere! missive I had intended. Sir, had what I had anticipated when I com- it had been the greatest of the many the Lord permitted, to have ender- in need to take it down in the form, mercies with which he had been faproposeth, but God d'sposeth.' His forc he left the jul; he smiled a will be done; with His nelp, noth- scornful smile as he looked at him; age, we had crossed the burning Edward Bates, she sank down cold ing shall again disturb my soul. he admitted there was a strong line, passed through the regions of and lifeless. On the second day God is good; His will be done. hkeness between them, but he could trade winds, and swept round the the gale moderated, and soon after He is, indeed, good. Tom, said not be so good a judge upon that Western Isle. Every heart beat we reached our native land. I, pressing his hand, which still al- point as others; he reminded me, with joy; and hopes of future hapmost set mue on lire. He is very however, of his dread, recurring piness were anticipated by all, but, spectable elderly man and woman good, and can save those who to the subject several times at some alas! for human fancy! reality came on board, and made inquiries trust in him; He can save to the length, and declared at last that he soon teaches a mournful lesson. fully and freely forgave the persons We had on board one of the pret- f arful was their grief, when they · I do trust Him with my whole who swore against him-adding, lest and gentlest of waiting maids, heard his fate. heart and soul; I am content. - that had it been in the daytime who, by her winning manners won | Carrie De Vere was an orphan Here I am, O Lord--thine; he could scarcely have forgiven the love and admiration of us all. brotherless, sisterless-and on be-hid his face again in his hands .--- Sir William Smith it was who among the crew, who, by his mark- of her lover, gladly accepted it. 20h, Sir,' he added, almost imme- tried Hopkins at C-r, and he ed attentions, showed plainly that diately starting up, and turning his told me afterwards that even be- love had possession of his heart. full gaze upon me; the valley of tween twins he had never seen so Edward Bates, was every way ted the day when she became his the shadow of death is dark, very perfect a likeness. Courtney's mo- worthy of a faithful woman's heart. bride. dark; and to enter it while the sun ther also saw Hopkins, and --- oh! He was a young man of fine talents; is shiming over me, and birds sing- the fondness of a mother's heart-- and his good taste made him avoid shall I forget the Two Maidens, and the blooming flowers fresh upon the was the smallest resemblance be- among sailors. breath of spring, and in the prime of tween him and her boy;' that nointerest that we watched the course when he told us that she had pro-> josuting-car, the horse's head cov-Court ey's jaunting-car horse--- and issued Tom Courtney leaning on his and the weather became more unons, though rescued, I may say at the other elements, than he did the 'Is that it, Tom?' said I, throw- sympathy and joy-of exultation- indeed, a terrible thing, there upon gions. Yes, said he, snatching it up, ran over it, it is no affair of yours, to the pitiless peltings of the eleme where did you get it. When! ther and Philip Moran mounted on the young mate. But Charles knew the terrified negress, was deeply where !- how !- speak quickly.' the other. Three cheers more not of these kind feelings, and as 'In the pocket, To , of as great rent the air; the word 'Forward!' was his usual custom, shunned the was his usual custom, shunned the a villain as ever lived,' said I: 'in ran from mouth to mouth; Billy cabin. Then, I am saved! shouted Larry Murrin, the piper, dressed in tell me I am saved! My God, I ting faces; and in less than two from the land of dreams. thank thee! Oh, my mother! ting faces; and in less than two hours Tom Courtney, a free and You are, Tom, saved, beyond happy man, sit at breakfast with low, and retired to his cabin, and with such vehemence that not a the possibility of the low, and retired to his cabin, and with such vehemence that not a Somewhat about two years sub- In about five minutes, all was G. CUMMER. submit; but I inquire His reasons; and became as it was wont to be in ciety, and soon after was ordained heavy step descended the compan- the fathomies depairs of the inexhaustible

Captain, there's a man over-

'Overboard!' exclaimed the captain, starting to his feet, 'who is it?" 'Can't tell, sir,' was the reply, as the sailor left the cabin. 'Do you bear that?' said the captain to us, 'We have lost a man overboard.

'What is the matter?' cried Kate St. Clair, as she caught the sounds of our exclamations of horror.

'Only a man overboard,' replied the captain, bitterly.

A wild shriek from Kate was the only response, and throwing herself man the floor, she gave vent to her 'It is Charles,' she cried. 'I did not prize him as I ought, and now he is lost to me. Save him-save him!' and she would have rushed upon the deck, if we had not retrained her. 'It is not Charles Burns,' we said, int even as we spoke, our eves bent on Carrie De Vere. She was

'Kate, Kate, do not weep so,' said

we, it cannot be Charles.' 'It is,' she replied, 'yes, it is him, or else he would have come himself, to report the loss.'

'We will inquire,' we said, and ascending to the deck, we soon discovered who was the unfortunate man. So we again entered the cabin, they all gathered round to hear the recital.

Carrie was evidently uneasy; We were on our homeward voy- and as we told them it was poor

On our arrival, there was a reconcerning Edward Bates, and

But there was one in particular ing offered a home with the parents Kate St. Clair, was married to the handsome mate-and never regret-

It was therefore, with no common

AN ORGANIC DIFFICULTY of events between the two; and A parish in the west of England, mised to be his upon their reaching after much effort, lately purchased a self-acting organ warranted to play twenty tunes, and a larger congre-While Edward Bates was enjoy- gation than usual met to inaugurate stretching out both his hands to me, is a dark, a dreadful, a mysterious whole parish came in to give poor ing the unspeakable bliss of wo- it. The first psalm had been sue-Tom a joyous greeting and a cheer- man's fond devotion, there was also cossfully brought to an end, when to commence psalm tune number two. In vain the officiating person brushing of straps, and stitching of vessel, and nature had lavished her endeavored to stop it; in vain the and punching of holes; such smooth- For a short time his suit appeared to stifle its noise; still the organ, as its own execution kept on with the country horses, three abreast, in smiles were withdrawn, and cold- The service was suspended, in the commenced tune number three ! and bers of her heart, he would have instrument into the church vard, and discovered love and pride engaged there to cover it with the vestry carpet to choke its voice, for on and on in the city of Baltimore; and as it went till the number of twenty visions of splendor fitted before her had been played out, much to the those that might be expected if she of the congregation, who could hear the Azores, her coldness had so stung A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch tells the following in a let-

An amusing incident occurred in jobs worranted from three to six months, heard some one in the yard say- Yes, said he, more calmly than father's arm, while upon his own pleasant. The wind blew a per- the cars of the Virgin a and Tennessee road, which must be preserved · Would you know it again, Tom, the last moment, from a broken- coldness of Kate; and as he gazed in print. It is too good to be lostbearted grave. I wish you could upon the happy faces of Bates and As the train entered the Big Tunnel, · Sure y, any where in the world : have heard the shout that rent the his bethrothed, he turned away in near this place, in accordance with the usual custom a lamp was lighted A servant girl, accompanying her beight, and upon every countenance mistress, had sunk into a profound slumber, but just as the lamp was Carrie De Vere, as she met the I had let him run on all this time, Talk not of them now, I beseech Shall I say it? Yes, nor do I blush loving glances of Edward Bates, lighted she awoke, and half asleep, to own it, that it brought tears of felt secure in his presence. It was imagined herself in the infernal re-

Frantic with fright, she implored her Maker to have mercy on her, re-As evening closed in, Kate St. marking at the same time, "The

. Mollie, don't make such a noise; Night came upon us. It was it is I, be not afraid-" The poor dark, murkey, moonless, and star- African immediately exclaimed, " O to de bad place, I would see you

> Our best thoughts, the brightest and purest, the profoundest and truest, come unsought, welling up spontaneously from