

ARRIVAL OF THE CIRCASSIAN.

CONTINUATION OF WAR RUMOURS. ST. JOHN'S, NEWFB., April 26. The screw steamer Circassian, from Galway on the 18th, just arrived at this port at noon to-day. Her arrival is from Liverpool, by mail, to the evening of the 16th instant. The news continues threatening. Negotiations for Congress were progressing slowly. Austria positively refuses to take part therein, without previous simultaneous disarming. The latest complexion of affairs is warlike Paris letters regard peace as hopeless. The movement of the French troops had assumed most threatening proportions, and preparations otherwise continue. The Patrie nevertheless asserts that France has not armed. The propositions of Austria in regard to the Congress are said to be unacceptable to France, which is not prepared to take the field for a month or six weeks. Napoleon, consequently, seeks delay. The Paris Bourse was depressed, but closed rather firmer—three per cent. rates, 67 1/2.

GREAT BRITAIN. The Ministerial statement to the English Parliament on the affairs of Europe had been postponed till the 18th. Parliament had unanimously voted thanks to the civil and military officers and the army in India, for the suppression of the rebellion.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY ON THE HAMILTON AND PORT DUFFER RAILWAY. ONE MAN SHOT DEAD.

From the Hamilton Times. We regret to have to add the committal of another murder to the list of crimes of this nature which have been perpetrated in Canada of late. The melancholy event which we are about to relate took place on Sunday evening, about 9 o'clock, at a place called Chippawa Creek, on the Hamilton and Port Dover Railway. As the coroner has not yet returned from the inquisition, we are not in a position to give full particulars, but the following may be relied upon:—The deceased, Matth. W. Duigh, was employed, with many others, on the works of the Hamilton and Port Dover Railway. The contractor, Mr. White was present with a "hostage to fortune" on Saturday, and he determined to allow his men to enjoy themselves by way of celebrating his suspension. Accordingly, some twenty-five or thirty of the laborers, together with two of their foremen, assembled at the house of a man named Chas. Quinn, who, we believe, keeps a grocery and boarding-house, and there consumed a large quantity of bad whiskey. In the course of their orgies the two foremen named Brennan and McGillis, renewed an old quarrel which they had had a few days previous. The laborers present took sides with their respective overseers, and the deceased also rushed in with the intention, we suppose, of taking part in the melee. A few seconds afterwards two shots were fired from a pistol in the hands of one of the parties, the last shot taking effect in the heart of the unfortunate man Duigh, who expired in a few minutes after receiving the fatal wound. As soon as Mr. White heard of the sad occurrence, he promptly had some suspected parties placed under strict surveillance. Yesterday forenoon Coroner Bull and two police officers repaired to the place where the murder was committed, and empaneled a jury. As the scene of the tragedy is some twelve miles distant from this city, we have not as yet received the verdict of the jury. Deceased was a native of Ireland, about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife to lament his untimely end.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. Since the foregoing was in type Coroner Bull, Sergeant Ferris, and Officer Ford have returned to town, having in custody two men named Denis Brennan and — McGillis. Brennan was formerly a saloon-keeper in Hamilton, and he and his fellow prisoner appear to have been well acquainted in Hamilton, as they were visited in the Police office by a great many residents, who appeared to have been quendam associates. It is the belief of disinterested persons that neither Brennan nor McGillis are directly implicated, but their evidence, as is pretty well understood that they were close by when the shot was fired, may be important, and they will be detained in custody until more light be thrown upon the deed. It appears that a Mr. McAdams is the contractor, and that Mr. White is in charge of the works. Brennan and McGillis were the foremen of the two hostile gangs, and we may add that the "dance" comprised English, Irish, Scotch, and German laborers. The prisoners disavow all connection with the perpetration of the deed. During the fracas a man named James Townsend was stabbed with a case knife in the left side; he is under the medical charge of Dr. Betteune. The deceased, Duigh, received the fatal shot when inside the house, and with a bound he leaped out of doors and fell dead on the sward, a few yards from the shanty. The inquest will be resumed to-day. Officers are in pursuit of Lalor, and Coroner Bull seems determined to bring the guilty parties to condign punishment. Great excitement exists along the line of railway in consequence of this lamentable affair. The wife of the deceased sternly refuses to allow a post mortem examination to take place, although it was ordered by the Coroner. Mrs. Duigh held in her hand a knife, and defied the police to take the body out of her charge. Should she persist in her refusal to allow the Doctor to make an examination, she will be arrested this morning. The inquest will be resumed to-day, and from the number of witnesses to be examined it is likely to last some days.

SUPPOSED MURDER AT ST. HYACINTHE.

A man named Jean Bte. Beauregard, has been arrested and brought into Montreal, under the following circumstances:—At St. Hyacinthe, on Saturday, the 2nd of April, Beauregard was observed to go into a tavern with a man named Charon, and was heard to make the remark that the latter had plenty of money. About half past eight in the evening both were seen to go into a hotel and about half past nine they again visited a tavern. About eleven o'clock two policemen saw Beauregard give his arms to Charon, and both proceeded in the direction of the Upper Bridge. Charon seeming to be intoxicated the policeman asked Beauregard where he was about to conduct him, but the latter made no answer. Twenty minutes or half an hour afterwards the same two policemen saw Beauregard returning along through the market-place. They asked him what he had done with Charon, and he replied—"Charon is all right, don't trouble yourself, he is floating like a log on the water." About the same hour persons on both sides of the river heard cries of au meurtre, au meurtre. "Murder! I am being killed." Between four and half past six on Sunday morning Beauregard was seen promenading, gun in hand, on the Upper Bridge, looking constantly at the water. Being asked what he had done to Charon, he replied that he had not seen him after eight o'clock on the evening of his disappearance, notwithstanding that a great number of witnesses declared they had seen them together as late as eleven o'clock. These are the facts of the case so far as ascertained. Yesterday, after making inquiry, we found up till then no new light had been thrown on the matter.—Beauregard is confined in the District prison.—Montreal Herald.

THE BELLEVILLE MURDER.—VERDICT OF GUILTY.

BELLEVILLE, April 21.—The trial of Samuel Peter Rock for the murder of Robert D. Dickie in December last, came on this morning and continued until four p.m., when the jury retired and after a few minutes absence brought in a verdict of guilty. Jury Buss at once sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on the 13th day of June next. The prisoner showed the utmost unconcern throughout the trial, and also when the sentence was being pronounced. The doors of the Court room were kept locked, and a large crowd were assembled outside of the Court House all day.

THE BRANTFORD MURDER.

CONFESSION OF ONE OF THE MURDERERS. BRANTFORD, April 21. Armstrong, one of the parties arrested on suspicion of the murder of L. Adams, and robbing the mail, on Thursday night last, has just made a confession of the whole affair before the magistrates. He says over, one of the men arrested, shot Adams, and then the whole three of them rifled the bags, from which they realized about $150. They are all coloured men.—Globe.

THE STEAMER "RESCUE."

This well equipped and fast sailing steamer, which obtained so much popularity last season by the success which attended all her trips, will commence plying between Collingwood and Fort Williams on Tuesday, 3rd of May. She will leave Collingwood in the evening on the arrival of the cars from Toronto, calling at the intermediate ports, Bruce Mines and Sault Ste. Marie on the way up. This route will no doubt become a favourite one, and many persons will visit the Lake Superior region on business and pleasure this incoming season.—Globe.

YET ANOTHER SUPPOSED POISONING CASE.

On Friday last, Coroner Donnelly, at the urgent request of the friends of the deceased, a young man named Joseph Dumas, who died in this town a few days ago, held an inquest over his body, which was taken from the grave for that purpose. It was supposed by the friends of the young man, who had been ill some three weeks previous to his death, that possibly through mistake the physician in attendance had administered to him wrong medicine, thus producing sudden death. It was proved, however, that deceased died from congestion of the brain, and that nothing of the nature suspected had taken place. A verdict was rendered to this effect accordingly.—Chatham Planet.

To add in a single year to the fleet twenty-six large vessels, of which fifteen are line-of-battle ships, is an extraordinary exertion which England alone is capable of making, and which could not be executed by the dockyards of all the other powers of the old and new world, were they even to combine their efforts.—Journal des Debats.

On Monday afternoon last, an accident occurred on the Bay, which resulted in the death of a young man named Murphy. It appears that the deceased in company with three others went to have a sail, in an open sail-boat, and upon their return home were struck by a heavy squall, which upset the boat. The accident having been observed from the wharf, Mr. D. Pielan went immediately to the rescue, and succeeded in saving the three, but the fourth, becoming exhausted a minute or two before the boat could reach him, sank to rise no more. The names of those saved are Thomas and Henry Dalton, and—Gordon.—Globe.

PHONOGRAPHY, OR WRITING BY SOUND.

PHONOGRAPHY was invented by ISAAC THOMAS, of Bath, England, in the year 1832. It is the most simple, the most natural, most rapid, and most easily learned system of Writing which has ever been, or ever can be invented. During the past fifteen years, hundreds of thousands of persons, in England and America, in both public and private life, have learned to write Phono-graphy, and thousands of social, and business letters annually pass through the post office. Nor is its great popularity to be wondered at. The present system of writing is exceedingly cumbersome, and totally unworthy these days of progress and invention. Phono-graphy is equally as legible, can be learned in one-twentieth the time, and can be written six times as fast. In other words, the labor of six days can be performed in one—no man can do the work of six! So simple is the system, too, that a person may learn to write it slowly, in a couple of hours. An hour's daily practice for a few weeks will enable any person to write Phono-graphy with ease, and with some degree of freedom. The same amount of practice continued for six months will enable a person to take reports of speeches, lectures, sermons, or conversation, and to read them with accuracy. Dr. J. W. Stone, of Boston, says: "I deem Phono-graphy an invaluable adjunct to education, and one which, when acquired in youth, would not be parted with in manifold for thousands of dollars."
