ECUTION OF SHIELDS, GREEN AND COPELAND. EXECUTION OF

CHARLESTON, Va., Dec. 16. Shields, Green and John Copeland have just paid the forfeit of their lives. The crowd in the town is very great, and the execution was witnessed by 1,600 persons. At 9 o'clock the field was occupied. sons. At 9 o'clock the field was occupied by the troops and 7 injutes to 11 o'clock, the procession made its appearance, it arrived at the scaffold at 5 minutes past 11 o'clock. The prisoners were accompanied by the Sheriff and Jalior. They mounted the scaffold with a firm step, and after the caps had been placed over their heads by the Sheriff, and an appropriate prayer was made by the Rev. Mr. North, of the Preshyterian Church, they were launched into eternity. Before the rope was cut, Green was heard to offer up a fervent prayer, but Copeland was not heard to pray. Green's neck was broken and he died without a struggle. Copeland writted in violent convulsions for several minutes. They tell at 11 migutes afprayer was made by the Kev. Address R. GOODING,

BURGLARY.

On Monday night the store of W. P. Howland, Esq., M.P.F., stugted about seven miles from the city on the Dundas road, was entered by burgiars. The fact was not ascertained until five o'clock yesterday morning, when it was found that a quantity of dry goods had been removed from the store and carried to an unoccupied building on the opposite side of the road. It appeared also that the miscreants visited the house of a tenant of Mr. Howland's, about balf a mile distant, and took three building on the opposite side of the road.

It appeared also that the miscreants visited the house of a tenant of Mr. Howland's, about half a mile distant, and took three horses from the stable, two of which they attached to a sleigh and saddled the other. borses from the stable, two of which they attached to a sleigh and saddled the other. This was done probably for the purpose of conveying the goods they lind taken from the store. While they were harnessing the animals, however, they were alarmed by some noise and decamped with the saddle-horse, which was vester-lay recovered on the Weston plank road. The property taken from the premises of Mr. Howland was found where the burglars had deposited it. It is not known whether any other goods were stall as a proper to the property of the property taken from the premises of Mr. Howland Burnoumb, Doctor Schmidt and Weston plank road. The property demends, Joed Elliott, Miss Frances Foggin, John Foggi ted it. It is not known whether any other goods were stoles. The scamps have not yet been arrested.
