Mr. Perry's Canvass.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT BROWN'S CORNERS.

On Thursday evening, the 20th inst., Mr. Perry held a meeting in the Orange Hall of the above place.

The large hall was well crowded, and on Mr. Perry's entering three hearty cheers were given him. The meeting was organized by appointing Mr. John Hunter as chairman, Mr. H. Edwards acting as secretary.

Mr. Perry spoke for about an hour and a-half, and discussed the various points of his platform in a forcible and able manner. He was loudly applauded several times during his eloquent speech. At the conclusion, the chairman invited any person to ask Mr. Perry any question they choose. On no one rising, the chairman, in a happy and forcible speech, pointed out the evils which would inevitably follow a Dissolution of the Union, and expressed himself entirely satisfied with Mr. Perry's principles.

It was then moved by Mr. J. Monkman, seconded by Mr. J. Bowman, "That this meeting approves of the principles enunciated by Mr. Perry; and we pledge ourselves to give him our cordial support."—Carried unanimously.

Three times three cheers were then given to Mr. Perry; a vote of thanks was passed to the chairman, and this thoroughly enthusiastic meeting broke up.

MR. REESOR IN SCARBORO'. On Friday evening Mr. Reesor held a meeting in Snider's School-house, Scarboro'. There were between 70 and 80 persons present, and as it was not known that Mr. Perry would be present, very few of his warm supporters were there. Mr. Perry was, however, there.—The meeting organized by appointing Mr. Henry Miller as chairman, and Mr. Fitzpatrick as secretary.

Mr. Reesor addressed the meeting for nearly two hours, during which time many slept soundly, as he was exceedingly dry and uninteresting; for it was quite evident to every one that he did not understand what he was talking about, and therefore could not enlighten his audience.

The first part of his speech was an elaboration of the manner in which the Clergy Reserve money had been applied; the rest of his speech was a mere rehearsal of the Toronto Convention address. During his entire speech there was not a solitary cheer given to the speaker; indeed the entire speech was as tedious and dry as can well be imagined, the great effect of which was to send the audience to sleep, or else make them wonder at the judgment of that party that could not pick out an able exponent of their views. At the conclusion of his address, the chairman called upon Mr. Perry to come forward and address the meeting.

Mr. Perry commenced by giving a brief but able summary of his views on the great political questions of the day, more particularly on the question of the Union of the Provinces. He then reviewed Mr. Reesor's positions one by one, and proved them untenable. He also convicted him of gross ignorance of the public accounts, and administered to him a very severe but well merited castigation for reiterating the same stale falsehoods that he did at the commencement of his canvass, without condescending to give any rejoinder to the replies which he (Mr. Perry) had given.—He also proved, from extracts from the Economist, that Mr. Reesor had, held during the last twelve months, very different opinions to what he then expressed. Mr. Perry was loudly cheered during his able address.

Mr. Reesor replied by abusing Mr. Marsh and Mr. Bowman for their treatment of him relative to the "Council Job." He was, however, called to order by Mr. G. Feely and Mr. Edwards, who denied in toto the truthfulness of the pretended explanations. Mr. Gibson stated that he should like to see the affair cleared up. The meeting, however, wished the matter to drop.—Mr. Reesor was, however, determined it should not. In the course of his remarks on this question, he states that Mr. Marsh owed his election to the fact that he (Marsh) promised to support Mr. Reesor as Reeve. Mr. Edwards said that it was entirely false. Mr. Reesor said that he (Marsh) would have lost 50 voters if he had not promised to vote for him (Reesor) as Reeve. Mr. Feely and Mr. Edwards again utterly denied that such was the case. Mr. Reesor also states that the charge brought against him was so disreputable that no respectable lawyer would take the case up. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Feely.—That's false, as a very respectable lawyer has been engaged. Mr. Edwards then stated that as neither Mr. Marsh nor Mr. Bowman were present to defend themselves, and as the meeting was in Scarboro', it was not right of Mr. Reesor to meddle with the subject, besides he had held a meeting at Victoria Square a few days previously—at which meeting Mr. Marsh was present—and yet he did not mention the subject, therefore he had no right whatever to do it now. The audience here became exceedingly impatient, and the subject was dropped. And after a few other irrelevant remarks, Mr. Reesor concluded. A vote of confidence in Mr. Reesor was then put, and the chairman decided that there were 29 hands held up in favor of it. This was, however, four too many. On the contrary being put, there were 23 hands held up. Thus even at his own meeting in Scarboro' Mr. Reesor had only a majority of two over his opponent.

MR. PERRY AT CALIFORNIA CORNERS.

On Saturday evening Mr. Perry held a meeting in the above place. There was a very crowded audience. The meeting was organized by appointing Mr. Linton Miller as chairman, and W. Button, Esq., as secretary. Mr. Perry addressed the electors in his usual eloquent and forcible manner, showing the fallacy of Mr. Reesor's remedies for the evils under which we labored, and pointing out that the only just remedy was Representation by Population, which if Upper Canada was only true to herself, we should soon obtain. He was warmly applauded during the address; after which several questions were put by Mr. J. Boyd, Mr. Ira Crosby, Mr. J. Ireson, and Mr. G. Harrison, to all of which satisfactory answers were given by Mr. Perry. The meeting was very orderly throughout, the greatest good feeling prevailing amongst all; and so gentlemanly and satisfactory were the replies of Mr. Perry to the various questions propounded to him, that on a vote of confidence being taken, those who had come with a determination to outvote Mr. Perry's friends, (as this is Mr. Reesor's strongest place in Markham) sat still and would not rise with the nays. The resolution of confidence on the motion of Mr. Burke, seconded by Mr. W. Button, was carried. A vote of thanks was given to the chairman, and the meeting broke up evidently well pleased with Mr. Perry; although at a meeting two nights previous Dr. Friel had abused that gentleman in the most indecent and blackguard manner.

Bayard Taylor, in a farewell letter to the New York Mercury, thus sums up his labors for the past sixteen months:—"Two hundred and fifty lectures, thirty thousand miles travel, forty-eight lectures; articles two books published and one hour lost."

THE "ECONOMIST" AND MR. EDWARDS.

Again this model and courteous Editor attacks Mr. Edwards with the greatest abuse—well, so be it, it's a game Mr. Reesor will find to his cost, two can play at; as this is not the first time Mr. Reesor has abused his betters. At Scarboro' he grossly abused Mr. Marsh and Mr. Bowman, although, when he held meetings in the respective wards, that these gentlemen represent, and at which they were present, he was as quiet and demure on the "Council Job" as you please. But Mr. Edwards could not be heard, indeed. And pray, Mr. Reesor, who were the parties who prevented it? Why rowdies and boys, set on by one or two mean souled minions belonging to Mr. Reesor's party; for it is well known that the most respectable men of both parties, were indignant at the vile conduct exhibited. Mr. Edwards, moreover, assures Mr. Reesor, that he never yet tried to earn the respect of our-room rowdies and idle boys, and as Mr. Reesor defends such conduct through his paper, he is quite welcome to all the respect and influence that such characters can bring him, for Mr. Edwards is proud of being esteemed by those respectable men of both parties who endeavored to gain him and others of Mr. Perry's friends a hearing, but who were prevented by Mr. Reesor's warm friends, rowdies and boys. But not content with abusing Mr. Edwards, the York Herald is also called hard names by this "pink" of politeness (?) But the very idea of the Editor of a paper abusing us who for years opened his columns to the long slang of an unprincipled drunken butcher, and inserted the libellous and abusive report of the Richmond Hill meeting, from G. P. Dickson and A. Law, and also continually copies the vilest editorials against Mr. Perry, from the Whitty Watchman. But again we beg to assure Mr. Reesor that at Victoria Square we have a large circulation which is continually increasing, whilst his own paper is decreasing, this is a sure criterion as to which is held in the most esteem, we, in the past year, have increased in that as well as other localities, and we now number more subscribers there than he does, so much for his abuse of us. In conclusion, Mr. Edwards begs to state to Mr. Reesor, that he (Edwards) does not depend for a character upon the defender of drunken rowdies, and that the York Herald can afford to treat with contempt, his abuse, and will, in spite thereof, continue to expose all his unprincipled tricks, scolding his favors and not caring a fig for his frowns.

The "Economist's" Reports of Meetings.

The Economist of the 27th inst. has reports of four meetings held by Mr. Reesor during the past ten days, which we are prepared to prove are thoroughly untruthful. The first report is from Mr. Allen of Victoria Square, who states there were nearly 200 persons present. To make the number that gentleman would have to count double; but as he was observed to be excited that evening, he possibly saw double. We are certain that 100 was the outside, rowdies, boys and all; and we challenge him or any other person to give the names of 50 voters present. As to the show of hands being six to one, the man is a lunatic; for so great was the confusion at the time the resolution was read, that not 25 persons could hear a word that was uttered; and still more, out of the 50 voters we can name more than half who will not support Mr. Reesor. Of course the remarks of our double eyed friend Allen as to logic, will be taken at what they are worth, which is nil. The Thornhill meeting may do very well as a fling at Mr. Edwards, but as a report it is all moonshine; for although he abused that gentleman at Thornhill, he was very glad to parade him as a model of truthfulness at Scarboro', when by his evidence he thought he had gained a point against Messrs. Marsh and Bowman. "Mr. Reesor at California" is not so bad considering—what a humbug the Doctor is who wrote it. The people therefore, will know how to value it, as that same Doctor, we are informed, abused Mr. Perry in the most blackguard style.

The report of Mr. Reesor's meeting in Clarke's School house, Scarboro', is entirely false, as there were only four persons present from Brown's Corners. It is true the meeting was kept up till nearly two o'clock A.M., but it was kept so long on account of Mr. Reesor's wasting more than an hour in cowardly abusing Messrs. Marsh and Bowman in a township that did not want to hear anything about the affair. But this was one of his dodges to escape the effect of the severe and well merited castigation he received from Mr. Perry; but we venture to say that Mr. Reesor will yet be called to account for his dastardly conduct on this occasion. The only expressions of contempt we heard at this meeting, were uttered by those few who kept awake during his long-winded address, and they were that he should have worked his jaws so long and his brains so little.—As to the majority, the chairman himself, paritizan as he was, counted only 29 for Mr. Reesor, there being at the time about 70 persons present.

The next report is headed "Mr. Perry at California." To show its total correctness we will simply refer to the remarks on the various questions asked and answered. Mr. J. Boyd was the first questioner, and he expressed himself at the meeting and afterwards to us, as perfectly satisfied with the straightforward and gentlemanly manner in which Mr. Perry had replied; and as we know Mr. Boyd to be a gentleman of honor, we will refer any one to him. Our only regret is that want of space prevents us from reporting the question and its answer. The next question asked was the only stupid question put, and that was by a school teacher, which the audience properly bisseled, but which was nevertheless replied to, much to the chagrin of the stupid questioner. Mr. J. Ireson was the next questioner; and if any one doubts whether he was satisfied with the answer, by asking him they will soon ascertain that he was, and well satisfied too. Mr. J. Harrison, of Pickering, also asked Mr. Perry a question relative to the late proposed Whitty Railway, which Mr. Perry stated was the first time that question had been asked him, although in his town through Pickering he had expected it would have been asked. Mr. Perry then answered it to Mr. Harrison's entire satisfaction. W. Bu-ton, Esq., Deputy Reeve of Markham, also questioned Mr. Perry; and we utterly deny that there was any hurry in proposing a vote, as the Chairman gave every chance for any one to speak, and it was not till some minutes had elapsed that the motion was put; neither did Mr. Perry ever use the remarks attributed to him, relative to teachers, what he did say was that as a rate teachers were not qualified to do the duties of a Registrar, and that there needed a responsible man. And if teachers were as ill crabbled and as untruthful, as is "Teachers Friend," or as stupid as the identical teacher of that meeting, which they are not (but quite the reverse,) we think Mr. Perry would not have been far astray if he had uttered the remarks imputed to him, we may as well state that the teacher at that meeting, and the teacher's friend of the Economist is the same persons. So much, however, for the Economist's report of the four meetings lately held in Markham.

The "Economist's" "Shabby Trick."

The following appeared in the Economist of the 13th inst.:

"A SHABBY TRICK.—Some of Mr. Perry's friends, it is said, have been circulating the report through Vaughan, that Mr. Gamble offered to secure Mr. Perry's return, if he (Perry) would manage to pass the Registry Office into Mr. Gamble's hands. But Mr. Perry, doubting the value of Mr. Gamble's support preferred holding on to the Registry Office. We do not believe, however, that Mr. Gamble would be a party to such an arrangement. The whole story is got up, in our opinion, to injure Mr. Gamble."

We give the lie direct to the above, and further state that no friend of Mr. Perry's ever circulated such a report. It was made out of whole cloth by Mr. Reesor, or some of his calumny circulating minions; but although there is no truth in the above, we would ask Mr. Reesor whether there is any truth in the report that he is going to burke either Mr. Perry or Mr. Gamble.

CRICKET MATCH.

The return match between the Richmond Hill and Aurora Cricket Clubs came off at Aurora, on Thursday the 13th inst., the day being all that cricketers could wish for, and everything passed off agreeable to both clubs; the best of good feeling and harmony prevailed throughout the day; and although the Aurora Cricketers were again victorious, the others showed great improvement in their play since the last match; and when it is taken into consideration that the Aurora Cricketers being an old established club, claiming victory wherever they have played for the last three or four years, and also having taken three better players to play the "return match," while on the other hand, this being the first year of existence for the Richmond Hill Cricketers, and having to contend the game with the loss of some of their best players, they do not feel in the least daunted by their defeat, but are confident that if they had contested the game with the same eleven that played at Richmond Hill, they would have been the conquerors. As it was, the Aurora Cricketers may thank Mr. Boulton, of Newmarket, for the result of the second innings—so much in their favor, as may be seen by the score:

Mr. Perry then answered it to Mr. Harrison's entire satisfaction. W. Bu-ton, Esq., Deputy Reeve of Markham, also questioned Mr. Perry; and we utterly deny that there was any hurry in proposing a vote, as the Chairman gave every chance for any one to speak, and it was not till some minutes had elapsed that the motion was put; neither did Mr. Perry ever use the remarks attributed to him, relative to teachers, what he did say was that as a rate teachers were not qualified to do the duties of a Registrar, and that there needed a responsible man. And if teachers were as ill crabbled and as untruthful, as is "Teachers Friend," or as stupid as the identical teacher of that meeting, which they are not (but quite the reverse,) we think Mr. Perry would not have been far astray if he had uttered the remarks imputed to him, we may as well state that the teacher at that meeting, and the teacher's friend of the Economist is the same persons. So much, however, for the Economist's report of the four meetings lately held in Markham.

The "Economist's" "Shabby Trick."

The following appeared in the Economist of the 13th inst.:

"A SHABBY TRICK.—Some of Mr. Perry's friends, it is said, have been circulating the report through Vaughan, that Mr. Gamble offered to secure Mr. Perry's return, if he (Perry) would manage to pass the Registry Office into Mr. Gamble's hands. But Mr. Perry, doubting the value of Mr. Gamble's support preferred holding on to the Registry Office. We do not believe, however, that Mr. Gamble would be a party to such an arrangement. The whole story is got up, in our opinion, to injure Mr. Gamble."

We give the lie direct to the above, and further state that no friend of Mr. Perry's ever circulated such a report. It was made out of whole cloth by Mr. Reesor, or some of his calumny circulating minions; but although there is no truth in the above, we would ask Mr. Reesor whether there is any truth in the report that he is going to burke either Mr. Perry or Mr. Gamble.

The return match between the Richmond Hill and Aurora Cricket Clubs came off at Aurora, on Thursday the 13th inst., the day being all that cricketers could wish for, and everything passed off agreeable to both clubs; the best of good feeling and harmony prevailed throughout the day; and although the Aurora Cricketers were again victorious, the others showed great improvement in their play since the last match; and when it is taken into consideration that the Aurora Cricketers being an old established club, claiming victory wherever they have played for the last three or four years, and also having taken three better players to play the "return match," while on the other hand, this being the first year of existence for the Richmond Hill Cricketers, and having to contend the game with the loss of some of their best players, they do not feel in the least daunted by their defeat, but are confident that if they had contested the game with the same eleven that played at Richmond Hill, they would have been the conquerors. As it was, the Aurora Cricketers may thank Mr. Boulton, of Newmarket, for the result of the second innings—so much in their favor, as may be seen by the score:
