BRUTAL MURDER .- A shocking mur-HMUTAL MUDDER—A shocking murder, most brutal and recoving in its details, was committed yesterday in this city. The murderer, Leremiah Dempsey by name, is a poor drunken creature, well known to the habitues of the Police Court, known to the lutotizes of the Police Court, from this Prequent appearances there, and his victim was his wife, also a person of intemperate habits. As a natural result of their habits, quarrels were of frequent co-currence between the wretched pair, and the weaker of the two was the subject of severe beatings and generally ill usage.— Hamilton Spectator of Wednesday.

THE LIFE OF

Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ BY REV. JOHN FLEETWOOD, D.D.;

BY REV. JOSEPH BELCHER; D.D. BY REV. JOSETH BELCHER; D.D.

THE LIFÉ OF JESUS CHRIST is the philosophy of tree religion. It exhibits the philosophy of tree religion. It exhibits the Principles of Christianity in their purity and beauty. It is perfect excellence personified, that the mind of man may grasp it, and be changed into the same image. The inspired witers have given it to us in detached descriptions. Dr. Flectwood has arranged these in one harmonicolar whody, with soch continuous to render it allies acceptable to the scholar, as to fifm who knows no more, but knowshis bilde true. Beloler's revised edition, centains the Lives of the Apectles, History of the Jews, and an Essay on the Eviconces of die Bilde It is printed in a clear and open typ, in one royal octave volume handsomely illustrated, and will be furnished in the following styles:—
