resouncing a right which equally appertun-ed to the sovereigns, even constitutional ones, who have preceded me, may I do a useful thing towards insuring the right ad-ministration of the finances! Faithful to my origin, I neither regard my prerogative as a sacred deposit, which cannot be touch ed, nor, as a heritage from my ancestors which must be transmitted intact to my son. Elected by my people and representing their interest I shall always abandon with out regret every prerogative for the good of the public, and I shall likewise preserve unshaken in my hands all power which is indispensable to the tranquility any prosperity of the country."

The Moniteur then publishes the letter from the Emperor to M. Fould, approxing of his programme, and charging him with carrying out the sam. The Moniteur also publishes M. Fould's programme, which demonstrates the necessity for the suppression of extraordinary credits and examines the financial situation. It shows that recourse has been laid to credit under all its forms, and calculates that the deficit has reached one thousand million france, and concludes by showing that the abandon ment by the Emperor of his prerogatives LATEST.—REUTED?

DATEST.—REUTER'S DESPATCH.—LONDON, 15TH.—The Calcutta Englishman censures the Manchester manufacman censures the Manchester manufacturers for doing nothing to further extend the growth of cotton in India, and proves that one pound of cotton costs the grower four pence halt-penny, exclusive of any profit whatever either to the cultivator or shipper.

New lands taken under cultivation would take great additional expenses, therefore there is little prospect of manufacturers being induced to enter largely into the cultivation of cotton.

THE LIFE OF

Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ BY REV. JOHN FLEETWOOD, D.D.,

BY REV. JOSEPH BELCHER, D.D. BY REV. JOSEPH BELCHER, D.D.

THE LIFE OF JESUS CHRIST is the philosophy of true religion. It exhibits the Principles of Christianity in their parity and it beauty. It is perfect excellence personified; that the mind of man may group it, and be changed into the same image. The inspired writers have given it to us in databade descriptions. Dr. Fleetwood has arounged these in one harmonious whole, with such tomments, explanations and incidental information as to render it alike acceptable to the scholar, as to frim who knaws no more, but knowshis Bible true. Beloier's revised edition contains the Lives of the Apostles. History of the Jews, and an Essay on the Evidences of the Bible It is minted in a clear, and open they, in cone royal cirave volume.
