ACCIDENT AT YORK MILLS.—On the afternoon of Thursday, Mr. R. Starks, farmer, King, met with a serious accident near York Mills by being thrown from his waggon. He was driving at a rapid rate down the hill near the village, and frightened a span of bosses attached to a lumfler waggon belonging to Mr. Juhn Walsh, Markham. While running at a forious both teams attempted to pass the toll at the same moment, the waggons came into contact, and Mr. Starks was thrown violently on the ground, and rethrown violently on the ground, and received serere injuries about the head and right thigh. Medical aid was soon procured; but at last accounts the wounded man was lying in a dangerous condition at York Mills.

RESURRECTIONISTS AT THORNHILL. RESURRECTIONISTS AT THORNHILL—A few days ago four or five young menvisited the clurchyard of the Episcopalian Church at Thirabill, and took from the grave the body of a man named Hutton, who was killed lately by falling through a hay loft. They appear to have dragged the body across the churchyard and over to the fence, as indicated by a trail of blood and to have but it into one of two hurs. and to have put it into one of two bug-gies in waiting. The body snatchers' left the grave only half filled, so that the theft was soon discovered. Our informant thinks they will be tracked, and more than hints that several parties in Toronto will be called to answer for the deed .- Globe
