1862. Prospectus OF THE SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, A FIRST-CLASS FAMILY NEWSPAPER, DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF SCOTSMEN IN AMERICA, AND TO THE DISSEMINATION OF SCOTTISH LITERATURE AND NEWS. FIFTH YEAR. On January 2, 1862, will be commenced a new volume (V) of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL; and in future the numbers issued between the first and last days of each year will constitute a complete volume, of convenient size for binding, and each number will contain a most entertaining and instructive repository of reading matter, calculated to interest all readers of British origin. The SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, though decidedly international in its character, is devoted to the promotion of the interests of the people of Great Britain and America, as yet emphatically Scottish in its copious records of all events occurring in Scotland that can be regarded of the least interest to natives of that country residing in America; and to this "news from home" is added, weekly, a summary of general intelligence from England, Ireland, and other parts of the world. A distinguishing feature of the "Scottish American Journal" is its regular publication—"Reprints of the leading articles" of the principal British newspapers and other periodicals upon the most important topics of the day. This feature is a unique one, and has been found very acceptable to the people of British North America, as it supplies a long-needed desideratum in the Province. The SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, it is a significant fact that the British press frequently acknowledges their intrinsic truth and force by copiously extracting from our columns and declaring that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is the most able and interesting paper published in America. A concise weekly summary is also given of the principal news of American news, and a similar narrative of events transpiring in the various British Provinces, the latter feature supplying a deficiency which was felt in several of the Provinces in other parts of the British possessions. In the forthcoming volume of the "Scottish American Journal" increased space will be devoted to the literary department in the publication of SERIAL TALES AND SKETCHES, vividly illustrating the customs, habits, sentiments and general characteristics of the people of Scotland; each tale emanating from the pen of an author of celebrity. As heretofore, particular care will be exercised in the choice of ORIGINAL POETRY, composed by writers of acknowledged genius and purity of thought, resident here or abroad. Subscribers in the Province may remit their subscription Provincial money. Odd change in Provincial Post Office stamps. Copies forwarded to Europe per mail, United States, postage paid, for $3, or 13s. sterling, per annum. Subscriptions for the current year are now being received, and should be forwarded without delay to A. M. STEWART, No. 37 Park Row, New York. New York, Jan. 1, 1862. 158

Blackwood's Magazine AND THE BRITISH REVIEWS! SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz.— 1. THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative) 2. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig) 3. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church) 4. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal) 5. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, (Tory)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications universally interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the two written news-stories, rapid speculation, and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tomes of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Periodicals, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions. Canadian mail Subscribers supplied free of United States postage. The price of Great Britain of the five Periodicals above named is $31 per annum. Remittances for any of the above publications should always be addressed, post-paid, to the Publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., No. 54 Gold street, New York. New York, Dec. 5, 1861.
