JCHMOND HILL; MAY 9. 1862, OUR SCHOOL LAW-A MUCH NEEDED AMENDMENT.

WHILE the subject of Separate Schoots is under consideration, we would take the opportunity of directing attention to a clause in the present school act, which demands due consideration at the hands of the Legislature. We refer to the great and manifest injustice under which a large proportion of the teachers engaged in our public schools are obliged to labor, owing to the unnecessary and vexations legal restrictions imposed upon them. We do not propose to plead the cause of any particular class, any farther than the interests of that class, and those of the public are identical. But the future of Canada depends to such a large extent up, n pro, er and judicious training of its youth, that all true patriots must desire to see every hin trance to the progress of popular education re-moved with as little delay as possible. Mere individual preferences must give place to the interests of the community; and no monopoly shou'd be encouraged or permitted. by which the country at large is nade to suffer. However complete the superstructure of our system of education may be, and mowever liberally the public funts may be appropriated for its support.
