A NEW STORY IN THE Scottish American Journal.

A FIRST-CLASS INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER. ON May 9, 1862, was commenced a new story in the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, entitled: DELLBURN HOUSE. A Tale of the Scottish Rebellion of 1745. BY THE AUTHOR OF 'Chapters from the Life of Jas. Tackler.'

This tale will prove to be one of the most interesting ever published, and cannot fail to be appreciated by all classes of readers. The SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is a paper peculiarly adapted to meet the requirements of the British people and their families from all parts of the old country resident on the American continent. It is, in fact, a family paper in the highest and best sense of the term. Its Home and Foreign News is simply given and carefully prepared, from a wide range of British and foreign sources, and omits no fact or feature calculated to interest its readers, whether ladies or gentlemen: so that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL contains (presented in a concise and readable form) all the latest, personal, and political intelligence which could be so fully scattered over a vast number of Scotch, English, Irish, and Continental newspapers. Another most important feature of this journal is, that it gives the leading articles of the prominent British newspapers and other periodicals upon the principal topics of the day. In reference to the 'editorials' of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, it is a significant fact that the British press frequently acknowledges their intrinsic truth and force by copiously extracting from its columns, and declaring that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is the most able and interesting paper published in America. A well-digested weekly summary is also given of the principal items of American news.
