Relief to the Afflicted!

H.W. Peck's Eye Water

Is an infallible remedy for Inflamed Eyes and Chlirblains

We, the undersigned, do certify that we have used H. W. PECK'S EYE WATER, and find it to be a certain cure for Inflamed Eyes and Chlirblains, and therefore would recommend it to the public.

Robert Raymond, Robert Hepper, James Bailey, G. J. Boynton, Mrs. M. J. Raymond, W. S. Pollock, Mum J. Hincus, W. H. Foley, A. L. Skeels, L. Richardson, Robert Hewson, Martin Neelson, John Coulter, Timothy Fagarty, D. Bridgford, J.P., W. P. Richmond, Miller Anderson

Richmond Hill, July 14, 1862.

My son suffered for nearly four months from inflammation in one of his eyes; during which time I procured the best medical aid within my reach, to no purpose. The inflammation continued; the boy suffered, and I began to entertain serious apprehension that he would lose his sight. I accidentally heard of effectual cures having been made by Mr. H. W. Peck's Eye Water, and procured two vials of it from him—the application of which has effected a CURE. My son's eyes are now well. I have much pleasure in certifying to the above facts, and recommending the use of Mr. Peck's Eye Water to all persons afflicted with Inflamed Eyes.

JOHN HISLOP.

Richmond Hill, July 15, 1862.

In the month of February last, I had a severe attack of inflammation in my right eye, and suffered very much. I tried several remedies, and obtained medical advice, but my eye continued getting worse. I was recommended to call on Mr. H. W. Peck, who gave me a vial of his Eye Water; in three days I felt relief, and in about five days was able to use my eye. It is now well, and I have much pleasure in stating that I believe it is Mr. Peck's remedy that cured my eye. I have also recommended the use of it to others, and know that the result has been attended with complete success. DAVIDS.

A NEW STORY

IN THE

Scottish American Journal:

A FIRST-CLASS INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER.

ON May 9, 1862, was commenced a new story in the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, entitled:

DELLBURN HOUSE.

A Tale of the Scottish Rebellion of 1745. BY THE AUTHOR OF 'Chapters from the Life of Jas. Tacket.'

This tale will prove to be one of the most interesting ever published, and cannot fail to be appreciated by all classes of readers.

The SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is a paper peculiarly adapted to meet the requirements of the British people and their families from all parts of the old country resident in the American continent. It is, in fact, a family paper in the highest and best sense of the term. Its Home and Foreign News is simply given and carefully prepared, from a wide range of British and foreign sources, and omits no fact or feature calculated to interest its readers, whether ladies or gentlemen: so that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL contains (presented in a concise and readable form) all the local, personal, and political intelligence which could be easily found scattered over a vast number of Scotch, English, Irish, and Continental newspapers. Another most important feature of the Journal is, that it gives the leading articles of the prominent British newspapers and other periodicals upon the principal topics of the day. In reference to the "editorials" of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, it is a significant fact that the British press frequently acknowledges their intrinsic truth and force by copiously extracting from its columns, and declaring that the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL is the most able and interesting paper published in America. A well-digested weekly summary is also given of the principal items of American news.

Subscription Price, $2.50 PER ANNUM. Specimen Copies sent gratis. Subscribers in the Province may remit their subscription in Provincial money; odd change in Provincial Post Office stamps. Copies forwarded to Europe per mail. United States postage paid for $3. or 13s. sterling per annum. Subscriptions for the current year now being received, and should be forwarded without delay to A. M. STEWART, 37 Park Row, New York.
