

gent and the wealthy should be educated by means of public funds...

But although pretending to advocate the cause of the poor, 'A' proves himself to be at heart, one of their greatest enemies. He proposes to abolish our present public schools and establish poor, or pauper schools in their place...

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

The following proclamation issued by the War Department of the U. States will be read with interest.

AN ORDER TO PREVENT THE EVASION OF MILITARY DUTY AND FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF DISLOYAL PRACTICES. WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington City, D. C., Aug. 8, 1862.

First—By direction of the President of the United States it is hereby ordered that until further orders no citizen liable to be drafted into the militia shall be allowed to go into a foreign country...

Second—Any person liable to draft, who shall absent himself from his country or State before such draft is made, will be arrested by any Provost-Marshal or other United States or State officer...

Previously to that there had been a rather desultory cannonade.

The whole rebel force suddenly attacked in overwhelming numbers at all points. Nearly all their regiments had full ranks. At 7.30 o'clock Gen. Pope arrived on the field from Culpepper...

The night was unusually clear and the moon full. The rebels planted a battery against McDowell's centre, where Gen. Pope and General Banks were bringing both of them under fire.

Gen. Pope, on arriving, sent fresh troops to the front to take the place of Gen. Banks' exhausted columns.

Gen. Banks was rather severely hurt by an accident. A cavalry trooper ran against him and he was struck heavily on the side.

Col. Morgan, of Gen. Pope's staff and Major Perkins, of Gen. Banks' staff, both received bullets through their hats.

Col. Ruggles, chief of staff to Gen. Pope, had his horse shot under him. Two of Gen. Pope's body guards were killed.

Col. Morgan, of Gen. Pope's staff and Major Perkins, of Gen. Banks' staff, both received bullets through their hats.

The reinforcements which were sent from here last night to assist our troops at Independence have returned. There is great excitement and everybody is preparing for the conflict.

where he found a force of the enemy on the South side, but none north of the river.

A telegraph dispatch dated to day states that all was quiet last night and this morning.

THE DRAFT EXCITEMENT IN NEW YORK.

(From the New York Sun August 11.) To commence the history of the drafting excitement it is proper to state that at an early hour on Saturday morning...

No person must be allowed to go on any vessel bound to a foreign country at the time of sailing, except the officers and crew proper of the vessel, and the owners and agents of the said vessel.

Supplemental to the above was the following:—Adolescents and children to go out as passengers without passports today, but not to go on board as visitors.

The excitement commenced on Friday afternoon and evidently arose from a total misunderstanding of Secretary Stanton's order.

Men, pale and trembling, sweating and swearing, rushing to and fro, gesticulating and floundering their arms, uttering imprecations, laughing, speculating, expostulating, cursing and crying, threats and expostulation—such a time has not been here in many a year.

I'd like to catch 'em at'—bawled one fellow at the corner of Dev and Greenwich streets—a stout red-faced man with a plethoric nose, and half lost within the folds of a tremendous duster.

At the Savannah pier, which is a fine, extensive wharf, a great number of men were seen to be in a state of great excitement.

Several sailing vessels, which had obtained clearance papers, were stopped in the bay on Friday and Saturday. Every vessel was held by the Police until it was ascertained that the passengers on board had no clearance papers.

The Consul's office in this city was visited on Saturday and yesterday by persons wishing to leave the country or desirous of protection from the draft.

The fact furnishes a conclusive argument in favor of what we have previously stated in reference to his fitness to discharge the functions of a legislator.

But he was able, twelve years ago, to foretell the present civil convulsion in the neighboring republic, the fact furnishes a conclusive argument in favor of what we have previously stated in reference to his fitness to discharge the functions of a legislator.

Northern Railway of Canada.

Table with columns: Leave Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, etc. and Arrival times for various routes.

Richmond Hill Post-office Mail Arrangements.

Mails to and from Richmond, Railway Station, Toronto, Colingwood, Barrie, Markham, etc.

The York Herald.

RICHMOND HILL, AUG. 15, 1862. MR. GAMBLE'S DETRACTORS.

It is quite amusing to notice the extraordinary amount of ingenuity exercised by the supporters of Mr. McMaster, in order to injure his opponent.

It is quite amusing to notice the extraordinary amount of ingenuity exercised by the supporters of Mr. McMaster, in order to injure his opponent.

It is quite amusing to notice the extraordinary amount of ingenuity exercised by the supporters of Mr. McMaster, in order to injure his opponent.

It is quite amusing to notice the extraordinary amount of ingenuity exercised by the supporters of Mr. McMaster, in order to injure his opponent.

Death of Sir Allan Macnab.

SIR ALLAN MACNAB, Bart., died yesterday, of gastric fever, at Hamilton, in the 65th year of his age. He was born at Niagara in 1798, and was of Scottish extraction.

He took an active part in the war of 1812. In 1825 he was elected to Parliament in 1829, for the county of Wentworth, and after serving in three parliaments was returned for the city of Hamilton.

In 1854, he became Premier, and during his administration the Clergy Reserves question was settled. He was knighted in 1848, and created a Baronet on his retirement from the office of Premier, in 1856.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House. Sir Allan married, first, on the 6th of May, 1821, Elizabeth, daughter of Lt. Daniel Brooke, by whom he had one son and one daughter; secondly Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. Sheriff Stuart.

He had two daughters, the eldest of whom married, in November, 1855, Lord Bury, and the youngest a son of Mr. Dominick Daly.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

Death of Sir Allan Macnab.

SIR ALLAN MACNAB, Bart., died yesterday, of gastric fever, at Hamilton, in the 65th year of his age. He was born at Niagara in 1798, and was of Scottish extraction.

He took an active part in the war of 1812. In 1825 he was elected to Parliament in 1829, for the county of Wentworth, and after serving in three parliaments was returned for the city of Hamilton.

In 1854, he became Premier, and during his administration the Clergy Reserves question was settled. He was knighted in 1848, and created a Baronet on his retirement from the office of Premier, in 1856.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

He was elected for the Western Division to the Legislative Council. Last Session he was elected Speaker of the Upper House.

THE NEW SOUTHERN RAM.

Seriously, we are in danger. The Southerners have completed their ram. It has been manned and armed, and is now ready for sea.

The new Southern vessel has been constructed from the British steamer 'Fingal,' which, you will recollect, ran into Savannah early in the spring with a cargo of Enfield rifles, Blakely cannon, gray uniform cloth, and salt.

The armament of the 'Fingal' is as follows: One two-hundred pound rifled gun, four fifty-pound rifled guns, six ten-inch columbiads, two twenty-four pounders for grape and canister—in all fourteen heavy pieces.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel. Her age was 36 years.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel.

During the storm of Monday evening, the 25th of July, Mrs. Doins, wife of the late John Doins, was instantly killed by lightning, at her residence, on the 4th line of Peel.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1862. TORONTO MARKETS.