TOO LATE.

Ay, I saw her, we have niet— Married eyes how sweet they be. Are you happier, Margaret, Than you might have been with me? Silence ! make no more ado !-Did she think I should forget? Matters nothing, though I knew, Margaret, Margaret.

Once those eyes, full sweet, full shv, Told a certain thing to mine; What they told me I put by, O. so carcless of the sign. Such an easy thing to take. And I did not want it then: Fool! I wish my heart would break Scorn is hard on hearts of men.

Scorn of self is bitter work, Each of us has felt it now, Bluest skies she counted mirk, Self-betrayed of eyes and brow;
As for me, I went my way,
And a better man drew nigh, Fain to earn, with long essay,
What the winner's hand threw by.

Matters not in deserts old. What was born, and waxed, and yearned Year to year its meaning told, I am come—its deeps are learned— Come, but there is nought to say— Married eyes with mine have met, Si ncere! O, I had my day, Margaret, Margaret. -The Argosy JEAN INGELOW

Wit and Bumor.

There are 37,000 churches in the United States. They will hold 14,000,000 of people A man is, as a general rule, compensated for small brain by a big tongue.

Those who blow the ccals of others' strife may chance to have the sparks fly in their own faces.

The heat given out by the sun every minute is calculated to be sufficient to boil 12,000,000 cubic miles of ice-cold water.

That man's greatness is not appreciated who walks far in advance of his age; he dwarfs himself in the eye of the people by the distance he is in advance of them. There is much wisdom in a few words spoken by an English farmer, who advised to feed land before it is hungry, to rest before it is weary, and to weed it before it is foul.

A marired gentleman, present at a spiritrapping circle, being informed that the power depended wholly upon the will, begged that his wife might try it, as he had never seen anything resist her will.

Narrow-minded man who have not thought beyond the little sphere of their own vision, recall the Hindoo saying-The snail sees nothing but its own shell, and thinks it the grandest in the universe.

A minister having preached the same discourse to his people three times, one of his constant hearers said to him after service. Doctor, the sermon you gave us this morning having had three several readings, move that it now be passed.

On the gravestone of an old lady in Duxbury, Mass, after the mention of her name, date of death, and age, the epitaph asserts the needlessness of adding to a well-established fame, by the simple sentence, "The chisel can't help her any.

GALLANTRY AND INGENUITY. - Of all the declarations of love, the most admirable was that which a gentleman, made to a young lady, who asked him to show her the picture of the one he loved, when he immediately presented her with a mirror.

A DESCRIPTON .- She was all sorts of a gal-there wan't a sprinklin' too much of her; she had an eye that would make a fellow's heart try to get out of his bosom; her step was as light as panther's and her breath sweet as the prairie flower.

MARRIAGE- A widower, having taken another wife, was, nevertheless, alway paying some panegyric to the memory of his late spouse in the presence of the living one; who one day added, with great feeling. Believe me, my dear, nobody regrets her loss more than 1 do.

WORK .- We are driven to work because work never palls on us, whereas pleasure always does. What a wonderful scheme it is when one looks at it all ! No man can follow pleasure long continually. When a man strives to do so, he turns at once his pleasure into business, and works at that.—A Trollope in "The Clavering.

DRINK has that peculiar, charming, fascinating, damning power, that in many instances when a man takes one glass it is not enough, but he has a second, and a third and then he goes on drinking till he is worse than a brute, and he has drunk away his reason, Did you ever hear of a man buying shoes till he lost his reason.

A man of singularly minute observation once said to me-"I have noticed that young ladies seem to go through three stages of feeling with regard to matrimony. When they first grow up and come out into society they first grow up and come out into society they of course consider it the end and aim of Good Words, Sunday Magazine existence; but in a year or two they become indifferent, and lose all care for it; but as they grow to be about twenty-five and so on, their old anxiety returns stronger than ever. Beware of the first glass, Ike, said Mrs.

Partington to that interesting youth, the other day, for when a man passes the Rubieund, he is liable at any time to become an unblushing drunkard, and to go on from bad to worse, until he pawns his last shirt, and the curtain falls with delirium trimmings. Carried away by the old lady's eloquence. Ike kneeled down on his hands and knees, and swore by Neal Dow and the State of Maine, never to indulge except after consulting a physician.

PADDY'S STRATAGEM. -- An Irishman. driven to desperation by the stringency of the money market and the high price of provisions, procured a pistol and took to the road. Meeting a traveler he stopped him with. "Your money or your life." Seeing Pat was green, he said, "I'll tell you what I'll do-I'll give you my money for the pistol. "Agreed." Pat received the money, and handed over the pistol. "Now said the traveler, "hand back that money, or I'll blow your brains out. Blaze away, my hearty said Pat, never a drop of powdher there's H. # PETROLEUM OIL COMPANY

WHEREAS there exists in the neighbor hood very strong indications that OIL exists in paying quantities in several locali-ties, it is highly desirable that a Company should be established to test the matter, and obtain it if possible.

Since in the opinion of many well qualified to judge, SIGNS OF OIL of a most encouraging character exist in the greatest abundance on Mr. Klink's farm, 14 miles east of Gamble's toll-gate. It is proposed to sink a well there, as being the place most favorable for operations. The Land can be obtained for ten years, for one-tenth of the Oil. Ten acres have about $2,000, about one-half of which will be required to procure material, and go on with the work. The capital of the Company is to be $2,000, in 40 shares of $50 each; two DEACON'S Emptive Ointment for all shares entitles any member to become a di-probable cost of sinking the well will be already been leased to secure the site.

As the successful prosecution of the enterprise will confer untold advantages of wealth and prosperity on our village and neighborhood, it is hoped that sufficient support and encouragement may be given to ustify its prosecution.
