Bradford Foundry! The undersigned is now manufacturing Steel mould-board Ploughs! On an extensive scale, and having tried the credit system, he finds that it is neither advantageous to himself or his customers that are willing to pay, as he has been obliged to charge about one-third more for his Ploughs than he could afford to sell for, in order to cover the expenses of peddling, collecting, and bad debts. He has now come to the determination to SELL FOR CASH, AND CASH ONLY! And reduce the price about one-third; say Ploughs that were sold for $19, he now offers for $13. He is also manufacturing extensively Wood Sawing Machines With all the latest improvements, and is also prepared to repair almost every description of Thrashing Machines, particularly Hall's of Ontario. Having every description of Casting that may be required, he has every facility for manufacturing and repairing Steam Engines, and every kind of Mill work with the care and attention to detail, and turned out with despatch at reasonable prices. W. RUTTERFIELD, Bradford, 1866. 69
