Avarice is more opposed to economy than liberality is.

A man should have an aim in his conversation, but not take aim like a duelist.

It is not so easy to shut the mouth of a live talker as the book of a dead writer.

Politeness is not always a sign of wisdom but the want of it is always a strong symptom of folly.

Conscience, be it ever so little a worm while we live, grows suddenly to a serpent on the death-bed.

The farmer is a conqueror who wins victories upon important fields—at the point of the ploughshare.

Satan can never undo a man without his aid; but a man may easily undo himself without Satan's.

We do not easily discover our faults; the clearest eyes do not see the checks below, nor the brow above.

Not that which men do worthily, but that which they do successfully, is what history makes haste to record.

It is not work that kills men, it is worry. It is not the revolution that destroys the machinery, but the friction.

A man of the world may have enough of the world to sink him; but he can never have enough to satisfy him.

Riches are never true to those that trust them. As the bird hops from twig to twig, so riches from man to man.

Plenty is as distinct from wastefulness as a whole sackful of wheat from a sack with a hole in it for the wheat to run through.

In a hot summer, when there is most thirt, there are fewest brooks. So of many people's charities—they are rarest when most needed.

Anticipated pleasures often prove, when they arrive, to be no pleasures; just as tomorrow, when it comes isn't to-morrow.

We should forget that there is any such thing as suffering in the world, were we not occasionally reminded of it through our own.

Never despond. Though the mid-day sun may be hidden from our eyes, we know that it is shining serenely upon the upper surface of the cloud.

We button up our hearts as we button up our coats, all the more resolutely if our hearts, like our coat-pockets have anything valuable in them.

We make ourselves more injurious than are offered us; they many times pass for wrongs in our own thoughts that were never meant as such.

He who truly wishes the happiness of any one cannot be long without discovering some mode of contributing to it.

For some time past, several "devoted" ladies of the county have been preaching in Norwich and the country villages, with remarkable success; and during the last few months Miss Robinson, from Rury St. Edmunds, has made frequent visits to the city and neighborhood, preaching at different places.

Sisters of Mercy at Dorchester Street Hospital, applying Dr. Radway's Remedies to the sick.

SISTERS OF MERCY,
DORCHESTER STREET, MONTREAL, C. E. HOSPITAL OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY.

Dr. RADWAY.—I certify that your Ready Relief has cured OVER ONE HUNDRED OF our sick from chills, vomiting, headaches, internal pains, &c. &c.

One of our sisters had the Rheumatism in her head for a great many years—having taken a few spoonfuls of Relief in water, and rubbing her head twice with the same medicine, she was perfectly cured and never felt it since. I always use it for dyspepsia and for colds, and always with success. It is very useful for sore throats, coughs, influenza, diphtheria, &c. It has a good effect in distention or wind cholica. I use it for foul breath and it produces a marvellous effect. In short it procures relief altogether remarkable to our invalids.

SISTER MARY DE BONSECOURS.

N. B.—Beware of counterfeits and imitations, have nothing to do with the dealer that will endeavor to persuade you to take some other in place of the Radway's.—The country is flooded with counterfeiters and imitations of Radway's Ready Relief. Dealers purchase these worthless mixtures at less than half price they are charged for Radway's, yet charge the public the same price our agents sell you Radway's for. (Price 25 cents per bottle.) The imitations and counterfeits are sold at 5 to 10 cents per bottle to dealers; dear at that price. In purchasing Ready Relief, see that there are two signatures of Radway & Co. on the labels, and the words R. R. R. Radway & Co. blown in the glass. A MAN THAT WILL SELL YOU A FALSE MEDICINE will cheat you whenever he has an opportunity.

All Around the Globe.
Certificates of startling cures of the most violent and deadly diseases are on record at Dr. RADWAY'S OFFICES in the Cities of New York and Montreal, emanating from the highest authorities in the world. There is not a Town or City of importance (except a few in China) on the Globe but that RADWAY'S-MEDICINES have cured the sick when all other remedies agents failed, and this is vouchered for by high dignitaries in Church and State, both by letters written direct to Dr. Radway, and through the U. S. Ministers and Consuls abroad.
