Miscellaneous.

A curious statistical fact has just been published. Friday is considered such an unlucky day in France, that not only is the nnmber of travellers by rail much smaller on Friday than on other days, but the difference is also sensibly felt in the receipts of the omnibusses.

ADVENTURES OF A YOUNG SCOTTISH BARONET.—On Saturday last, Sir Hew Crawford Pollok, the young Scottish Baronet whose mysterious disappearance in August, 1865, and whose romantic trip to the wilds of Texas, has excited so much curiosity—sailed from New York to Glasgow on board the Columbia. It may be interesting to the public to recall at this time the advertisement, offering a reward of £200 for information of his whereabouts, if alive, or satisfactory proof of his death, which was published in August last. It is as follows :—£200 Rewards! Missing since 28th of August, 1865, Hew Crawford Pollok, age 25 years; height 5 feet 9 or 10 inches; complexion fair; figure, thin, but shoulders rather broad; hair and whiskers black; accent Scotch; style of dress, sporting. This description is so minute and accurate that it will enable any one to identify him. Since his arrival in New York on Tuesday of last week, we have gathered a few facts regarding his career in this country, and as they are not discreditable to him, we may refer to them to point a moral for other enterprizing young men in like circumstances. It was, we believe, in consequence of some unhappy family differences of opinion of no importance to the public, that Sir Hew dropped suddenly out of sight of his relatives and friends in Great Britain, and turned up, under an assumed name, in America. Perhaps he had made up his mind to show that he was able to take care of himself; or as the farmers in some portions of the United States say that he could 'hoe his own row,' and that he could rise in the world without the aid of wealth to lift him up. At all events, he decided on starting at the lowest step in the ladder of promotion. He enlisted in April, 1866, as a common soldier in the Fourth U. S. Cavalry, Co. B, and was soon sent out to the West. During an engagement with the Indians he had a horse shot under him. Fortunately he was not wounded, and he has brought off his scalp safe. It is said that he was just ready to start on a scouting expedition when he received the news of his release from the service. A short time previous to his discharge he had been promoted for bravery in the field, and good conduct in the camp. Perhaps the title of farrier which he is said to have earned by his own efforts may be as honorable to him as the title of baronet which he has received from his father. The pay, however, attached to the two positions are widely different. In Texas he received at one time only $15 a month, increased afterwards to $18 a month and his rations. The estate at Pollockshaws which he has gone home to take possession of is reported to be worth five thousand pounds a year.—S. Journal.

The READY RELIEF is as sudden in its operation as the malady itself. It is more active than the virus of the most swift and deadly epidemic. With this Remedy at hand to use on the first symptom or pain and uneasiness, no person need suffer an hour sickness.

Sisters of Mercy at Dorchester Street Hospital, applying Dr. Radway's Remedies to the sick.

SISTERS OF MERCY,
DORCHESTER STREET, MONTREAL, C. E., HOSPITAL OF THE SISTERS OF MERCY.
DR. RADWAY,—I certify that your Ready Relief has cured OVER ONE HUNDRED of our sick from chills, vomiting, headaches, internal pains, &c., &c.
One of our sisters had the Rheumatism in her head for a great many years—having taken a few spoonfuls of Relief in water, and rubbing her head twice with the same medicine, she was perfectly cured and never felt it since. I always use it for dyspepsia and for colds, and always with success. It is very useful for sore throats, coughs, influenza, diptheria, &c. It has a good effect in flatulence or wind cholic. I use it for foul breath and it produces a marvelous effect. In short it procures relief altogether remarkable to our invalids.
SISTER MARY DE BONSECOURS.
N. B.—Beware of counterfeits and imitations, have nothing to do with the dealer that will endeavour to persuade you to take some other in place of the Radway's.—The country is flooded with counterfeits and imitations of Radway's Ready Relief. Dealers purchase these worthless mixtures at less than half price they are charged for Radway's, yet charge the public the same price our agents sell you Radway's for. (Price 25 cents per bottle.) The imitations and counterfeits are sold at 5 to 10 cents per bottle to dealers; dear at that price. In purchasing Ready Relief, see that there are two signatures of Radway & Co. on the labels, and the words R. R. R. Radway & Co. blown in the glass. A MAN THAT WILL SELL YOU A FALSE MEDICINE will cheat you whenever he has an opportunity.

All Around the Globe.
Certificates of startling cures of the most violent and deadly diseases are on record at DR. RADWAY'S OFFICES in the Cities of New York and Montreal, emanating from the highest authorities in the world. There is not a Town or City of importance (except a few in China) on the Globe but that RADWAY'S MEDICINES have cured the sick when all other remedial agents failed, and this is vouched for by high dignitaries in Church and State, both by letters written direct to Dr. Radway, and through the U. S. Ministers and Consuls abroad.
PRICE, 25 cents a Bottle.
