

LATEST FROM EUROPE.
LONDON, Dec. 7, midnight.—In the House of Peers this evening, Earl Mayo made a short speech in which he deplored the bad taste and evil effect of the public funeral for the Fenians executed at Manchester, which had taken place in England and Ireland.—Such demonstrations he declared showed a disposition to sanction murder. He was glad to see every precaution had been taken by the Government to suppress any outbreak arising from the bad passions thus evoked.
In the House of Commons to night, Lord Stanley alluding to the European Congress on the Roman question, proposed by France, said he could not see that any good would result from the meeting of the representatives of the European Powers in a general conference without a previous agreement as to the basis upon which their deliberations should be conducted.
In the course of the evening the new mail contract with the Cunard steamship line was unfavorably criticised, when Mr. Hunt, Finance Secretary for the Treasury, defended the action of the Government, declaring that the contract was the best one which could be made at the present time. At a late hour to night, the Houses of Parliament adjourned to meet on the 13th of February, 1868.
Florence, Dec. 8.—It is reported that Garibaldi has again disappeared from the Island of Caprea, and it is feared another attempt against Rome will be made by the party of action.
The speech by the French minister, M. Rouher, in which he said that Italy should not take forcible possession of Rome, gave rise to an angry debate in the Italian Chamber of deputies yesterday. Prime Minister Menebrae informed the House that he had asked the French Government for explanations of the speech, and expected to receive a reply from Paris by Monday. He adds that Italy could only gain possession of Rome with the concurrent consent of France and the other European powers—that it would be impossible to achieve that object by force. At the end of the debate, a vote was taken, and the Government was sustained by the majority.
Paris, Dec. 8.—Fears are entertained here of a ministerial crisis in consequence of the last speech of M. Rouher on the Roman question.
Berlin, Dec. 8.—Important changes in the existing tariff rates of the Zollverein are contemplated.
Paris, Dec. 8, evening.—Prince Napoleon is about to leave Paris for Monaca in northern Italy, where he will meet his father-in-law, King Victor Emmanuel.
Dublin, Dec. 8, evening.—The obsequies of Allen, Gould and Larkin, were performed here to day, and were the occasion of an immense manifestation of sympathy. The proceedings were similar to those reported at London, Manchester and Cork, but in numbers this demonstration far exceeded any previous one. It is estimated that fifty thousand men marched in the funeral procession. Good order was maintained all along the line, and the whole affair passed off quietly.
London, Dec. 9, noon.—The North German and Linnaeus steamers, as well as those of the Cunard line, are to carry the mails between New York and Southampton. A despatch from Florence denies the story that Gen. Garibaldi had again escaped from Caprea.
Liverpool, Dec. 11.—The demonstration proposed by the Fenians on Sunday next, in this city, has been peremptorily forbidden by the authorities who are fearful of the consequences of such an expression of ill-feeling towards the Government.
London, Dec. 11.—Late despatches from Shanghai make mention of new and more serious outbreaks in the Province of Chih, near Pekin. At the last accounts the rebels were marching on the capital.
London, Dec. 11, noon.—The Times of this morning has another editorial on American matters, and particularly on the recent message of President Johnson. So far as the Times is able to understand the President from the message received by the cable, it has no hesitancy in counselling the acceptance by the American people of Mr. Johnson's views on the question of citizenship.
It is now said that the French Government has no desire to negotiate a loan as was sometimes reported.
It is reported that Prince Gortschakoff has resigned the Chancellorship of the Russian Empire.
Florence, Dec. 11.—The sittings of the Italian Parliament are quite stormy. The debates recently have been very violent, and the Liberal members have assailed the Ministers mercilessly.
London, Dec. 11, evening.—The friends of the executed Fenians are very active. From a great number of towns in Ireland come despatches of mock funeral and other demonstrations of regard.
Florence, Dec. 11.—It is thought that the Italian Chamber of Deputies will repeal their vote of 1861, declaring Rome as the natural capital of the kingdom.
Paris, Dec. 11.—The Monitor of this morning says that the negotiations for the proposed Conference still continue. There is renewed confidence felt for the success of the scheme.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.
Candidates for municipal honors are becoming thick as blackberries, and as we approach the trying time, they grow more numerous; every day or so we learn of some fresh gladiator ready to offer himself upon the altar of his country. Well, we suppose it must be taken for granted that their motives are patriotic, and their object the public good; but as all who will offer their services cannot be elected, the electors will have to select from amongst them such as are best calculated to render most service to the public. On Monday, the 23rd inst., the law requires a public meeting of electors to be held in every township, for the purpose of nominating candidates as Reeve, Deputy Reeves, and Councillors—the electors should make it a point to muster in full force at these meetings, and endeavor to make a good selection. Of course it will be at the polls, in January, that the electors will give their final decision, as to which of the number they prefer. After the meetings of the 23rd inst., we shall know, for a certainty, who the willing victims are to be, and shall be in a position to offer our opinion upon their various merits to the claim they set up for martyrdom.

THE "SEAFORTH EXPOSITOR" is the title of a new weekly paper, published by Messrs. Penton and Colborne, at Seaforth, in the County of Huron, the first number of which is now before us. It is a large sheet, neatly printed, and reflects credit upon the gentlemen connected with the enterprise. We hope it will enjoy a long and prosperous career. Seaforth is a rising village, and is about to become incorporated; it is a central point for business, situate on the line of railway, running from Goderich to Buffalo, intersecting the Grand Trunk and Great Western lines, and is just such a place a well-conducted journal should flourish in.

BILLIARDS.—The contest for the billiard championship of American, and a purse of $1,000 between Joseph Dion, of Montreal, and Mr. McDevitt, of New York, the candidate for the coveted position, took place at the Mechanics' Hall, Montreal, on Wednesday evening last, resulted in favor of McDevitt, by 12 points. Dion does not appear to have distinguished himself by any prominent run compared with those of last year, and in this respect he has disappointed some, and seems to have made comparatively little use of his favorite mode of playing.

Notice.—The annual meeting of the Rate-payers of the Electoral Division, No. 2, of the Township of Markham, will be held at the Commercial Hotel, Victoria Square, on Wednesday the 18th inst., at 7 o'clock, p.m. The meeting will be addressed by several parties in connection with Municipal matters.

THE NEW DOMINION MONTHLY.—The third number of this interesting periodical is to hand. We rejoice to see that its enterprising publishers continue to make it a most desirable monthly visitor. It contains a large amount of original matter, from the pens of our best Canadian writers, amongst whom is the Hon. T. D. McGehe, M.P.; we think this fact, in itself, is a guarantee to the reading public that the New Dominion Monthly will be deserving of an extensive patronage. The price is ten cents per copy; it contains about sixty-four pages of close reading matter, including choice selections of prose, poetry, and music, in addition to the original articles by our first literary notables. We recommend our friends to encourage the work, and to use their influence with their neighbors that they may do likewise.

Prussia is about to construct fresh fortifications at Thorn, in West Prussia, in order to strengthen her frontier on the Lower Vistula; and it is beginning to be whispered in South Germany that Alsace must be recovered.
There is a story going the rounds that the king of Italy recently received the head of the Italian police with a stare, went to the window, smoked a cigar for ten minutes, and ended by dismissing him without answering a word to the repeated question, what was to be done with Garibaldi.
The King of Sweden is about to publish a pamphlet entitled "Ideas on Modern Tactics." He endeavors to show that a small and good army is preferable to a numerous one imperfectly trained. The product derived from the sale of this work is to be devoted to the creation of primary schools in Lapland.
Stephens the Penian "head centre," who has of late faded almost completely out of public view, is still, it would seem, in Paris. He was seen the other day by a correspondent of a Dublin journal, who describes him as not looking the Achilles of former times, but emaciated, and a caution to conspirators.
The new bon-bon which the Paris confectioners intend introducing for the jour le Jan will be styled the Chassapout, which since the late contest at Mentana, bids fair to give the name to every novelty of Parisian origin, including bonnets, mantles, perfumes, doilies, new shades of color, and newly invented dishes.
The journals devoted to ladies' fashions say that the color of dresses this winter is to be a pale green, and that petticoats are to be longer than last year, but are to be raised by numerous flock straps, held by chains of ebony, fastened to the wrist by steel locks. Large and heavy brass rings are to be suspended by chains from the waist behind.
An American lady, Madame Jessie Marie White, wife of one of Garibaldi's lieutenants, is spoken of in terms of the highest eulogy in Italy. This brave hearted lady went to Rome in the midst of the hostilities in order to render assistance to the wounded, and specially to watch over the body of Riso Caroli, who, with his three brothers, risked and lost their lives in the cause of Italian independence.
Terrible Railroad Accident.—Ogdensburg, N.Y., Dec. 11.—A car loaded with workmen broke from the engine and ran off an abutment eighty feet high at Harlow bridge, on the Vermont Central Railroad, one mile and a half south of Northfield, Vermont, this afternoon, and seventeen men were killed and fifty injured, some badly. This is the bridge that was burned on Sunday. The men were returning from dinner to their work.

MEXICO.—Mexican dates state the existing privilege to build and run a railroad between Vera Cruz and the city of Mexico has been granted to the old company of English capitalists for twenty-five years, the Mexican Government paying a subsidy to the Company of one-half million dollars per annum. The Government of Mexico has declared war against Guatemala.
Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—Fadrelan det confirms the news that the Danish Government has concluded a treaty with the Government of the United States respecting the sale of Denmark's West India Possessions—namely the islands of St. Thomas, San Juan and Santa Cruz. The three islands have been sold for the sum of 11 1/2 million dollars. A reserve is, however, made as regards Santa Cruz, the island of France being required. The contract will be given her consent, the two other islands will be given up for 7 1/2 million dollars.
A Short Will.—The will of Mr. Kenneth Macaulay, Q.C., formerly M.P., for Cambridge, is contained in these few words:—"One thousand pounds to my brother Tom all the residue to my dear wife absolutely.—Kth. Macaulay. The will is without date, but was written by the testator on April 22d or 23d, 1865. The testator died July 29th, 1867, at Aderingpale House, Cambridge, at the age of 52. The testator was the youngest son of the Rev. A. Macaulay, and cousin of the late Lord Macaulay.—Illustrated London News.
The London Times says:—It appears that in addition to the £2,000,000 in gold, to be paid for Russian America, the United States have agreed to disburse £1,500,000 for St. Thomas and San Juan, with an additional $800,000, provided France will waive her claim to the neighboring island of Santa Cruz. A total of $4,300,000, it is seen understood that the payment to Russia will thus have to be disbursed. It specie is to be made at the end of the present year.
THE REAL LESSON OF MENTANA.—The real lesson of Mentana is this. The French Government has got a weapon quite equal to the needle gun. All the reports coincide in stating that the fire of the Chassapout is as quick as the ticking of a clock, like the swing of a pendulum, like the stroke of an alarm running down; that the bullets from it fell upon the Garibaldians in showers, and that the road is white with cartridges. The main difficulty is, is it clear, with this weapon will be to keep the men supplied with ammunition, as they will fire it away too fast. The evidence of his new power will not render Napoleon less exacting in Germany, and Mentana may yet be terribly avenged.
THE RISE IN COMMERCIAL BANK STOCK.—The Kingston News says the speedy passage through the House of Commons of the Commercial Bank bill has had the effect of improving the value of the stock. It has risen in the course of little more than a fortnight from 11 to 32, and there is still a speculative demand in the expectation of a speedy resumption of business by the bank. The improved position of the bank and the profits required by the Parliamentary committee of all the favorable statements which were put forward have had a very good effect on the country, and have given increased confidence to bill holders.
EXECUTION OF THE MURDERER ALLEN AT KINGSTON.—Dec. 11.—Saxie Allen, one of the parties connected with the recent murder at Morton's distillery, was executed at a few minutes after eleven o'clock this morning. It was intended that the execution should take place earlier in the morning, but at the earnest request of Allen's spiritual advisers it was delayed. He walked to the gallows with a firm step, and refused to have the black cap drawn over his head. The drop which was about five feet broke his neck, and he died, as he had often previously asserted he would with a smile on his face. Before leaving the jail he handed his counsel a paper the contents of which has not yet transpired. About 1,600 persons witnessed the execution. Weather cold and clear.
BEARS, TIGERS, &c. LIBERATED BY A RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—The New York Tribune says:—We have received information from a gentleman who has recently returned from a trip in the Southern States, that he was an eye witness of the affair of an extraordinary, sudden, and terrific contest among the wild animals belonging to the southern branch of the Barnum and Van Amburg Museum and Menagerie Company, which was brought about in consequence of their being liberated from captivity by a railway accident. It appears the entire menagerie was en route from Montgomery to Mobile, and a broken rail precipitated seven cars down an embankment 40 feet from the summit to the base. Most of the cages were more or less damaged by the accident, and those containing the Himalaya bear, the Bengal tiger, the Thibet bear, and Brazilian tiger, were so much shattered as to liberate the occupants, and permit them to escape to the adjoining forest, whence they speedily attracted by the carcass of a deer that had been in one of the cages, and was killed by the casualty. Now occurred one of the most remarkable contests of brutes that has ever taken place on this continent. During four hours the tigers, the bears and the hyena contended for the mastery. Nor did the terrified attaches to the menagerie dare to interfere. The noise of the contest is described as being appalling in the extreme, and did not cease until the participants had satisfied the craving of their appetites, which the Himalaya bear and one of the tigers played together as cat and kitten. At this juncture Capt. Hall, the "Lion King," and former companion of Dr. Livingstone, together with one or two courageous assistants, made an essay to recapture the animals. The cages containing the remaining animals were discharged to their occupants and brought to close proximity to the fugitives. The bears and the hyena were then lassoed and dragged into their pens. Capt. Hall then courageously approached the tigers, crested and petted them, and finally led them without resistance to their dens. The driver of the band wagon was instantly killed by the accident, and the company sustained a loss of two lions, a panther and a leopard.
