

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Dublin, Dec. 16.—Legal proceedings on the charge of seditious conduct have been commenced by the Government against John Martin, President of the Irish National League, Alexander Sullivan, editor of the Dublin Nation, and others, who took a prominent part in the Fenian obsequies on Sunday, the 6th inst., and to-day the accused were brought before the police Magistrate for examination. They did not deny their participation in the funeral services, and those that made speeches on that occasion freely acknowledged the language charged against them.

Florence, Dec. 16.—In the Italian parliament the Liberal members have made a violent attack upon the Government. Prime Minister Menebracci will reply tomorrow.

London, Dec. 17.—The Times, this morning, devotes a leading article to American finances. It strongly objects to the financial plan proposed by Secretary McCulloch, as involving an offer of exchange 6 per cent bonds for 5 per cent, and as a violation of the axiom that local taxation should be met by local means.

London, Dec. 17, evening.—An inquest was held to-day on the bodies of the persons killed by the attempt to blow up Clerkenwell prison. Nothing satisfactory was elicited as to the perpetrators of the crime.

A rumour comes from Vienna that a change in the Austrian Ministry is impending, and that Count von Salfire is to form the new Cabinet. The report needs confirmation.

The last despatches received from Messo-wah, report the British expeditionary force in Abyssinia at a place called Senape, where there was abundance of water and the natives friendly.

Paris, Dec. 17.—The Paiee indignantly denies that there is any truth in the report which has been current that the French Government has sent an envoy to Mexico.

Bonnie bought to day. Rent advanced.

London, Dec. 17, evening.—A terrible explosion took place at Newmarket on Tuesday day. The authorities last night received information that a quantity of Nitro Glycerene had been secreted in that place, it is supposed by Fenians. The Sheriff and town surveyor, with a large squad of policemen, proceeded to the spot indicated and discovered oil packed in the usual manner. While the men were removing it, a tremendous explosion occurred. Several policemen were instantly killed, and few of the party escaped injury. Both Sheriff and Surveyor are badly hurt and are lying in a critical condition.

The report that reached here by Atlantic Cable that Spain offered to sell the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico to the United States is denied.

London, Dec. 18.—A despatch from Mas-sowah says that a report from the interior had reached the British expedition that King Theodore had set fire to and destroyed Debra Tabor.

London, Dec. 18.—An attempt was made to-day to blow up one of the walls of Millbank gaol, in which a number of Fenians are confined. The preparations were all completed, and the fuse had been lighted by the conspirators, without attracting attention, but owing to some defect in the arrangement of the materials the powder did not explode, and the plot was discovered before the attempt to carry it out could be renewed. No arrests have been made, and no clue has been obtained to the guilty parties.

Dublin, Dec. 18.—The examination of John Martin and others connected with the funeral demonstration on the 8th inst., was concluded yesterday, and the decision was reserved. The men who were accused were brought before the magistrate, Martin and Lalor were committed for trial on the charge of misfeasance. They immediately furnished the requisite bail and were discharged from custody.

AMERICAN NEWS.

Buffalo, Dec. 18.—The New York express train from Cleveland, on the Lake Shore road, due here at 12:45 p.m., being behind time, when two miles this side of Angola, either by faulty rail or fog, met with a serious accident about three p.m. Two rear passenger cars were thrown off the track and rolled over an embankment of twenty feet.

The accident on the Lake Shore Railroad was more serious than was at first reported. The rear car went over an embankment of fifty feet, was set on fire by the stove, and out of fifty passengers only two escaped, the rest were burned to death, and all that is left is a mass of blackened and charred remains, without any means of ascertaining their names. The accident occurred at the Big Sister Bridge, a quarter of a mile east of Angola. One train has arrived with the unhurt passengers and a few of the wounded. The balance of the wounded will be here about midnight. Every preparation is made to care for their wants by the citizens of Buffalo. A large number of physicians from Buffalo left on the 15th inst., on a special train to assist the wounded. Among those killed the name of Mrs. Hubbard, of St. Catharines, is reported.

Buffalo, Dec. 19, 1 a.m.—In the railroad accident near Angola, as near as can now be ascertained, about forty-five were killed and thirty-five wounded.

The Chicago Pork Trade.—The pork packing business, in Chicago, is making great strides this season, and operators have no hesitation in expressing the opinion that the season will practically terminate about New Year's day. The receipts of hogs for the week just closed were 133,881 live, and 7,168 dressed; total, 141,049 head. This is the largest number ever received in any one week in that or any other city of the world. The receipts two weeks ago were 111,240, an increase of 29,809 in favor of the week just closed.

INOT CHILDREN.—Dr. Hall, Superintendent of the Ohio State Insane Asylum, said recently: "A citizen of the State married an intelligent lady, who bore him ten children. After the birth of the first three the father became intemperate, and during his career as an inebriate four children were born unto him. He then reformed entirely, and had three more. The first three were smart and intelligent, and became useful men and women, and so of the last three; and of the four born to him during his inebriety, two have died in the lunatic asylum, another is there, and the fourth is an idiot." This is no isolated case. The records of every lunatic asylum, if examined, would fully corroborate the statistics published a few years since in regard to the 'idiots of Massachusetts, and prove most conclusively that the use of liquors is impairing the health and reason and shortening the lives, not only of those who drink, but of their offspring.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS.

On Monday next the electors of each Township are required, by law, to assemble at the Town Hall, for the purpose of nominating Reeves, Deputy Reeves and Councillors for the ensuing year. We trust that the electors of the Townships of Vaughan and Markham will make it a point to put in an appearance in force, as it is most desirable that those who have to pay heavy taxes should exercise caution in their selection of persons to preside at our Township Councils; it is useless to find fault, when the collector calls, if our taxes are burdensome through the recklessness of those we empower, annually, to manage our finances. Now is the time to guard against extravagance in our Township and County expenditure, high salaries and fat jobs to a favoured few; if electors are blinded by political partisanship in making their selection, we may look for incompetent councils and high taxes. We are not in a position to speak positively as to the names of all the candidates for Municipal honours in Markham and Vaughan, but expect that, after Monday next, we shall have the full programme; so far as our information serves us we learn that Mr. Peter Patterson and Mr. Thomas Graham are to be the candidates for the Reevesship of Vaughan; W. Hartman, R. J. Arnold, John C. McQuarrie and James McNair, are spoken of as likely to contest the election of Deputy Reeves in the same Township; the old councillors are the only persons yet spoken of as being in the field.

For the Township of Markham, we learn that Mr. James Robinson, of Markham Village, will contest the Reevesship with Mr. Wm. Eakin; for Deputies, there are W. M. Button, James Bowman, James Bogg and Wm. Plummerfelt freely spoken of; and for Councillors we are informed that Robt. Marsh, John Lane, James Stoutenburgh and B. Macdonald will go to the polls. Of course these names are given from rumour, and nothing definite can be said until Monday, after which we shall be in a position to discuss the merits of these gentlemen; it would be premature to make any remarks until they were openly declared as in the field for public honours, thereby inviting criticism.

SURPRIZE PARTY.

The members of the Young Ladies' select class in the Thornhill W. M. Sabbath School, which for a number of years has been taught by Mrs. Kyle, wishing to give to their teacher a testimony of their appreciation of her disinterested labors for their spiritual advancement, prepared for her a pleasing surprise on Friday evening last. At a little after seven o'clock, the young ladies composing the class, and a number of friends, in all thirty or forty, rendezvoused at the residence of Mr. Gallanough, and thence proceeded in a body to the residence of the party to be surprised. Mrs. Kyle, although taken completely unawares, gave to all a hearty welcome, and by her cheerful manner and social skill made every one feel at ease.

As soon as the company was comfortably settled, Miss Sheppard, in behalf of the class, presented to Mrs. Kyle, three books of poems, elegantly bound, accompanied with the following address, which was read by Miss Jennie Lane:—

"DEAR TEACHER.—We have gathered here this evening to express our thanks to you for your kindness in coming Sabbath after Sabbath to instruct us in the best of all knowledge,—"the knowledge of the Bible. We beg that you will accept this slight token of our esteem and regard, and though small in intrinsic value, we trust that it will be regarded by you as an expression of our appreciation of the unwearied zeal you have shown in thus instructing us. We fear you may at times have felt discouraged by not seeing greater results from your labors, but we trust that the bread cast upon the waters will be found after many days; you have sown the seed, and in due time will doubtless reap the harvest. We trust that the instructions imparted by you will enable us better to perform our part in the great work of life, and though in after years our lots may be cast far apart, we hope when all our labors here are ended, that we will stand with you as an unbroken band around the throne of the great Teacher; that you will receive from him a crown, bright with jewels, and hear the welcome words, 'Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of my Lord.'"

Mrs. Kyle replied in an appropriate and touching manner, thanking the young people for their present, assuring them that she valued it especially as being an expression of the feelings of those with whom she was engaged in the Sabbath School, and that she was encouraged to go on with greater zeal in the discharge of a duty rendered all the more pleasant from this new evidence of their attachment, and concluded by expressing her wishes for the welfare of her charge.

A sumptuous repast was next prepared and partaken of, after which a couple of hours were spent in social conversation and amusement, concluded with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Garbutt, after which the party dispersed.

HON. T. D. MCGEE.

It affords us much pleasure to find that Mr. McGee has sufficiently recovered to be able to attend to his parliamentary duties; the honorable gentleman has been seriously ill for some time back. As an instance of Mr. McGee's popularity in the House of Commons, we may mention that when he entered it on Tuesday he was warmly cheered. He gives his hearty support to Sir John's administration, and has been severe upon Mr. King of the Montreal Bank for showing a want of courtesy towards Ministers.—

We are inclined to pity the unfortunate that brings Mr. McGee down on him, whoever he may be, high or low. We expect to read of a passage-at-arms, (to use an allegory) between Messrs McGee and Howe before the adjournment, as there is one due.

AGRICULTURAL (?) SUPPER AT BURWICK!

To the Editor of the York Herald.
Dear Sir.—I know you take a deep interest in every thing that appertains to the welfare of the Vaughan Agricultural Society, and for this reason take the liberty of informing you that on Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., a magnificent "spread" was got up at the "Inkerman Hotel," kept by your jolly friend, the irrepressible Captain Wallace. It was ostensibly given by my enterprising neighbour, Mr. John Abell, as President of the Vaughan Agricultural Society, to the Officers of the Society in this neighbourhood; but it is rumoured that the main object was to make capital for Mr. Thomas Graham in his present electioneering canvass for the Reevesship against your neighbour Mr. Peter Patterson.

Mr. Patterson is a strong opponent, and it will need all the strategy that can be brought to bear to prevent Mr. Patterson's success, hence the reason for connecting the supper with the Vaughan Agricultural Society; the ruse is not a bad one, and may appear to those at a distance as not being for electioneering purposes, but it is well understood in and around Burwick. It is only just to Captain Wallace to say that the "spread" was good, the liquors were good, and the company enjoyed themselves.

Yours,
Z.
Burwick, 14th Dec. 1867.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER.

On Wednesday evening last, the 11th inst., Mr. John Abell, President of the Vaughan Agricultural Society, and extensive Agricultural Implement manufacturer in Burwick, entertained the office bearers of the Society, and other prominent agriculturists of the Township at a supper, which was provided at the Inkerman Hotel by Captain Wallace.

After the usual loyal and patriotic toasts, the healths of Mr. Jno. Abell, President; Mr. Thomas Graham, M. L. A., Secretary, and Duncan McCallum Esq., Local Superintendent of Vaughan, Treasurer; were severally proposed and responded to, in short and effective speeches. These were followed by the toasts of the "Directors" the "Fathers of the Society," and the "Hoast" which were also duly acknowledged.

From the statements made, it appears that the society is in a most flourishing and satisfactory condition; there being now in their funds, after paying all the prize-money and other expenses connected with the Spring Ploughing Match and Fall Fair, no less a sum than $500. The fair which was held in Burwick was said to be the largest township show held in this part of the province, and it also exceeded most of the County Fairs, both in the number of entries made, and in the crowds that attended.

Indeed, so great has been its success under the capital management of its officers and directors, that the County Society of West York is anxious to unite with it, and hold a monster exhibition at Burwick; an arrangement which if made upon equitable terms would be decidedly beneficial to the agricultural interests of West York.

Another Robbery in Wall Street.

(From the N. Y. Tribune, of Saturday.)
At about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Louis J. Kingsley, employed as clerk in the Bank of the State of New York, was returning from the Clearing-House with a black leather bag containing $6,000 worth of checks, and $500 in bank notes, and when near the intersection of William and Wall streets, his attention was attracted by a handsome Portland sleigh and bay mare, which faced the street instead of being drawn up beside the walk. As the young man came abreast the sleigh, an unknown person struck him on the head, seized the bag, and, jumping into the sleigh, was at once driven off at high speed by one of the two men who occupied it. Kingsley, still holding fast to the bag with one hand, and clinging to the sleigh, was dragged nearly a block past the bank building in which he is employed, his assailant all the time striking him on the head, face, and hands to get him off. At length he relinquished his hold, and the party, after driving through several downtown streets, dashed up Pearl street and vanished. Neither the boy nor any of those who witnessed the assault can positively identify either the perpetrator of the outrage or his abettors, so rapidly was it done. One of the fellows who accompanied the robbers committed the assault when the messenger returned it on the bank in the afternoon they might have secured a very large amount of money in bank notes, as the bank differences are then paid in cash. The robbery having been committed, every known detail was at once telegraphed to the Police Central office, and the non-committal to all the precincts and to the police of the country; but up to a late hour last night no arrests had been made. The various banks, whose checks had been stolen, were also notified, and payment was stopped. It is hardly probably, however, that these artistic highwaymen will present any for payment. It is supposed that the robbers are the same that robbed the Williamsburgh bank teller in William street, some time ago in broad daylight, of a bag containing money and checks to the value of $11,000; the same probably, that robbed the cashier of Higgins & Co., dealers in carpets, while he was on his way with a carpet-bag containing $16,000, which he took to the workmen in Messrs. Higgins & Co.'s factory. In that robbery they were driving in a cart and leaped therefrom, knocked the cashier down and robbed him. After which they hastily jumped into the vehicle, and drove off at high speed. It is also conjectured that those are the fellows who attacked the cashier for the firm of Roach & Sons, Iron foundry, while he was walking in Livingston St., with a bag containing $16,000 in bank bills. In this last attempt, however, the thieves were unsuccessful, their intended victim proving more than a match for his assailants, despite the severe wound which they inflicted on his head in the beginning of the encounter. In each case the mode of attack and flight has been the same; in each case there have been men in broad daylight, and in each case so rapidly has the deed been consummated that no one of the party has yet been positively identified. The practice of intruding the transmission of large sums of gold and bank bills to the custody of youths is a practical invitation to robbers of this class. Nothing is more common than to see a boy passing along the street with a bag of gold or a large bundle of bills carelessly carried under his arm, and nothing could be easier for a thief than to snatch the treasure, and vanish in the crowd that surges through Wall street during the street during the busiest hours of the day.

They punish unmanageable female prisoners at the great goal of St. Lazarus, near Dublin, by putting them, hovebound, in a revolving bird cage, which can be seen from all parts of the building. Few of the birds that have seen the inside of this cage for a couple of hours, commit any further infractions of prison discipline.

The current coin in Abyssinia consists of pieces of rock salt, and of Austrian silver dollars of the year 1780 bearing the effigy of Maria Theresa.

In consequence of the frauds practiced by splitting the gold coins of the United States taking out the interior, substituting base alloys, and then reuniting the pieces, the Director of Mint recommends that in future the coin be made larger, thinner, and slightly double concave. The ten dollar gold piece would thus be made as large as the twenty is now, and the coinage of the latter denomination would have to be discontinued as too big for use.

EMIGRATION TO NEW ORLEANS.—A Washington correspondent writes:—A great portion of the tide of emigration is being directed to New Orleans. Emigrants who intend to settle in the North-western States are taken from European ports to New Orleans, and thence removed by steamer to St. Louis. The perils and annoyances of New York and railway travelling are thus avoided by means of this Mississippi route. The emigrants brought to New Orleans are shipped from Brementon to three emigrant ships have now arrived at New Orleans.

INTELLIGENCE OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.—Colonel Stanton, her Majesty's Agent and Consul-General in Egypt, has telegraphed to Lord Stanley, dated Cairo, Nov. 20th, as follows: "Message has reached this agency, from her Majesty's Consul at Zanzibar, dated 28th September, to the following effect: 'Reliable information has reached this agency of Dr. Livingstone having been seven months ago at Manua, on his voyage towards the north east, passing to the west Lake Bangweulu. Mr. Churchill was about to proceed to the coast to obtain further intelligence.'"

THE QUEEN AND THE PRINCESS OF WALES.—The Queen will leave Windsor Castle for Osborne about a fortnight before Christmas, probably on the 16th December—after paying her annual visit with the family to the tomb of the late Prince Consort on the 14th, the anniversary of the death of the illustrious and good Prince. It was remarked that the air of Windsor must have had a very beneficial effect on the Princess of Wales during her short visit there, as, on leaving, her Royal Highness walked from the Queen's private waiting room to the saloon carriage of the railway with much greater ease, and was looking a great deal better than on her arrival.

GOLD NEAR BROCKVILLE.—The London says gold has been found within a mile of the limits of Brockville, in a Quartz Ledge, crossing the lands of Judge Jarvis and Mr. William Sherwood. It appears from a hint received from a returned California miner that the quartz vein in question was of a gold bearing kind. Mr. Sherwood has commenced two shafts, from one of which at the depth of only 5 feet the quartz by the assay of Dr. Girdron, of Montreal, yielded $6.53 per ton. This of course will appear small in the eyes of our Major friends, but they must remember that this is a test of the surface rock only. What it may prove on going down further is yet to be seen. The vein widens as it deepens and cannot fail to be more productive as the shaft descends. The rock is of the same character as that at Murdoch. The country behind Brockville abounds with a number of valuable ores.

REAPPEARANCE OF THE CATTLE PLAGUE.—The cattle plague has reappeared in Scotland, on the farm of Langrize, in Berwickshire, not very far from Kelso, and at no great distance from the place where, at the end of August, 1865, it first appeared in Scotland. Several animals among a herd of about thirty young short-horn—purchased about a week or two ago, and sent from an English dealer—were on Thursday observed to show symptoms of weakness and illness, and examination that day and next day by skilled veterinary surgeons made it clear that the cattle were affected with the plague. At least, one of the animals has since died, and the others have been isolated from the rest of the herd, and a measure of the sufficiency of which to prevent the further spread of the disease, hope is reposed.

Two letters dated Zanzibar, Sept. 28th, have been received in London regarding Dr. Livingstone. One written by Dr. Kirk says, "we have now some grounds for believing that a white man resembling Livingstone had been seen to the south of the Sea of Ujiji. If it be Livingstone, he has been seven months ago at a place called Marungu, 650 miles east of Zanzibar. The slave on whose information more particularly the belief of Dr. Livingstone being alive may be based, has, among a hundred photographs, recognized the portrait of Dr. Livingstone, the man he saved at Marungu. This is indeed glorious news."

IS THE SCHOOLMASTER ABROAD?—People have talked of the general spread of education, and never a greater or more mischievous error entertained. Parliamentary returns show that one third of the men of Herefordshire, Cambridgeshire, and Norfolk, who married in 1865, had to make their mark instead of signing their name to the register; and that more than a third of the men of Suffolk, Devonshire, and Staffordshire, were in the same discreditable predicament. In South Wales, more than half married; and in Bedfordshire, where the children are put early to work on straw plaiting the proportion of the un-instructed very little less. In Liverpool, out of 23,740 persons who were apprehended in 1866, only 253 could read and write well; while of 720 children, dealt with under the Juvenile Offenders' Act, not one could do so. For the 148,000 marriages that were made in England in 1864, 42,000 of the men, and 58,500 of the women (using round numbers) signed with a mark.

A SMART FELLOW.—On Tuesday, a traveller played a singular trick upon the landlord of an inn not 100 miles from Tomforden. Having taken dinner and a bottle of wine, he fell into conversation with the landlord, and said he would teach him how to draw threepenny and the best ale out of the same cask. Boniface was, of course, desirous to learn so profitable an art; and the parties descended into the cellar, taking with them a large gimlet. The traveller bore a hole in one end of an 18 gallon cask of beer, and requested the landlord to place his finger upon the hole; he then bored a hole in the other end of the cask, and requested the landlord to place a finger upon that. He then left the cellar under pretence of fetching his apparatus, and decamped, leaving the landlord with his fingers fully employed in taking care of his beer, and minus dinner and a bottle of wine. When the landlord's patience waxed exhausted in waiting, he called for assistance, got the holes in the cask stopped, and in the future will be satisfied to draw one sort of beer out of one cask.
