AMERICAN NEWS

GEN. THOMAS. The name of Gen. Geo. H. Thomas has been sent to the Senate for Lieut. General and General, by brevet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Adjutant-General Thomas was arrested this morning at eight o'clock, on a warrant issued by Judge Carter, on an affidavit of Secretary Stanton, for a violation of the fifth section of the Tenth of Office Act.

STANTON REMOVED AGAIN. The President has removed Secretary Stanton from the War Department, and appointed Adjutant-General Lorenzo Thomas, ad interim.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The Post's special says it is understood to be Mr. Stanton's intention not to obey the order of the President, but to remain in charge of the War office until he is forcibly ejected, unless counselled by the Senate to turn over the office to Gen. Thomas, in accordance with the President's order.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The Senate a few minutes after two o'clock went into executive session and continued therein several hours. The removal of Stanton was fully discussed, and with much spirit in secret session.

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION OFFERED BY SENATOR WILSON WAS AGREED TO WITHOUT A DIVISION:—Whereas Senate have received and considered a communication of the President, stating that he had removed E. M. Stanton as Secretary of War, and has designated the Adjutant-General of the army to act as Secretary of War, and ad interim, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate of the United States that under the constitution and laws of the United States, the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other officer to perform the duties of that office.

COPIES OF THE RESOLUTION were ordered to be communicated to the President, Secretary of War, and Adjutant-General Thomas. NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The Herald's special says the members of the House of Representatives who have taken the most active part in the late impeachment schemes are the most exercised at this renewal of the war between the Executive and Congress.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The Times' special says when General Thomas presented his order from the President to take possession of the War Department, to Mr. Stanton, the latter asked him for a copy of the order which was given, and he then informed Gen. Thomas that he would take possession of the War Department, and he then advised by the members of the Senate and House who have called on him, to resist the removal, and he undoubtedly will do so. Gen. Thomas has only declared that he will take possession of the office to-morrow morning, and if resisted by Mr. Stanton will send for force to evict his officers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21, 11:45.—Mr. Stanton is still at the department, and will remain all night. The department will be closed to-morrow, it being a legal holiday.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The Tribune's special says Gen. Thomas announces that he will promulgate orders to-morrow to all attaches of the War Department, not to obey any orders from any one connected with that Department, unless they come through him, the penalty being dismissal. A committee appointed by the Senate at its Executive Session to wait upon Chief Justice Carter, of the Supreme Court, and they made an affidavit against Gen. Thomas, charging that he had violated the Civil Tenure of Office Bill. Justice Carter immediately made out an order for his arrest, which has been placed in the hands of an officer, who has come in possession of Gen. Thomas. Should Secretary Stanton refuse to surrender possession to Gen. Thomas, proceedings are to be at once begun on a writ of habeas corpus, which takes precedence in the calendar, and may come up before the Circuit Court at any time. Appeal lies to the Supreme Court.

IMPEACHMENT. The Committee on Reconstruction, at their meeting to-day, agreed by a strictly party vote of seven against two, to impeach the President for high crimes and misdemeanors, charges growing out of the President's conduct in the removal of Secretary Stanton.

IN THE HOUSE TO-DAY, Mr. Brooks made a speech regarding impeachment. In which he said:—We have long been in the midst of revolution, long has the country been agitated in the throes of a revolution, but we are now approaching the last and final stage of that revolution. We are traversing over and over again the days of Cromwell and of Charles the 1st, and Charles the 2nd, and we are traversing over and over again all the scenes of the French revolution. If you proceed to dispose of the President by violence, if you throw him out of office except by due process of impeachment, I tell you in behalf of thousands and millions of the people, that we will never, never, so help me God, never, never submit. This speech was greeted with laughter by the Republican members.

THE RESOLUTION OF IMPEACHMENT was supported by speeches by Messrs. Spalding and Bingham.

THERE IS A STORMY session of the House. A vote on the resolution of impeachment will probably be taken to-night.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22, 11 p.m.—Despatches from Washington state that there seems to be no question, from what can be learned of the views of the Republicans, that the House will pass impeachment resolutions by a large majority.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The streets are full of all sorts of rumors. Some to the effect that thousands of armed men are on their way from Maryland to support the President should a clash of arms occur.

TO EXPRESS THE IDEA OF DRUNKENNESS, metaphor has been nearly exhausted. There are nearly more than two hundred slang terms for intoxication. The latest of these occurs in a recent New Orleans paper. A reporter, speaking of the arrest of a woman who was 'raising a row' in the street, says that 'she was dively arrested with benzine.'

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Coroner's Jury have concluded the investigation of the explosion at the Clerkenwell House of Detention, and to-day rendered their verdict. They bring a charge of murder against the prisoner Barrett, English, of Kildare, Mullany, two Desmonds, English, of Kildare, Mullany, two Desmonds, English, and others, whose names have not yet been made known. Doubt is expressed as to the complicity of Allen, who was recently discharged, but has been rearrested. The verdict concludes by severely censuring the Metropolitan Police in the Clerkenwell district, for lack of activity and vigilance.

LORD STANLEY made an explanation in regard to Mexico. He said that diplomatic relations between the country had been suspended for the reason that, last September, the Mexican Government declined all intercourse with those powers which recognized the late empire.

AN ENGLISH paper says:—Mr. Gladstone was compelled in his last budget to mention the death of a private individual, Mr. Thornton, whose wealth was so enormous that the legacy duty received exceeded the value of the estate. Mr. Thornton, however, left only two and a half millions, and the Cambridge a respectable Welsh paper, now declares that the property of the late Mr. Crawshaw, the ironmaster, the bulk of which is bequeathed to his youngest son, exceeds seven millions. If that statement is correct Mr. Crawshaw must have been the largest, or nearly the largest holder of property in Europe.

A MAN ROBBED AND MURDERED.—The Southport Express says:—On Saturday night, 15th inst., a young man named Hogg was returning from Southport after disposing of a load of grain, and had the money he received for it with him, he was met on the road, between Wroxeter and Belmore, by a young man named Hogg, who stopped him and then proceeded to accomplish his design. Mr. DeBecker was struck several blows on the head with some heavy weapon, but as he had on a heavy fur cap, the blows did not appear to take the desired effect. He received one or two strokes on one temple, which, from what we can learn, left him in a position easy to be deprived of his effects, which consisted of between one hundred and twelve, and one hundred and forty dollars: The first thing known of the horrible deed was next morning, when a team was seen leaving a shed by the hostler, saying at the same time, that the horses should not be let go without a driver. When the boy went to the sleigh he found Mr. DeBecker lying speechless and almost insensible. The only word he was heard to speak from that time was a neighbour who he wanted to take him away from where he was. We learn that he died on Wednesday morning. The wretch who committed the heinous crime is a lad of twenty or twenty-one years. His father, we were told, lives in Buffalo, and keeps a book and stationery store there. Telegrams were sent yesterday from Southport to the places which he would cross to the other side.
