Poetry.

Twenty years Ago.

How wondrous are the changes, Jim, Since twenty years ago, When girls wore woolen dresses, Jim, And boys wore pants of tow; When shoes were made of calf skin And socks of home spun wool, And children did a hallday's work Before the hour of school.

The girls took music lessons, Jim, Upon the spinning wheel, And practised late and early, Jim, On the spindle, swift, and reel; The boys would ride bare backed to mill; A dozen miles or so, And hurry off before 'twas day, Some twenty years ago.

The people rode to meetings, Jim, In sleighs instead of sledge, And wondrous rode as easy, Jim, As buggies now a days, And once answered well for teams, Though now they'd be too slow, For people lived not half so fast Some twenty years ago.

O, well do I remember, Jim, That Wilson's patent stove, In cloth our girls had wore; And how the neighbors wondered When we got the thing to do! They said 'twould bust and kill us all, Some twenty years ago.

Yes, everything is different, Jim, From what it used to was, For men are always tampering, Jim, With God's great Natural laws; But what on earth we're coming to— Does anybody know? For everything has changed so much— Since twenty years ago.
