An American paper mentions the case of a woman who is so large round her waist that her husband can't embrace her all at once: but when he takes one hug he makes a chalk mark so as to know where to commence the next time in going round.

THE way to wealth is as plain as the way to market; it depends chiefly on two words -industry and frugality; that is, waste neither time nor money, but make the best use of both. Without industry and frugality nothing will do, and with them everything.

INTELLIGENT WOMEN TAKE NO PLEASURE IN Gossip .- The well-informed woman may you; for she is the last to take pleasure in mere gossip, or to make vulgar allusions to the appearance, dress, ar personal habits of her friends and neighbors.

EVERY good act is charity. Your smiling are furnished with sattsfactory credentials. in your brother's face is charity; an exhortation of your fellow-men to virtuous deeds is almsgiving; your putting a wanderer on his right road is charity; your removing stones and thorns and other obstructions from the road is charity. A man's true wealth hereafter is the good he does to his fellow men.
