Rome, Dec 20 .- A severe parliamentary conflict is going on ot Florence in regard to the future status of the Pontiff. This important question was submitted to Parliament to take precedence over all others. The entire left will endeavor to destroy the Pope, the sacred college and whole body episcopal. The extreme right will try t save as much as possible of the court, the power and dynasty of St. Peter. The question of the transfer of the capitol caused a brisk encounter between the opposite partisans. The ministerial project for guaranteeing the independence of the Supreme Pontiff and free exercise of the spiritual authority of the Holy See consists of the following articles:—1st, personal inviolability of the Pope; 2nd, the Palace guards are to be retained; 3rd, the receipt annually of 3,215.000 lire for the guard and former civil list; 4th, the Papal resi moves that Joseph Break, Esq., be a dence to be free of taxes and located at the Vatican and Santa Maria Maggrore in Rome, and Cast Elvandolf in the country, and they shall be free of the ordinary juris diction of State. The bill further contains twenty further provisions in detail guaranteeing the Pope and his government personal and political independence.

With the exception of eight or nine of the islands, Aurora is one of the largest and most fertile. It lies in lat. 152 S., long. 168 25 E., and was about thirty-six miles in length, and upwards of five miles in breadth. It has been always known that two of the islands, Ambrym and Tanna, contained volcanoes, but all the other islands were generally supposed to have little or no tendency to volcanic action. How or when the Island of Aurora and its inhabitants disapeared beneath the South Pacific is at present unknown; but no doubt Capt.
