Love at Home.

There is beauty all around There is joy in every sound
When there's love at home. Peace and plenty here abide, Smiling sweet on every side. Time doth softly, swiftly glide, When there's love at home. Time doth softly, swiftly glide, When there's love at home.

In the cottage there is joy When there's love at home-Hate and envy ne'er annoy, When there's love at home, Roses blossom meath our feet. All the earth's a garden sweet. Making life a bliss complete;

When there's love at home, Love at home, love at home, Making life a bliss complete When there's love at home.

Kindly heaven smiles above, Vhen there's love at home; All the earth is filled with love When there's love at home. Sweeter sings the brooklet by, Brighter beams the azure sky, O, there's One who rules on high When there's love at home-

Love at home, love at home O, there's One who rules on high When there's love at home.

Odds and Ends

BE true to God and yourself, and you will be true to all mankind.

TREAT your enemies as if they would some time or other be your friends. Sir George Hayter, the eminent portrait painter, died recently in England at the age of 78. The Rev. Henry Melville, one of the Chaplains to the Queen, died in London on Thursday.

King Amadeus grows in popularity. He does not trouble himself much about the affairs of State. HUMAN nature is so constituted that all see and judge better the affairs of other men than their own.

Her Majesty we regret to say, suffers from occasional attacks of neuralgia of a some what painful description.

After the marriage ceremony the princess and the Marquis of Lorne will proceed by road to Claremont House, Esher.

SPEAK, that I may see thee," said Socrates to a fair boy. We know metals by their tinkling, and men by their talking. "How old are you?" asked a railroad conductor of a little girl whom her mother was trying to pass, on a half ticket. "I am nine at home, but in the cars I am only six and a half."

The Countess Percy gave birth to a son on Saturday Jan. 21st, in London, an event which has given joy to the illustrious houses of Percy and Argyle. The infant son is the only one of his House. that has been born Lord Warkworth.

A stranger in a printing office asked the youngest apprentice what his rule of punctuation was. "I set up as long as I can hold my breath, then I put in a comma; when I gape, I insert a semicolon; and when I want a chew of tobacco I make a paragraph.

VERSAILLES, Feb. 20 .- The payment of ten millions of the twelve millions francs imposed upon the department, of Oise have been deferred. Similar concessions by the Germans are reported elsewhere. An exchange of prisoners will take place at an early day. Paris is quiet.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—There is good authority for stating that Germay's final conditions of peace include the cession of Alsace and a portion of Lorraine, with the fortresses of Thionville. Metz and Belfert, and the sands of persons who never saw or heard of your business, and never would, had it not been for advertising."

BORDEAUX, Feb. 19 .- In the National Assembly to-day Thiers delivered a speech in his capacity of Chief Executive of the French Republic. He dwelt upon the dis-tress and suffering which had been caused by the war and the German invasion, and upon the necessity of peace. Nevertheless Thiers said the terms of peace would be courageously discussed with the Prussians, and would only be accepted if consistent with the honor of France. The task of the administration is to pacify and reorgnize labor. When this is accomplished, the country itself will decide its destinies. The Assembly subsequently adopted a proposal made by the Government to send a commission of five deputies to Paris to act as intermediary between the negotiators and the Assembly. M. Thiers proposed that the Assembly suspend its sittings during the negotiations. Thiers, Picard and Favre, left

Do You!

Come people have only to lie on their backs And open their mouths as wide as they may,

And Apricots, nectarines, peaches, by sacks, Fall into them quite in the regular way.
For peaches and apricots—plums, perhaps! It may be usual thing to do; but why should they fall into lazy folks' laps?

I don't see why. Do you?

Yet men may have labored the whole of their lives (Alas! 'tis certain too many must!)

To earn for their starving children and wives
A daily meal though it be but a crust!
And that crust is almost as rare as a peach To some poor strugglers—and not a few! Why shouldn't there be a share for each? I don't see why. Do you? For kennel'd in gutters and reared in jail,

And left by us all in the slime, With hunger's promptings—if other fail— To drive them to sin and crime,

If the children of ignorance, poverty vice,

The one course we leave them pursue, They're punished by pitiless statutes precise, I don't see why. Do you?

'Tis a very mad world, you must understand. Where totalless gams we give nuts galore, To good grinders no nuts accrue; Folks with naught get nothing-with plenty get more.

I don't see why. Do you?

Markham March 18th, 1870.

Mr. C. Chapman,
Dear Sir,—We have used the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine about nine years, and during that time it has cost nothing for repairs. We sew heavy fulled cloth with coarse linen thread, stronger than can be done by hand; while all fine stitching on light fabrics gives the best satisfaction. We can with confidence recommend the Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine as the best for family use.
